South Of Eden English Edition:

The Early Modern Global South in Print Dr Sandra Young, 2015-12-28 Early modern geographers and compilers of travel narratives drew on a lexicon derived from cartography's seemingly unchanging coordinates to explain human diversity Sandra Young's inquiry into the partisan knowledge practices of early modernity brings to light the emergence of the early modern global south Young proposes new terms with which to understand the racialized imaginary inscribed in the scholarly texts that presented the peoples of the south as objects of an inquiring gaze from the north

WE derive our rights in America says Edmund Burke in his Account of the European Settlements in America from the discovery of Sebastian Cabot who first made the Northern Continent in 1497 The fact is sufficiently certain to establish a right to our settlements in North America If this distinguished writer and statesman had substituted the name of John Cabot for that of Sebastian he would have stated the truth John Cabot as his name is known to English readers or Zuan Caboto as it is called in the Venetian dialect the discoverer of North America was born probably in Genoa or its neighborhood His name first appears in the archives of Venice where is a record under the date of March 28 1476 of his naturalization as a citizen of Venice after the usual residence of fifteen years He pursued successfully the study of cosmography and the practice of navigation and at one time visited Arabia where at Mecca he saw the caravans which came thither and was told that the spices they brought were received from other hands and that they came originally from the remotest countries of the east Accepting the new views as to the roundness of the earth as Columbus had done he was quite disposed to put them to a practical test With his wife who was a Venetian woman and his three sons he removed to England and took up his residence at the maritime city of Bristol The time at which this removal took place is uncertain In the year 1495 he laid his proposals before the king Henry VII who on the 5th of March 1495 granted to him and his three sons their heirs and assigns a patent for the discovery of unknown lands in the eastern western or northern seas with the right to occupy such territories and to have exclusive commerce with them paying to the King one fifth part of all the profits and to return to the port of Bristol The enterprise was to be at their own proper cost and charge In the early part of May in the following year 1497 Cabot set sail from Bristol with one small vessel and eighteen persons principally of Bristol accompanied perhaps by his son Sebastian and after sailing seven hundred leagues discovered land on the 24th of June which he supposed was in the territory of the Grand Cham The legend prima terra vista was inscribed on a map attributed to Sebastian Cabot composed at a later period at the head of the delineation of the island of Cape Breton On the spot where he landed he planted a large cross with the flags of England and of St Mark and took possession for the King of England If the statement be true that he coasted three hundred leagues he may have made a periplus of the Gulf of St Lawrence returning home through the Straits of Belle Isle On his return he saw two islands on the starboard but for want of provisions did not stop to examine them He saw no human beings but he brought home certain implements and from these and other indications he believed that the country was inhabited He returned in the early part of August having been absent about three months The discovery which he reported and of which he made and exhibited a map and a solid globe created a great sensation in England The King gave him money and also executed an agreement to pay him an annual pension charged upon the revenues of the port of Bristol He dressed in silk and was called or called himself the Great Admiral Preparations were made for another and a larger expedition evidently for the purpose of colonization and hopes were cherished of further important discoveries for Cabot believed that by starting from the place already found and coasting toward the equinoctial he should discover the island of Cipango the land of jewels and spices by which they hoped to make in London a greater warehouse of spices than existed in Alexandria The London Gazette, 1865 NRA CET Graduation Pass Book (English Edition) - 74 Topic-wise Solved Tests (General Intelligence, English, Reasoning, Quantitative Aptitude) EduGorilla Prep Experts, Best Selling Book in English Edition for NRA CET Exam for Graduation Pass Topic wise Tests with objective type questions as per the latest syllabus given by the National Recruitment Agency NRA CET Exam for Graduation Pass Preparation Kit comes with 74 Topic wise Practice Tests with the best quality content Increase your chances of selection by 16X NRA CET Exam for Graduation Pass Prep Kit comes with well structured and 100% detailed solutions for all the questions Clear exam with good grades using thoroughly Researched Content by experts Catalogue of the Nevada State Library Nevada State Library, 1890 Narrative and Critical History of America: English explorations and settlements in North America, 1497-1689. [c1884 Justin Winsor, 1884 Catalogue of the Louisiana State Library, Law Department Louisiana State Library. The Encyclopedic Sourcebook of New Age Religions James R. Lewis,2004-08-30 In the late 1980s the New Age movement became the focus of both media attention and widespread ridicule as some of the more outlandish aspects of the movement such as channeling and the use of crystals for healing briefly piqued the public s curiosity While the movement was at its height scholars of religion generally sneered at what was perceived to be a daffy shallow craze and ignored it as a subject of serious study Professor James R Lewis was among the first to examine this growing religious phenomenon scientifically In previous books he has investigated the New Age as the most visible manifestation of a significant spiritual subculture the roots of which reach back to Theosophy Spiritualism and New Thought The present collection pursues this theme bringing together some of the best recent scholarship on new religions Since the height of its popular influence the New Age has declined in strength but has given rise to a plethora of new denominations all shaped by New Age ideas and spirituality Reflecting the emergence of this new denominational structure the core chapters of this book focus on specific groups Other chapters examine the movement s historical roots A unique feature of Dr Lewis s work is his inclusion of extensive selections from New Age literature thus allowing readers to experience firsthand the unusual perspectives of the various groups This is a fascinating examination of a significant and persistent religious and social phenomenon Narrative and Critical History of America: French explorations and settlements in North America, and those of the Portuguese, Dutch, and Swedes, 1500-1700 Justin Winsor,1884
