Olofinjana, 2011-02-04 Ever so often a book comes along that I feel should have been written years ago and this book is one of them As a Christian who found faith in Nigeria in the 80s I was intrigued by stories about God Generals those men and women that led 20th century revivals across the world most of them in the West Now I have in my hands a book that shares some of the stories of some of my fellow countrymen who shaped the faith landscape in Nigeria I am really impressed with the diversity of the leaders identified and the depth of the research undertaken This book in my view should be a must read for anyone interested in origins of Pentecostalism in Nigeria Keno Ogbo Co editor The Black Church in the 21st Century The Lord joined us to the ministry of Benson Idahosa for 20 years and we saw firsthand the reality and power of the gospel in Africa that has touched the world The Lord s sovereign work in the continent is going to impact the globe for generations to come Thank God for the African church of Jesus Christ Millions of strong and faithful believers are coming forth at this critical time as God builds His church Dr Kent Ruth Hodge President of Christian Faith Institute Jos Nigeria Christianity has been recognised to be a growing religion in Sub Sahara Africa The expression of Christianity that is expanding in Africa is Pentecostalism One reason for this growth is the renewal factor which has engulfed the whole continent Nigeria is one of the countries that has and is still experiencing revival that is contributing to local and global Christianity What is the origin of Pentecostalism in Nigeria What contributions did the late Archbishop Benson Idahosa make to the Pentecostal scene in Africa Why is RCCG one of the fastest growing Churches in the World This book considers the history of Pentecostalism in Nigeria by looking at the pioneering efforts of men and women who laid the foundation of the Movement

Christianity and Controversies over Homosexuality in Contemporary Africa Ezra Chitando,Adriaan van Klinken,2016-05-12 Issues of homosexuality are the subject of public and political controversy in many African societies today Frequently these controversies receive widespread attention both locally and globally such as with the Anti Homosexuality Bill in Uganda In the international media these cases tend to be presented as revealing a deeply rooted homophobia in Africa fuelled by religious and cultural traditions But so far little energy is expended in understanding these controversies in all their complexity and the critical role religion plays in them Complementing the companion volume Public Religion and the Politics of Homosexuality in Africa this book investigates Christian politics and discourses on homosexuality in sub Saharan Africa The contributors present case studies from various African countries from Nigeria to South Africa and from Cameroon to Uganda focusing on Pentecostal Catholic and mainline Protestant churches They critically examine popular Christian theologies that perpetuate homophobia and discrimination but they also discuss contestations of such discourses and emerging alternative Christian perspectives that contribute to the recognition of sexual diversity social justice and human rights in contemporary Africa

Nigerian Pentecostalism and Development Richard Burgess, 2020-04-06 This book examines the contributions both intentional and unintentional of Nigerian Pentecostal churches and NGOs to development studying their development practices broadly in relation to the intersecting spheres of politics economics health education human rights and peacebuilding In sub Saharan Africa Pentecostalism is fast becoming the dominant expression of Christianity but while the growth and civic engagement of these churches has been well documented their role in development has received less attention The Nigerian Pentecostal landscape is one of the most vibrant in Africa Churches are increasingly assuming more prominent roles as they seek to address the social and moral ills of contemporary society often in fierce competition with Islam for dominance in Nigerian public space Some scholars suggest that the combination of an enchanted worldview an emphasis on miracles and prosperity teaching and a preoccupation with evangelism discourages effective political engagement and militates against development However Nigerian Pentecostalism and Development argues that there is an emerging movement within contemporary Nigerian Pentecostalism which is becoming increasingly active in development practices This book goes on to explore the increasingly transnational approach that churches take often seeking to build multicultural congregations around the globe for instance in Britain and the United States Nigerian Pentecostalism and Development Spirit Power and Transformation will be of considerable interest to scholars and students concerned with the intersection between religion and development and to development practitioners and policy makers working in the region

The Pentecostal World Michael Wilkinson, Jörg Haustein, 2023-04-01 The Pentecostal World provides a comprehensive and critical introduction to one of the most vibrant and diverse expressions of contemporary Christianity Unlike many books on Pentecostalism this collection of essays from all continents does not attempt to synthesize and simplify the movement's inherent diversity and fragmented dispersion Instead the global flows of Pentecostalism are firmly grounded in local histories and expressions as well as the various modes of their worldwide reproduction The book thus argues for a new understanding of Pentecostal and Charismatic movements that accounts for the simultaneous processes of pluralization and homogenization in contemporary World Christianity Written by a distinguished team of international contributors across various disciplines the volume is comprised of six parts with each offering a critical perspective on classical themes in the study of Pentecostalism Led by a programmatic introduction the thirty six chapters within these parts explore a variety of themes history and historiography conversion spirit beliefs and exorcism prosperity politics gender relations sexual identities racism development migration pilgrimage interreligious relations media ecumenism and academic research The Pentecostal World is essential reading for students and researchers in anthropology history political science religious studies sociology and theology The book will also be very useful for those in related fields such as culture studies black studies ethnic studies and gender studies

Peoples, Beliefs, Cultures, and Justice in Afro-Catholicism: Ikpu-Ala and Igbo Church Okey Jude Uche, 2017-11-10 This book explores in depth Ikpu ala as a social justice value in the Igbo social justice system The traditional social justice concept of ikpu ala provides an important conceptual framework through which adult Igbo Christians can engage in a critical and conscious theological reflections upon how they can make the Igbo Christian community fully authentic and faithful to the Gospel of Jesus Christ This is a process that will highlight the total transformation of the Igbo society which began with the arrival of the missionaries in 1885 This reflection is based on the Igbo experience and understanding of Omenala the Igbo moral code in which the world of the material and the spiritual while occupying distinct domains nonetheless remain deeply intertwined In this book the author explores that for the Igbo community the reality of theology has evolved as a distinct from of experience that is deeply connected with tradition for the sake of praxis Don Browning 1995 Consequently the author not only sees Ikpu ala as authentic Igbo social justice value but also considers it as something that can be integrated into the Christian social values without either destroying Igbos longstanding cultures or traditions The author highlights two key lessons from the Igbo integration of ikpu ala into Christian social justice 1 that the Igbo Catholic Church should engage the Igbo culture and traditions in a theological interactive reflections for the incarnation of the Word among the Igbo Catholics and 2 that Ikpu ala with its theological values can assist the Igbo Catholic Church in the sacrament of reconciliation and so transform the twenty first century Igbo Catholic into an integrated and authentic Christian

Internal Affairs Wendy H. Wong,2012-07-11 Why are some international nongovernmental organizations NGOs more politically salient than others and why are some NGOs better able to influence the norms of human rights Internal Affairs shows how the organizational structures of human rights NGOs and their campaigns determine their influence on policy Drawing on data from seven major international organizations the International Committee of the Red Cross Amnesty International Human Rights Watch M decins sans Fronti res Oxfam International Anti Slavery International and the International League of Human Rights Wendy H Wong demonstrates that NGOs that choose to centralize agenda setting and decentralize the implementation of that agenda are more successful in gaining traction in international politics Challenging the conventional wisdom that the most successful NGOs are those that find the right cause or have the most resources Wong shows that how NGOs make and implement decisions is critical to their effectiveness in influencing international norms about human rights Building on the insights of network theory and organizational sociology Wong traces how power works within NGOs and affects their external authority The internal coherence of an organization as reflected in its public statements and actions goes a long way to assure its influence over the often tumultuous elements of the international human rights landscape

Caught in the Current Sam Reimer, 2023-04-15 Evangelical Christianity is known for its defence of traditional Christian teachings and resistance to liberalizing trends Many Western evangelicals themselves do not yet realize how their faith is being reshaped by the modern zeitgeist Caught in the Current explores how and why Western evangelicals are changing Church attendance is declining conservative moral positions are unpopular and young people are drifting away from the faith Evangelism is avoided so few are joining congregations Yet these surface changes are only symptoms of a more profound shift that church leaders have not fully apprehended Drawing upon 125 interviews with British and Canadian clergy and active laity Sam Reimer argues that evangelicals have been deeply influenced by a post Christian culture that has rejected institutional religious authority and embraced self spirituality As individual evangelicals struggle to navigate these waters and to distance themselves from politicized evangelicalism in the United States they are caught between conformity and resistance between faithfulness to church moral teachings and accommodation of secular values Many are responding by turning inward to define their Christian beliefs for themselves The ironic result is that the decline of institutional religious authority is not happening just in Western culture but within evangelical churches as well Caught in the Current is an insightful and nuanced assessment of how British and Canadian evangelicals are navigating a post Christian culture often in ways that are distinct from how their counterparts in the United States approach it
