Soul Of A Citizen Living With Conviction In Challenging Times:

Soul of a Citizen Paul Rogat Loeb,2010-03-30 Soul of a Citizen awakens within us the desire and the ability to make our voices heard and our actions count We can lead lives worthy of our convictions A book of inspiration and integrity Soul of a Citizen is an antidote to the twin scourges of modern life powerlessness and cynicism In his evocative style Paul Loeb tells moving stories of ordinary Americans who have found unexpected fulfillment in social involvement Through their example and Loeb s own wise and powerful lessons we are compelled to move from passivity to participation The reward of our action we learn is nothing less than a sense of connection and purpose not found in a purely personal life Soul of a Citizen has become the handbook for budding social activists veteran organizers and anybody who wants to make a change big or small in the world around them At this critical historical time Paul Loeb s completely revised edition and inspiring message is more urgently important than ever

Editing for Sensitivity, Diversity and Inclusion Renée Otmar,2023-08-29 This text is a guide for professional editors providing recommendations and support for those working with fiction and non fiction genres

Researching Development NGOs Susannah Pickering-Saqqa,2023-05-23 This book offers a critical insight into how the study of NGOs can be more theoretically grounded and methodologically creative The role of NGOs in global development has been the focus of considerable research and scholarship for the last four decades More recently scholars and NGO practitioners have begun to explore their relationships and how research can better inform practice and vice versa This book addresses questions arising from such research including how different theoretical perspectives can be applied to the study of NGOs what kinds of data can be used when trying to better understand NGOs and what methods can be used in studying NGOs Rather than evaluating the impact of NGO work this is a book about how researchers and practitioners can better understand what NGOs do and how they operate Bringing together work from a range of NGO researchers working across diverse disciplines and at varied stages of their academic careers the collection is supported by recent case studies in the field as well as dilemma boxes and discussion questions in every chapter As such Researching Development NGOs is an essential resource for postgraduate students of Research Methods in Development Studies NGOs and Development Management as well as practitioners wanting to find out more about the sector

We Are the Ones We Have Been Waiting For Peter Levine,2015 In September 2011 two leading civic engagement advocacy organizations headed respectively by Robert Putnam and Peter Levine released a joint report showing that a region s level of civic engagement was a strong predictor of its ability to recover from the Great Recession This finding confirms what advocates of civic engagement have long hypothesized that strengthening the networks between government and civil society and increasing citizen participation results in better government and better community outcomes However citizens concerned about the economic crisis need more than just deliberation or community organizing alone to achieve these outcomes What they need according to Peter Levine is a movement devoted to civic renewal Deliberative democracy the idea that true democratic legitimacy derives from open inclusive discussion and dialogue rather than simple voting has become an extremely influential concept in the last two decades In We Are the Ones We Have Been Waiting For Peter Levine contends that effective deliberative democracy depends upon effective community advocacy Deliberation he shows is most valuable when talk and debate are integrated into a community's everyday life To illustrate how it works Levine draws lessons from both community organizing and developmental psychology and uses examples of successful efforts from communities across America as well as fledgling democracies in Africa and Eastern Europe By engaging in this type of civic work American citizens can meaningfully contribute to civic renewal which in turn will address serious social problems that cannot be fixed in any other way

Communicative Understandings of Women's Leadership Development Elesha L. Ruminski, Annette Holba, 2012-01-01 Communicative Understandings of Women's Leadership Development From Ceilings of Glass to Labyrinth Paths edited by Elesha L Ruminski and Annette M Holba intertwines the disciplines of communication studies leadership studies and women's studies to offer theoretical and practical reflection about women's leadership development in academic organizational and political contexts Women's leadership development exists at the intersection of consciousness raising communication competence and education to increase one's knowledge and practice of leadership which makes the weaving together of these three disciplines important Thus Communicative Understandings of Women s Leadership Development claims a space for women s leadership studies and acknowledges the paradigmatic shift from discussing women s leadership using the glass ceiling phenomenon to what Eagly and Carli 2007 identify as the labyrinth of leadership Recognizing this metaphoric shift is crucial because many women now develop leadership amid the postmodern flux of organizational change hierarchical top down systems are being eroded in lieu of transformational collaborative even improvisational leadership processes Women s leadership studies is emerging as a fruitful interdisciplinary area that reframes the debate about whether we live work and learn within a third wave feminist or post feminist context While this area might include feminist theorizing it also might not emphasize such epistemologies For this reason Ruminski and Holba s edited collection explores and highlights a variety of feminist and non feminist intersections and is thus an important and timely contribution to both marking where we are with women s leadership development in higher education and how women can further develop themselves as leaders
