Introduction to the History of Communication Terence P. Moran,2010 An Introduction to the History of Communication Evolutions and Revolutions provides a comprehensive overview of how human communication has changed and is changing Focusing on the evolutions and revolutions of six key changes in the history of communication becoming human creating writing developing print capturing the image harnessing electricity and exploring cybernetics the author reveals how communication was generated stored and shared This ecological approach provides a comprehensive understanding of the key variables that underlie each of these great evolutions revolutions in human communication Designed as an introduction for history of communication classes the text examines the past attempting to identify the key dynamics of change in these human technical semiotic social political economic and cultural structures in order to better understand the present and prepare for possible future developments BOOK JACKET The God who Comes Rosemarie Taylor-Perry,2003 The mystical ecstatic religions of the Greco Roman culture direct threats to the newer Judeo Christian movements were obliterated Here is a thorough description of the Eleusian mysteries and traces of cultural conflicts at the root of Kosher law and The Archetypal Cosmos Keiron Le Grice,2011-06-09 The modern world is passing through a time of critical change on many levels cultural political ecological and spiritual We are witnessing the decline and dissolution of the old order the tumult and uncertainty of a new birth Against this background there is an urgent need for a coherent framework of meaning to lead us beyond the growing fragmentation of culture belief and personal identity Keiron Le Grice argues that the developing insights of a new cosmology could provide this framework helping us to discover an underlying order shaping our life experiences In a compelling synthesis of the ideas of seminal thinkers from depth psychology and the new paradigm sciences Le Grice positions the new discipline of archetypal astrology at the centre of an emerging world view that reunifies psyche and cosmos spirituality and science mythology and metaphysi and enables us to see mythic gods heroes and themes in a fresh light He draws especially on the work of C G Jung Joseph Campbell Richard Tarnas Fritjof Capra David Bohm and Brian Swimme Heralding a rediscovery of the gods and the passage into a new spiritual era The Archetypal Cosmos presents a new understanding of the role of myth and archetypal principles in our lives one that could give a cosmic perspective and deeper meaning to our personal experiences Nurturing the Souls of Our Children Robert Mitchell,2005 The Sin of Obedience is one of the few works of fiction or non fiction that looks profoundly and with deep personal reflection into the training of a Catholic priest The novel rich and accurate in detail is the story of a young prodigy torn with between the rigid religious traditions and convictions of his mother and the more humanity oriented respect for freedom of his father Building on his own experiences including being the subject of sexual abuse by a seminary teacher the author unfolds a picture of religious life in which the cornerstones of celibacy and a vow of obedience have forced seminarians and priests to make difficult and often impossible decisions in their own personal lives This well crafted story enables the reader to go along with a young boy seminarian and priest on his idealistic pursuit and mission and the consequences he has to face as a result Burning All Illusions David Edwards,1996 This is a book about freedom Above all about the idea that there is often no greater obstacle to freedom than the assumption that it has already been attained What prison after all could be more secure than that deemed to be the world where boundaries of action and thought are assumed to define not the limits of the permissible but the limits of the possible In the past we have been prisoners of tyrants and dictators and consequently have needed to win our freedom in very concrete physical terms We now need to free ourselves not from a slave ship or a concentration camp but from many of the illusions fostered in our democratic society A wise and acute analysis of the way our minds are controlled not in a totalitarian state but in a democratic one Edwards also suggests how we can escape this control in a self help book which unlike other books of this genre connects our inner world of alienation with the world outside Howard Zinn A treatise on what freedom truly means Burning All Illusions is an important philosophical and psychology text that should be on every political science curriculum reading list Wisconsin Book Watch back into the forgotten landscapes and hidden secrets of familiar myths revealing the beautiful range of the divine masculine including expressions of male friendship male intimacy and male creative collaboration In discussing Dionysus and Osiris Strand encourages us to think like an ecosystem instead of like an individual She connects dying vegetal gods to the virtuous cycle of composting and decay highlighting the ways in which mushrooms can restore soil and heal polluted landscapes Exploring esoteric Christianity the author celebrates the Gnostic Jesus of the Gospel of Thomas imagining the ecology that the Rabbi Yeshua would have actually been referencing in his nature focused parables Strand frees Tristan Merlin and the Grail legends from the bounds of Campbell's hero's journey and invites the masculine into more nuanced complex ways of dealing with trauma growth and self knowledge Strand reseeds our minds with new visions of male identity and shows how each of us regardless of gender can develop a matured ecological empathy and witness a blossoming of sacred masculine powers that are soft curious connective and celebratory
