Re Imagining Christian Education For The Twenty First Century:

Re-Imagining Christian Education for the Twenty-First Century Andrew B. Morris, 2013-06 Reimagining Christian Education Johannes M. Luetz, Tony Dowden, Beverley Norsworthy, 2018-07-04 This book is an arresting interdisciplinary publication on Christian education comprising works by leading scholars professionals and practitioners from around the globe It focuses on the integrated approaches to Christian education that are both theoretically sound and practically beneficial and identifies innovative pedagogical methods and tools that have been field tested and practice approved It discusses topics such as exploring programmes and courses through different lenses learning challenges and opportunities within organisational management theology of business Christian models of teaching in different contexts job preparedness developing different interpretive or meaning making frameworks for working with social justice people with disability non profit community organisations and in developing country contexts It offers graduate students teachers school administrators organisational leaders theologians researchers and education practitioners a fresh and inspiring reimagining of Christian education perspectives and practices and the ramifications of their application to life long learning Re-Imagining Christian Higher Education Laurie Schreiner, 2018-12-07 Re Imagining Christian Higher Education takes a fresh and critical look at the challenges facing Christian colleges and universities and provides concrete recommendations for university leaders faculty and staff to implement in their daily work Chapters in this book address leadership and diversity challenges issues of affordability and sustainability and ways of maintaining the distinguishing features of a Christ centered liberal arts education A vivid and compelling picture of the Christian university of the future is painted by these authors as they highlight the importance of embracing our Christian identity while being willing to engage a pluralistic and fragmented world Firmly rooted in a missional identity of faithful learning that is committed to the intellectual personal and spiritual development of our students Christian colleges and universities are encouraged to reclaim and revitalize the breadth and depth of the Christian tradition in order to move forward The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Christian Higher Education Re-Imagining Christian Education for the Twenty-First Century Andrew B. Morris, 2015-01-14 The first annual Conference of the National Centre for Christian Education at Liverpool Hope University held in July 2012 was advertised as a multi conference exploring the opportunities and dilemmas facing Christian education and educationalists at a time of significant social and demographic change when the certainties of the 1944 settlement are fast disappearing contributing to the debate about effective strategies for the enhancement of Christian education and what it might offer the diverse pluralistic society of 21st century England with its current predominantly materialistic and instrumental perspective on the purposes of education It attracted delegates from across the world and contributions from distinguished educational practitioners theorists and administrators Four main themes emerged from the papers accepted for inclusion in the Conference the politics of Christian educational provision vocation and Christian leadership the formation of teachers as RE-IMAGINING CHURCH Gerald Rose, Philip Hughes, Gary D. Bouma, 2014-11 Many church leaders are confused Patterns of ministry which worked so well in the past are no longer effective Churches which grew rapidly have ceased to grow The culture of the Western world has changed At its heart is a change in the nature of authority from tradition and reason to the authority of personal experience This book explores the changes in culture and church life Rev Dr Philip Hughes the senior research officer of the Christian Research Association outlines the problem the churches are facing Rev Gary Bouma Professor Emeritus of Sociology at Monash University and an Anglican Priest charts the origins of the problem The large part of the book is the work of Rev Dr Gerald Rose a senior minister in the Churches of Christ in Victoria Australia Through careful observation and detailed interviews of ministers he describes a range of ministry responses to the changing culture He explores not one solution but many the ministry of intentional mission of the charismatic movement of ministry based in relationships and of ministry rooted in classical spirituality This is a book which should be read by church leaders ministers and pastors of all denominations It provides great insight into the nature of contemporary culture and outlines positive pathways for ministry in the Western context Steward of a Living Tradition John Sullivan, 2025-05-05 This book explores what is entailed in serving as a steward of the living tradition of the Christian faith in the world of education It examines tradition as a resource leadership education as a spiritual endeavor curriculum and Christian learning and the task of connecting tradition to culture John Sullivan engages with historical perspectives and contemporary professional and cultural realities in addressing intellectual and spiritual dimensions of Christian education and the endeavor to make tradition both accessible and meaningful to those for whom it is unfamiliar Themes pervading the book include fostering a critical appreciation for and a creative appropriation of the living tradition of Christianity fluency and flexibility in sharing that tradition vocation and vulnerability and a striving for interconnectedness and integration in teaching and learning at school and university Re-Imagining the Church Robert J. Suderman, 2016-09-30 The church What has it become What was it meant to be Does it pave the way or get in the way Are we suspicious of the institutionalization of church bureaucracy Or thrilled with the relevant impact of its presence Robert J Suderman writes about the church as a practitioner His inspiration emerges out of the crossroads of biblical vision and human sincerity always tempered with frailty Years of ministry never a stranger to complexity only serve to sharpen the vision of possibility His imagination of what can be is never divorced from the realities of what is He does not bow to the common assumption that you can't get there from here Here is the only possible point of origin for us In his succinct easy to understand writing style Suderman provides insightful and thought provoking perspectives to what it means to be the church To be a people called out to participate together in God's activity in the world and to create programs and structures needed for effective ministry are two sides of the same coin This book is for dreamers and bureaucrats alike indeed it assumes that the two are indispensable pieces of God's coming presence Introduction by Tom Yoder Neufeld Mindful Education Charlene Tan, 2021-06-30 This book provides original ideas and practical recommendations for educators in a post pandemic world We live in a world that has been upended by the COVID 19 pandemic Students around the globe have been besieged by disruptions that threaten not only their academic learning but also their mental emotional and interpersonal well being In the midst of pressing and mounting challenges how can schools ensure the total wellness of all their students Beyond reactive piecemeal and short term measures how can schools enact mindful education that pays attention to wholeness in every student Extending the current research on well being and mindfulness this book draws insights from Confucian and Christian traditions These two traditions have been selected as they are widely seen to represent and have impacted Eastern and Western civilisations respectively for millennia Informed and inspired by Confucian and Christian perspectives this book proposes that mindfulness is an orientation towards wholeness where one experiences harmony and shalom peace Mindful education is realised through A school community of ren humanity and agape love A transforming curriculum that centres on dao way and imago dei god s image Empathic teachers who are motivated by shu putting oneself in the other s place and the Golden Rule do to others as you would have them do to you and Self directed learners who develop themselves through xiuji self cultivation and spiritual disciplines Applying ancient wisdom to contemporary settings this book on promoting student well being through mindful education is a useful resource for policymakers educators researchers and general readers

Reimagining the Landscape of Religious Education

Zehavit Gross,2023-03-13 This book brings together new thinking and research on religious education s complex and evolving role in the multicultural diverse postmodern era It facilitates new realism and understanding of the current situation from empirical and reflective accounts relating to a variety of countries and political contexts as well as providing innovative methodological approaches to the study of education and religion In different contexts around the world at different levels of education and from different theoretical lenses religious education occupies a contested space The ongoing changing nature of the world due to increasing secularization rapid technological change mass immigration globalization processes conflict and challenging security issues from inter to intra state levels and with shifting geopolitical power balances generates the need to reconceptualize where religious education is positioned It claims that religious education on its own can be an agent of moral social and spiritual transformation are disputed There is significant controversy about whether special religious education that is in faith education still has a role within the post modern world

Reimagining Ministerial Formation David Heywood,2021-04-30 The Church is currently experiencing a transition in the way it understands and practises both mission and ministry It is to be outward looking engaging with the wider community involving all its members in mission and clergy are to play the role of enablers and equippers of the ministry of the whole church However ministerial formation in colleges and courses throughout the country lags behind this emerging consensus Theological education is still largely based on academic models Reimagining Ministerial Formation offers a new way forward where ministry comes to be about the whole church and ministerial formation is about collaboration between clergy and laity It argues strongly for a shift away from front loaded training to a new focus on formation as a life long process Reflections on Pope Francis's Encyclical, Laudato si' John Arthur Orr, Harry Schnitker, Mary Mills SHCJ, 2020-05-15 This volume represents a collection of essays by emerging and well established Catholic scholars on Laudato si Pope Francis s encyclical on the environment All contributors are connected with the Maryvale Institute in Birmingham the only Vatican approved Higher Institute of Religious Sciences in the English speaking world When it appeared Laudato si was widely welcomed by many and strongly criticised by others All agreed that the encyclical was an important voice in the environmental debate As this book suggests however Laudato si is more than an encyclical on the environment it is a thorough examination of the human condition in the early twenty first century Essays in this volume focus on the philosophical textual ecological anthropological and theological aspects of Laudato si place it in a specific history of ideas and contemplate its meaning for the modern world Laudato si has been widely discussed in religious and secular circles alike and this book will enhance the understanding of the text for both

Reimagining Faith and Abortion Fiona Bloomer, Kellie Turtle, 2024-01-09 In this book faith leaders scholars and activists from around the globe provide their perspective on faith and abortion They reflect on examples of faith organisations which have provided leadership on the issue as well as examining religious approaches from Buddhist Christian Jewish Muslim and interfaith perspectives Challenging the assumption that all people of faith are anti abortion this book provides a counterpoint to right wing faith perspectives and outlines how faith communities reimagine abortion as an issue of social pastoral and theological concern Providing perspectives from the global North and South it includes settings where abortion is legal and where it is restricted and settings where abortion stigma is ever present to settings where abortion is normalised It also demonstrates the complex connections between faith and abortion how women and pregnant people are positioned in society and how morality is claimed and challenged Reimagining the Republic Sandra M. Gustafson, Robert Levine, 2022-12-20 Albion W Tourg e 1838 1905 was a major force for social legal and literary transformation in the second half of the nineteenth century Best known for his Reconstruction novels A Fool s Errand 1879 and Bricks without Straw 1880 and for his key role in the civil rights case Plessy v Ferguson 1896 challenging Louisiana s law segregating railroad cars Tourg e published more than a dozen novels and a volume of short stories as well as nonfiction works of history law and politics This volume is the first collection focused on Tourg e s literary work and intends to establish his reputation as one of the great writers of fiction about the Reconstruction era arguably the greatest for the wide historical and geographical sweep of his novels and his ability to work with multiple points of view As a white novelist interested in the rights of African Americans Tourg e was committed to developing not a single Black perspective but multiple Black perspectives sometimes even in conflict The challenge was to do justice to those perspectives in the larger context of the story he wanted to tell about a multiracial America The seventeen essays in this volume are grouped around three large topics race citizenship and nation The volume also includes a Preface Introduction Afterword Bibliography and Chronology providing an overview of his career

This collection changes the way that we view Tourg e by highlighting his contributions as a writer and editor and as a supporter of African American writers Exploring the full spectrum of his literary works and cultural engagements Reimagining the Republic Race Citizenship and Nation in the Literary Work of Albion Tourg e reveals a new Tourg e for our moment of renewed interest in the literature and politics of Reconstruction

Reimagining Development Education in Africa Olivia Adwoa Tiwaah Frimpong Kwapong, David Addae, John Kwame Boateng, 2022-05-06 This edited volume uses an African centred approach to examine a renewed vision of development education in Africa The purpose of the volume is to supplant prevailing Western ideologies traditions and rhetoric in the development education discourse in Africa and to advocate for alternative paradigms knowledges beliefs and practices through the effort of dialogue between competing orientations values and experiences The book argues that Africa s development challenges are uniquely African requiring indigenous African solutions Consequently this book offers an insightful collection of case studies and conceptual papers that examine how indigenous African knowledge philosophies traditions beliefs and values shape the theory and practice of development education in Africa Reimagining Development Education in Africa exemplifies an interdisciplinary and multifaceted scholarship addressing topical issues and advances in development education in Africa The book discusses among other topics Ubuntu inspired education for sustainable development decolonising African development education Afrocentricity Globalisation and gender equality This book is a must read for scholars and students interested in understanding indigenous educational efforts aimed at promoting sustained improvements in the quality of life of African peoples

Reimagining Philo Torrey Seland, 2025-09-22 Reimagining Philo adopts an experimental approach in multiple respects Some readers might question the use of postcolonial theories and viewpoints in examining Philo of Alexandria Is Philo not to be regarded as one of the most integrated Jews living outside of Judea Is he not typically described as the first century Jewish thinker most affected by Greco Roman intellectual traditions a versatile philosopher significantly influenced by various schools of thought Platonism Stoicism and Epicureanism among the most notable While the impact of philosophical schools on Philo is unquestionable it would be inaccurate to define his primary intellectual identity solely from this perspective Philo was also a committed follower of Judaism So he should be comprehended as a Torah observant Jew a Jewish scholar a politician and an apologetic thinker and writer interacting with various intellectual trends of his era Hence this book aims to investigate characteristics of the Roman Empire as a colonizing force its interactions with Jewish matters in Alexandria and how these and other elements influenced Philo s view of the empire A key argument suggests that Philo s perspective underwent a significant transformation following the pogrom in Alexandria in 38 CE and his visit to imperial Rome resulting in a fresh understanding of the empire and the status and roles of the Jews within that context

Reimagining Historically Black Colleges and Universities Gary B. Crosby, Khalid A. White, Marcus A. Chanay, Adriel Hilton, 2021-05-26 A relevant and practical book for the Nation s Historically Black Colleges and Universities HBCU

leadership and administrators HBCU faculty leaders and researchers that want to uncover the ways and means for cultivating success within the HBCUs longitudinally Christian Education and the Emerging Church Wendi Sargeant, 2015-07-24 All signs point to Christian education having lost its theological location and prominence in the life of the Western Protestant church The Emerging Church movement as an intentionally postmodern approach to ministry in the contemporary context may however offer insights to reinterpret Christian education This significant movement in today's church gives Christian education a new interpretive framework that is theologically located at an intersection of doxology and doctrine In her examination of postmodern faith formation Wendi Sargeant explores the importance of the Christian worshipping community as the most appropriate setting for Christian education Practitioners and students will benefit from the ready to use teaching and learning matrix and all those with interest in the formation of faith in themselves and others will draw much from the way Sargeant situates worship as the basis for enhancing Christian formation and ethos

Alternatives Unincorporated George Zachariah, 2015-01-30 The victims of environmental destruction are often sidelined in eco theology and environmental discourse Movements for ecological justice fail to take into account the voice of those at the grassroots Alternatives Unincorporated presents an environmental ethics that begins with those on the margins Using the key example of the Narmada Dam in India and the popular resistance movement which built up against the project the book examines the collective action of subaltern communities in caring for their local environment The book frames these movements as theological texts that inform a life affirming earth ethics The aim of the book is to challenge prevailing social and ecological dynamics and to affirm the interconnectedness of social justice and environmental action Art and Belief Ruth Illman, 2014-09-19 Art and Belief explores communication between faiths through an examination of contemporary artistic practice The book discusses how a range of artists formulate their worldview and what motivates them to engage in dialogue These artists are engaged in a wide range of artistic forms and practice and come to dialogue from diverse religious positions The aim of the book is to question the assumptions of interreligious dialogue as a largely intellectual exercise in defining the religious other and to explore dialogue as a manifestation of interpersonal ethics The Materiality of

Literary Narratives in Urban History Lieven Ameel, Jason Finch, Silja Laine, Richard Dennis, 2019-08-12 The Materiality of Literary Narratives in Urban History explores a variety of geographical and cultural contexts to examine what literary texts grasped as material objects and reflections on urban materialities have to offer for urban history The contributing writers approach to literary narratives and materialities in urban history is summarised within the conceptualisation materiality in of literature the way in which literary narratives at once refer to the material world and actively partake in the material construction of the world This book takes a geographically multipolar and multidisciplinary approach to discuss cities in the UK the US India South Africa Finland and France whilst examining a wide range of textual genres from the novel to cartoons advertising copy architecture and urban planning and archaeological writing In the process attention is drawn to narrative complexities embedded within literary fiction and to the dialogue between narratives and historical change The Materiality of Literary Narratives in Urban History has three areas of focus literary fiction as form of urban materiality literary narratives as social investigations of the material city and the narrating of silenced material lives as witnessed in various narrative sources
