Sorstalanság Imre Kertész, 1999      Fateless Imre Kertész, 1992 On his return to his native Budapest from a German concentration camp 14 year old George Koves senses the difference of people on the street Left to ponder the meaning of his experience alone he comes to the conclusion that neither his Hungarian or Jewish heritage was at the heart of his fate

Imre Kertész and Holocaust Literature Louise Olga Vasvári, Steven Tötösy de Zepetnek, 2005 Publisher Description

Sorstalanság Imre Kertész, 1993      Fatelessness Imre Kertész, 2004-12-07 At the age of 14 Georg Koves is plucked from his home in a Jewish section of Budapest and without any particular malice placed on a train to Auschwitz He does not understand the reason for his fate He doesn't particularly think of himself as Jewish And his fellow prisoners who decry his lack of Yiddish keep telling him You are no Jew In the lowest circle of the Holocaust Georg remains an outsider The genius of Imre Kertész's unblinking novel lies in its refusal to mitigate the strangeness of its events not least of which is Georg's dogmatic insistence on making sense of what he witnesses or pretending that what he witnesses makes sense Haunting evocative and all the more horrifying for its rigorous avoidance of sentiment Fatelessness is a masterpiece in the traditions of Primo Levi Elie Wiesel and Tadeusz Borowski      Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina

Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e.g. the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers      Holocaust

Literature: Agosin to Lentini S. Lillian Kremer, 2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference

Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004      Philosophy, Society and the Cunning of History in Eastern Europe
 Costica Bradatan, 2013-09-13 Philosophy Society and the Cunning of History in Eastern Europe charts the intellectual landscape of twentieth century East Central Europe under the unifying theme of precariousness as a mode of historical existence Caught between empires often marked by catastrophic historic events and grand political failures the countries of East Central Europe have for a long time developed a certain intellectual self representation a culture that not only helps them make some sense of such misfortunes but also protects them somehow from a collapse into nihilism An interdisciplinary study of this sophisticated culture of survival and endurance has been long overdue Not only is it charming and worth studying in its own right but with the re integration of the new Europe into the old one and the emergence on the Western European intellectual scene of many authors from the East such a culture will also shape the European mind of the 21st century This volume decodes and explores this culture of precariousness from the complementary angles of philosophy political theory intellectual history and literary studies Expert contributors look at a wide range of topics from philosophical martyrdom to collective suffering to geographical fatalism and explore the works of key authors in the field including Cioran Ko akowski Kert sz Bauman and i ek This book was originally published as a special issue of Angelaki The Journal of the Theoretical Humanities      The Conflagration of Community J. Hillis Miller, 2011-08-01 After Auschwitz to write even a single poem is barbaric The Conflagration of Community challenges Theodor Adorno s famous statement about aesthetic production after the Holocaust arguing for the possibility of literature to bear witness to extreme collective and personal experiences J Hillis Miller masterfully considers how novels about the Holocaust relate to fictions written before and after it and uses theories of community from Jean Luc Nancy and Derrida to explore the dissolution of community bonds in its wake Miller juxtaposes readings of books about the Holocaust Keneally s Schindler s List McEwan s Black Dogs Spiegelman s Maus and Kert sz s Fatelessness with Kafka s novels and Morrison s Beloved asking what it means to think of texts as acts of testimony Throughout Miller questions the resonance between the difficulty of imagining understanding or remembering Auschwitz a difficulty so often a theme in records of the Holocaust and the exasperating resistance to clear conclusive interpretation of these novels The Conflagration of Community is an eloquent study of literature s value to fathoming the unfathomable
     History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2010-09-29 Types and stereotypes is the fourth and last volume of a path breaking multinational literary history that incorporates innovative features relevant to the writing of literary history in general Instead of offering a traditional chronological narrative of the period 1800 1989 the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe approaches the region s literatures from five complementary angles focusing on literature s participation in and reaction to key political events literary periods and genres the literatures of cities and sub regions literary institutions and figures of representation The main objective of the project is to challenge the self enclosure of national literatures in traditional literary histories to contextualize them in a regional perspective and to recover individual works writers and minority literatures that national histories have marginalized or ignored Types and stereotypes brings together articles that rethink the figures of National Poets figurations of the Family Women Outlaws and Others as well as figures of Trauma and Mediation As in the previous three volumes the historical and imaginary figures discussed here constantly change and readjust to new political and social conditions An Epilogue complements the basic history focusing on the contradictory transformations of East Central European literary cultures after 1989 This volume will be of interest to the region s literary historians to students and teachers of comparative literature to cultural historians and to the general public interested in exploring the literatures of a rich and resourceful cultural region

The Exile and Return of Writers from East-Central Europe John Neubauer, Borbála Zsuzsanna Török, 2009-10-28 This is the first comparative study of literature written by writers who fled from East Central Europe during the twentieth century It includes not only interpretations of individual lives and literary works but also studies of the most important literary journals publishers radio programs and other aspects of exile literary cultures The theoretical part of introduction distinguishes between exiles migr s and expatriates while the historical part surveys the pre twentieth century exile traditions and provides an overview of the exilic events between 1919 and 1995 one section is devoted to exile cultures in Paris London and New York as well as in Moscow Madrid Toronto Buenos Aires and other cities The studies focus on the factional divisions within each national exile culture and on the relationship between the various exiled national cultures among each other They also investigate the relation of each exile national culture to the culture of its host country Individual essays are devoted to Witold Gombrowicz Paul Goma Milan Kundera Monica Lovinescu Milo Crnjanski Herta M ller and to the internal exile of Imre Kert sz Special attention is devoted to the new forms of exile that emerged during the ex Yugoslav wars and to the problems of homecoming of exiled texts and writers

The Politics of Traumatic Literature Önder Çakırtaş, Şahin Kızıldaş, Antolin C. Trinidad, 2018-10-29 This book is a collection of essays offering an inside view into the inner analysis of traumatic literary studies wherein language is used as a medium of expression so as to interpret man psyche and memory By making literature the partner of a dialogue with psychology in order to better comprehend the psyche it serves to alter the way of understanding the literary phenomenon Featuring relevant coverage on topics such as literary production psychology in literature identity and traumatic studies this book provides in depth analysis that is suitable for academicians students professionals and researchers interested in discovering more about the relationship between psychology and literature and their effects on thinking

Comparative Central European Holocaust Studies Louise Olga Vasvári, Steven Tötösy de Zepetnek, 2009 The work presented in the volume in fields of the humanities and social sciences is based on 1 the notion of the existence and the describability and analysis of a culture including e g history literature society the arts etc specific of to the region designated as Central Europe 2 the relevance of a field designated as Central European Holocaust studies and 3 the relevance in the study of culture of the comparative and contextual approach designated as comparative cultural studies Papers in the volume are by scholars working in Holocaust Studies in Australia Germany Hungary Israel Serbia the United Kingdom and the US István Szabó Susan Rubin Suleiman, 2024-01-25 István Szabó is one of the few Hungarian filmmakers to have earned a major international reputation over the past half century This thoughtful and original book is the first examination of Szabó's contribution to contemporary thought engaging the troubled history of Europe in the 20th and 21st centuries István Szabó's importance as a filmmaker lies not only in his attention to film's formal elements but in his deep and ongoing engagement with some of the most urgent ethical and existential questions of our time With detailed analyses of István Szabó's major films from his 1960s works to his Academy Award for Best Foreign Film winner Mephisto and on through Szabó's last film in 2020 Final Report Susan Rubin Suleiman focuses on four important questions pertaining to existential choice to leave home or to stay in a communist country To collaborate or not with an authoritarian regime To affirm or to deny one's Jewishness in the face of antisemitism To seek or to give up on community in the face of individual or national conflicts Above all Suleiman addresses the single most important philosophical question that haunts Szabó's work as it does that of many other Central European intellectuals and filmmakers of our time That is how do individuals attempt through the life choices they make or that are foisted on them to create a viable self in extreme historical situations over which they have no control A Nation Divided by History and Memory Gábor Gyáni, 2020-07-12 During the last few decades there has been a growing recognition of the great role that remembering and collective memory play in forming the historical awareness In addition the dominant national form of history writing also met some challenges on the side of a transnational approach to the past In A Nation Divided by History and Memory a prominent Hungarian historian sheds light on how Hungary's historical image has become split as a consequence of the differences between the historian's conceptualisation of national history and its diverse representations in personal and collective memory The book focuses on the shocking experiences and the intense memorial reactions generated by a few key historical events and the way in which they have been interpreted by the historical scholarship The argument of A Nation Divided by History and Memory is placed into the context of an international historical discourse This pioneering work is essential and enlightening reading for all historians many sociologists political scientists social psychologists and university students Famous People Around The World.
