

Ray Bradbury's "The Pedestrian" (1952) Discussion Questions

Directions: Answer the following questions while you read the short story.

1. What can darkness v.s. light symbolize in "The Pedestrian"? Consider that all of the other houses are dark while Leonard's house has all of its lights on.
2. Certainly, it's bad if people mindlessly watch television every night, but what are the advantages of living in this dystopian setting? Consider the crime rate and need for police in this story. Would any of these advantages be worth living in this setting? Why or why not?
3. How are people in their cars travelling to work indirectly characterized? What perhaps does Bradbury use to describe people in traffic, likely on the way to work? Why are they described this way?
4. How is Miles indirectly characterized with animals or insects before the police car interrogates him? How does this characterization shift once the police car interrogates him?
5. Consider the sociocultural context of when Bradbury wrote the short story. How much can understanding America in 1952 help better appreciate the story? Also, what did "The Pedestrian" comment about our society today? Has our dependency or reliance on technology improved or worsened since then? Why?
6. What metaphors or similes does "The Pedestrian" imply? How are they implied?
