Perspectives on Causation Richard Goldberg,2011-10-21 The chapters in this volume arise from a conference held at the University of Aberdeen concerning the law of causation in the UK Commonwealth countries France and the USA The distinguished group of international experts who have contributed to this book examine the ways in which legal doctrine in causation is developing and how British law should seek to influence and be influenced by developments in other countries As such the book will serve as a focal point for the study of this important area of law The book is organised around three themes the black letter law scientific evidence and legal theory In black letter law scholarship major arguments have emerged about how legal doctrine will develop in cases involving indeterminate defendants and evidential gaps in causation Various chapters examine the ways in which legal doctrine should develop over the next few years in particular in England Scotland Canada and the USA including the problem of causation in asbestos cases In the area of scientific evidence its role in the assessment of causation in civil litigation has never been greater The extent to which such evidence can be admitted and used in causation disputes is controversial This section of the book is therefore devoted to exploring the role of statistical evidence in resolving causation problems including recent trends in litigation in the UK USA Australia and in France and the question of liability for future harm In the legal theory area the so called NESS necessary element in a sufficient set test of causation is discussed and defended The importance of tort law responding to developing science and observations from the perspective of precaution and indeterminate causation are also explored The book will be of interest to legal academics policy makers in the field specialist legal practitioners those in the pharmaceutical and bioscience sectors physicians and scientists

Stamps, Nationalism and Political Transition Stanley D Brunn,2022-08-08 This book explores how states in political transition use stamps to promote a new visual nationalism Stamps as products of the state and provide small pieces of information about a state s heritage culture economies and place in the world These depictions change over time reflecting political and cultural changes and developments The volume explores the transition times in more than a dozen countries from Africa Latin America Asia and Europe Specifically addressed are the stamp topics issues and themes in the years before and after such major changes occurred for example from a European colony to political independence or from a dictatorship to democracy The authors compare the personalities histories and cultural representations before the transition period and how the state used the after event to define or redefine its place on the world political map The final three chapters consider international themes on many stamp issues one being stamps with Disney cartoon characters another on themeless Forever stamps and the third on states celebrating women and their accomplishments This volume has wide interdisciplinary relevance and should prove of particular interest to those studying geopolitics political transition visual nationalism soft power and visual representations of decolonializing

Peace, Security and Post-conflict Reconstruction in the Great Lakes Region of Africa Tukumbi Lumumba-Kasongo, 2017-11-27 The Great Lakes region of Africa is characterized by protest politics partial democratization political illegitimacy and unstable economic growth Many of the countries that are members of the International Conference on the Great Lakes Region ICGLR which are Burundi Angola Central African Republic Democratic Republic of the Congo Republic of the Congo Kenya Uganda Rwanda Sudan South Sudan Tanzania and Zambia have experienced political violence and bloodshed at one time or another While a few states have been advancing electoral democracy environmental protection and peaceful state building the overall intensity of violence in the region has led to civil wars invasion genocide dictatorships political instability and underdevelopment Efforts to establish sustainable peace meaningful socio economic development and participatory democracy have not been quite successful Using various methodologies and paradigms this book interrogates the complexity of the causes of these conflicts and examines their impact and implications for socio economic development of the region The non consensual actions related to these conflicts and imperatives of power struggles supported by the agents of savage capitalism have paralysed efforts toward progress The book therefore recommends new policy frameworks within regionalist lenses and neo realist politics to bring about sustainable peace in the region

Procédés d'élaboration des constitutions en R.D. Congo Francis Kalombo Tambwa, 2021-09-29 Les Constitutions de la RD Congo sont apparues comme des parenthèses entrant dans des conflits ou comme des résultats phénomenes et fragiles des terribles négociations Le pays est identifié comme un pays producteur et consommateur permanent des Constitutions Les institutions issues de toutes ces Constitutions ont toujours fonctionné sous un govt dictatorial en augurant ainsi les incohérences basées d'inadaptation et de dysfonctionnement suite la non prise en compte des réalités locales du pays mais aussi aux mimétismes et l'accommodation aux impératifs conjoncturels et individuels Cet ouvrage est une analyse pour la stabilité institutionnelle et politique de la R D Congo gage du bien-être collectif Les Constitutions tant d'abord nationales il faut prendre en compte des conditions historiques de chaque peuple pour leur production afin d'éviter l'aliénation des droits avec pour éventuelle conséquence le désenchantement de la cohésion sociale

Religion, Colonization and Decolonization in Congo, 1885-1960. Religion, colonisation et décolonisation au Congo, 1885-1960 Vincent Viaene, Bram Cleys, Jan De Maeyer, 2020-10-30 Religion in today's Democratic Republic of Congo has many faces from the overflowing seminaries and Marian shrines of the Catholic Church to the Islamic brotherhoods from the healers of Kimbanguism to the televangelism of the booming Pentecostal churches in the great cities from the Orthodox communities of Kasai to the invisible Mai Mai warriors in the brousse of Kivu During the colonial period religion was no less central to people's lives than it is today More surprisingly behind the seemingly smooth facade of missions linked closely to imperial power faith and worship were already marked by diversity and dynamism tying the Congo into broader African and global movements The contributions in this book provide insight into the multifaceted history of the interaction between religion and colonization The authors outline the institutional political framework and focus on the challenge that old and new forms of slavery entailed for the missions The atrocities committed at the time of the Congo Free State became an existential question for young Christian communities In the Belgian Congo after 1908 more structural forms of colonial violence remained a key issue marking religious experiences And yet religion also acted as a bridge The authors emphasize the role intermediaries such as catechists or medical assistants played in the African appropriation of Christianity They examine the complex interaction with indigenous religious beliefs and practices and zoom in on the part religions played in the independence movement as well as on their reaction to independence itself Coming at a moment when Belgium confronts its colonial past this volume provides a timely reassessment of religion as a key factor

Sommes-nous tous des descendants de Kimpa Vita ? Une question aux historiens congolais Charles Wola Bangala, 2021-03-25 Pourquoi les Congolais s'obstinent-ils à ressasser qu'ils sont des descendants de Kimpa Vita alors que cette dernière n'a rien à voir avec les développements sociopolitiques de l'actuelle République démocratique du Congo Cet ouvrage démonte un mensonge politique répandu dans la société congolaise au grand mépris de l'histoire car il y a un paradoxe vouloir s'approprier le mérite et les honneurs de ce grand personnage historique alors qu'on n'appartient à sa descendance ni de près ni de loin

Aid Relations and State Reforms in the Democratic Republic of the Congo Stylianos Moshonas, 2018-06-12 Since 2001 The Democratic Republic of Congo has been engaged in a three fold transition process towards liberalisation democratisation and peace Throughout this process external actors donors international financial institutions the UN system aid agencies have played a leading role effectively setting the orientations and modalities of this transition including their institutional dimension Congolese actors have not been passively subjected to this process however but have potently shaped it in various ways This book investigates the relationship between international aid partners and various Congolese actors since 2001 It examines this relationship as an aspect of the state reform process with particular reference to the administration Stylianos Moshonas argues that the pace and nature of reform has been compromised by the contradictions inherent within the process itself as advocated by international partners and by the ability of Congolese power holders to accommodate and co opt such reforms in line with their own political strategies Rather than framing aid relations as the outcome of the oppositional points of view of donors and Congolese actors this book presents a systematic focus on the compromises and accommodative characteristics that aid politics have coalesced around as well as the contradictory positions donors have found themselves in Review of the African Commission on Human and People's Rights , 1998
