South African Military Base Forms 2015:

The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces Evert Kleynhans, Marco Wyss, 2025-03-01 The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces provides the first in depth and multifaceted analysis of the evolution and current state of national defence policies strategies doctrines capabilities security challenges and strategic responses of African states and their armed forces Geographically these aspects are investigated at the national sub regional and regional levels Chronologically they are analysed against the backdrop of the superpower withdrawal from the continent in the 1990s and the so called New Scramble for Africa which has seen a crescendo of renewed great power interest in the continent s resources as well as its strategic role location and relevance since the 2000s The book takes a bottom up and African centric approach and is organized around five key themes i the differing security outlooks and defence policies of African powers within the region and the different sub regions ii the strategies doctrines transformation and employment of African armed forces iii the relationship between African armed forces with sub regional regional and international organizations iv the challenges that African states and their armed forces have been facing and their strategic responses and v the position of African perspectives and agency in the context of continental and international security and defence Understanding African security and defence especially in terms of each individual nation s ability to contribute to peacekeeping operations counterterrorism border security and internal security requires a focus on the national level of armed forces and defence policies this in turns sheds light on sub regional and regional divergences challenges and cooperation Based on this framework the chapters in this volume offer comprehensive African perspectives on African and international security and defence and in doing so show the agency of the continent s countries and armed forces in International Security and Relations Special Operations Success James D. Kiras, 2024-10-24 Special Operations Success establishes a new benchmark in military theory in this deeply analytic and innovative work It answers several pressing questions How successful have American special operations been over the past quarter century Are special forces fated to cycles of expansion and misuse Will special forces invariably exceed the authorities granted to them because of they are Is a general theory of special operations feasible given the range of activities and conditions that fall under the category Kiras work is based on two decades of practical teaching and consulting experience within different special operations communities and its analysis and conclusions are designed to inform practitioners policymakers educators and the general public The book develops a framework in the form of a theory comprising capabilities and control for the comprehensively evaluating special operations success and is divided into three parts Part I lays the foundation for a general theory of special operations Part II explores the two component parts of theory capabilities and control and Part III uses various aspects of the theory depending on available information to assess the success of special operations over a twenty year period in the United Kingdom South Africa and the United States Botha, Smuts and the Great War Antonio Garcia, Ian van der Waag, 2023-10-30 In Botha Smuts and the Great War 1914 1918 authors

Antonio Garcia and Ian Van Der Waag conducted painstaking research in South Africa and the United Kingdom to produce this first of a kind volume on the wartime roles of South African prime minister General Louis Botha and his deputy General Jan Smuts. These very different men appealed to different audiences. Botha's nuance and emotional intelligence complemented Smuts's intellectualism. Thrown into a world conflagration in August 1914 and facing internal rebellion and the threat posed by German troops on the borders, they led South Africa's Union Defence Force. Both Botha and Smuts commanded in the field. Steadily, the South African army they commanded, benefiting from wartime training, sometimes in the field, gained resilience, experience, and battle hardiness, adapting to the conditions of the campaigns and the demands of the tasks. South Africa's campaigns were complex and divergent, starting with the invasion of neighbouring German South West Africa to neutralise enemy radio stations and so aid the security of the South Atlantic. Suddenly suspended following the outbreak of the Afrikaner Rebellion, the campaign recommenced in January 1915. Following its conclusion, an infantry brigade raised for Western Front service was diverted to Egypt before facing near annihilation at Delville Wood. Simultaneously, a large South African force fighting alongside British, African, and Indian forces overcame German resistance in East Africa, whilst a brigade of field artillery and later the Cape Corps served in Egypt and Palestine. Moreover, approximately 6,500 South Africans served in the British Army, Royal Flying Corps, Royal Air Force, and in the Royal Navy. Although lionised during the war by a British public hungry for heroes, there is a different side to Botha and Smuts. Shunned by Afrikaner nationalists at the time, they have remained divisive figures. Responsible for the enactment of the Land Act of 1913, which shaped South Africa's socio-economic and political landscape, Botha's statues in Cape Town, Durban, and Pretoria were vandalised on a number of occasions between 2015 and 2022, and there were recent calls for Smuts's statues to be removed. Behind Botha's charming, attractive façade and Smuts's stoic machine were two very human, imperfect, and quite probably inconsiderate men. Together, they provide a wonderful lens through which to examine the potent forces of the early twentieth-century world and the country they hoped to forge. Myopic compatriots had constrained their plans, but it was the outbreak of war in 1914 that offered the most significant opportunities and brought the most adverse challenges. They fought insurmountable odds and achieved great victories at home and abroad, but also made startling errors and ultimately, in classical fashion, risked being crushed by the weight of the world they tried to create.

Historical Dictionary of Nigeria Toyin Falola, Ann

Genova, Matthew M. Heaton, 2018-06-21. The Historical Dictionary of Nigeria, Second Edition, introduces Nigeria's rich and complex history. Readers will find a wealth of information on pre-20th century history, Nigeria under British colonial rule, and important post-independence issues, while providing greater attention to Nigeria's role in international relations, diaspora, and contributions to arts, film, and culture, in particular. This revised edition covers major developments since the last edition, such as the rise of the terrorist group Boko Haram and the election of Muhammadu Buhari to the presidency in 2015, among others. This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Nigeria, Second Edition, contains a chronology, an introduction, and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 1 000 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Nigeria The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Environmental Politics Jeannie Lynn Sowers, Stacy D. VanDeveer, Erika Weinthal, 2023 Including 42 chapters organized across 9 sections The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Environmental Politics explores some of the most important environmental issues through the lens of comparative politics including energy climate change food health urbanization waste and sustainability The chapters delve into more traditional forms of comparative environmental politics CEP the political economy of natural resources and the role of corporations and supply chains while also showcasing new trends in CEP scholarship particularly the comparative study of environmental injustice and intersectional inequities The Handbook highlights scholarship from a broader range of regions and includes approaches from political science anthropology sociology geography gender theory law human rights and development studies Silencing the Guns in Africa Antonio Garcia, Jacob Udo-Udo Jacob, 2025-03-14 The scholarship of this book is drawn from local and international experts by framing critically a number of discourses on matters of security conflict violence and peace on the African continent It is indeed a breath of fresh air to the scientific community largely because it contributes to the on going debates on security issues Dr Ntsikelelo Benjamin Breakfast Director of the Center for Security Peace and Conflict Resolution at Nelson Mandela University This book makes a deep contribution to scholarly literature on conflict studies peacekeeping and peacebuilding in Africa Written largely from the perspective of the applied social sciences it is empirically rich and offers refreshing insights into social behaviour in military contexts This is a timely contribution because current public discourse in South Africa is centred on the gains and missed opportunities of thirty years of democracy and new lenses are welcome Many of the chapters reflect South African experiences This is to be welcomed as it demonstrates that scholars and practitioners from the country are reflecting on the complexities of South African experiences of defence and security matters in contemporary times Dr Sandy Africa Director of Research at Mapungubwe Institute for Strategic Reflection MISTRA This volume brings together the voices of scholars and practitioners a diverse group of writers who are passionate about and committed to creating a safer more prosperous and peaceful Africa Each with their own specialism this work combines many different world views and approaches Conflict in Africa is an impossibly broad topic to cover in a single edited publication and so we focus on a select number of case studies expositions and themes Maritime Security Law in Hybrid Warfare Alexander Lott, 2024-08-19 This is the essential book today for understanding maritime security law Prof James Kraska US Naval War College Harvard Law School The recrudescence of great power competition at sea raises several legal problems Maritime Security Law in Hybrid Warfare brings together authors from various fields of international law to address such challenges in the legal intersection between naval war military activities maritime law enforcement and hybrid warfare This book explores the means for increasing legal resilience against the emerging trend of weaponization of commercial ships underwater cables and pipelines lawfare and migration by hybrid adversaries      African Intellectuals and the State of the Continent Olayiwola Abegunrin, Sabella Abidde, 2018-07-26 This festschrift is composed in honor of a distinguished scholar and Pan Africanist Professor Sulayman S Nyang whose career and intellectual pursuits spans more than 45 years much of it at Howard University Nyang's contributions to African affairs transcend the scope of the academic world as he served as First Secretary and Head of Chancery of the Gambian Embassy in Saudi Arabia from 1975 to 1977 and consultant to the World Bank and United Nations agencies In addition Professor Nyang served as the President of the Interfaith Conference of Metropolitan Washington DC and a member of the boards of many academic journals and organizations of Islamic Studies in the USA He has published copiously on a variety of issues affecting continental Africans Africans in the Diaspora and beyond He has published and collaborated on dozens of books and book chapters and more than 100 articles in referred journals      Myths of Peace and Democracy? Towards Building Pillars of Hope, Unity and Transformation in Africa Mawere, Munyaradzi, Marongwe, Ngonidzashe, 2016-09-01 The myths of peace and democracy in Africa are at the heart of this volume Democracy and peace have become buzz words across postcolonial Africa The gospel of democracy and peace is preached by national governments and by civil society and international organisations alike But to what extent are the ongoing sideshows and charades of quasi oligarchies in Africa really democracy What do ordinary Africans mean when they hunger and thirst for democracy and peace Positive and noble as the loud sounding rhetoric about democracy and peace in Africa might seem the reality of propaganda and dissemblance and of multi dimensional violence are simply too overwhelming not to be disillusioning This book interrogates the rampant violence enduring conflicts autocratic governance and facades of democracy amidst claims and calls for enduring peace on the continent This is a monumental resource book for human rights activists conflict management practitioners civil society activists political scientists statesmen and development practitioners It poses a challenge to those African governments who claim to embrace principles of democracy and respect for human rights to rethink and reconsider their role as ambassadors of peace hope transformation and good governance      Military Assistance on Request and the Use of Force Erika De Wet, 2020-03-26 In countries such as Syria Iraq South Sudan and Yemen internationally recognized governments embroiled in protracted armed conflicts and with very little control over their territory have requested direct military assistance from other states These requests are often accepted by the other states despite the circumvention of the United Nations Security Council and extensive violation of international humanitarian law and human rights In this book Erika De Wet examines the authority entitled to extend a request for or consent to direct military assistance as well as the type of situations during which such assistance may be requested notably whether it may be requested during a civil war Ultimately De Wet addresses the question of if and to what extent the proliferation of military assistance on the request of a recognized government is changing the rules in international law applying to the use of force      Ruling Nature, Controlling People Luregn

Lenggenhager,2018 Recent nature conservation initiatives in Southern Africa such as communal conservancies and peace parks are often embedded in narratives of economic development and ecological research They are also increasingly marked by militarisation and violence In Ruling Nature Controlling People Luregn Lenggenhager shows that these features were also characteristic of South African rule over the Caprivi Strip region in North Eastern Namibia especially in the fields of forestry fisheries and ultimately wildlife conservation In the process the increasingly internationalised war in the region from the late 1960s until Namibia s independence in 1990 became intricately interlinked with contemporary nature conservation ecology and economic development projects By retracing such interdependencies Lenggenhager provides a novel perspective from which to examine the history of a region which has until now barely entered the focus of historical research He thereby highlights the enduring relevance of the supposedly peripheral Caprivi and its military scientific and environmental histories for efforts to develop a deeper understanding of the ways in which apartheid South Africa exerted state power To

Govern the Globe Alfred W. McCoy,2021-11-16 In a tempestuous narrative that sweeps across five continents and seven centuries this book explains how a succession of catastrophes from the devastating Black Death of 1350 through the coming climate crisis of 2050 has produced a relentless succession of rising empires and fading world orders During the long centuries of Iberian and British imperial rule the quest for new forms of energy led to the development of the colonial sugar plantation as a uniquely profitable kind of commerce In a time when issues of race and social justice have arisen with pressing urgency the book explains how the plantation s extraordinary profitability relied on a production system that literally worked the slaves to death creating an insatiable appetite for new captives that made the African slave trade a central feature of modern capitalism for over four centuries After surveying past centuries roiled by imperial wars national revolutions and the struggle for human rights the closing chapters use those hard won insights to peer through the present and into the future By rendering often opaque environmental science in lucid prose the book explains how climate change and changing world orders will shape the life opportunities for younger generations born at the start of this century during the coming decades that will serve as the signposts of their lives 2030 2050 2070 and beyond Geopolitics and

Development Marcus Power,2019-01-25 Geopolitics and Development examines the historical emergence of development as a form of governmentality from the end of empire to the Cold War and the War on Terror It illustrates the various ways in which the meanings and relations of development as a discourse an apparatus and an aspiration have been geopolitically imagined and enframed The book traces some of the multiple historical associations between development and diplomacy and seeks to underline the centrality of questions of territory security statehood and sovereignty to the pursuit of development along with its enrolment in various bordering practices In making a case for greater attention to the evolving nexus between geopolitics and development and with particular reference to Africa the book explores the historical and contemporary geopolitics of foreign aid the interconnections between development and counterinsurgency the role of the state and social movements in re imagining development the rise of re emerging donors like China India and Brazil and the growing significance of South South flows of investment trade and development cooperation Drawing on post colonial and postdevelopment approaches and on some of the author s own original empirical research this is an essential critical and interdisciplinary analysis of the complex and dynamic political geographies of global development Primarily intended for scholars and post graduate students in development studies human geography African studies and international relations this book provides an engaging invaluable and up to date resource for making sense of the complex entanglement between geopolitics and development past and present      A Critical Introduction to International Criminal Law Carsten Stahn,2019 Presents theories practices and critiques alongside each other to engage students scholars and professionals from multiple fields This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core      China's Negotiating Mindset and Strategies Guy Olivier Faure,I. William Zartman,2025-06-30 This book analyzes the mindset with which China enters into negotiations and applies these insights into contemporary arenas of Chinese activity around the world The volume presents and analyses the historical and cultural foundations of Chinese thinking as used in the practice of present day negotiation It begins by addressing the essence of Chinese negotiations and the Chinese mindset turning to a section that presents the cultural foundations of that mindset and strategy The concepts of Confucianism Taoism Yin Yang and Chinese military strategy are highlighted The cases of the Belt and Road Initiative and the South and East China Seas are examined to show the application of these concepts with one addressing business and economic negotiations and the other examining cases of negotiation in geopolitics Finally a synthesis of what has been learned is presented which will contribute to negotiation theory and ultimately will help Western practitioners contemplating negotiation with Chinese diplomats and businesses as well as being a basis for policy analysts understanding of Chinese practices in international relations This book will be of much interest to students of international negotiation foreign policy business studies and international relations as well as practitioners and policymakers      Deep-Time Images in the Age of Globalization Oscar Moro Abadía,Margaret W.
