Global Economic Elites and the New Spirit of Capitalism Markus Pohlmann, Friederike Elias, 2024-05-02 Is a new spirit of capitalism emerging as a result of neoliberal adjustments in the global economy The internationalization of management and its comprehensive neoliberals imprint fall short of the assumptions represented by globalization theory Empirical data on the life trajectories and action orientations of CEOs from leading industrial companies in nine countries across Europe Asia and Latin America indicate that local institutional frameworks diverse regional challenges and historically embedded cultural influences exert more significant influence than global trends Different strategies and structures have been identified based on problem centered interviews with top executives and they are made accessible for the first time in English for comparative purposes Handbook of Public Transport Research Graham Currie, 2021-04-30 Providing a comprehensive overview and analysis of the latest research in the growing field of public transport studies this Handbook looks at the impact of urbanisation and the growth of mega cities on public transport Chapters examine the significant challenges facing the field that require new and original solutions including congestion and environmental relief and the social equity objectives that justify public transport in cities European and International Experiences of Strategic Environmental Assessment

Barry Sadler, Jiří Dušík, 2016-03-17 This book brings together the latest thinking in Strategic Environmental Assessment SEA and considers the key question of whether the processes are having a positive impact on strategic decision making both in Europe and worldwide As governments move to develop green agendas the book explores the challenges of working within national systems as well as the strengths and weaknesses of sector specific SEA The importance of stakeholder engagement is considered as is the question of how to turn NIMBYs into WIMBYs that is creating positive reasons to encourage development and allow local stakeholders to profit In assessing ways in which the practice of SEA can provide a new agenda for the 21st Century the chapters explore current and emerging approaches procedures and methods along with ways in which SEA can be linked with other planning tools The role of research and academia is considered and the book looks beyond the current status of SEA to address the question of how practitioners can capitalise on the potential of SEA to become integrated into high level policy as a key element of climate change mitigation strategies Each chapter is written by internationally renowned authors and based on many years of experience in the field The book will be essential reading for forward thinking practitioners and students of SEA
