Glimpses into Primary School Teacher Education in South Africa Sarah Gravett, Elizabeth Henning, 2020-11-05

This book explores the current landscape of Initial Teacher Education ITE in primary schools in South Africa. Considering recent policy directives and initiatives, it highlights the dilemmas of ITE for the primary school and gives a thorough account of innovations and initiatives to improve ITE. The book presents what works best for quality preparation of teachers in the Global South where many children rely on their teachers and school life to break the cycle of poverty. Chapters draw on evidence from workplace learning, pre-service study, and primary school teacher education policy to highlight examples of promising change in teacher education in South Africa, addressing the clichés of theory versus practice head-on. This book successfully brings out the challenging aspects of teacher education for childhood learning, which has otherwise been regarded as the softer option for a career in education. This book will be of great interest for academics, researchers, and postgraduate students in the fields of teacher education, African education, educational policy, international education, and comparative education. Higher Education Transformation in Africa Emnet Tadesse Woldegiorgis, Logan Govender, Dennis Zami Atibuni, 2024-11-05

This book critically interrogates the notion of transformation in higher education, focusing on epistemological and structural issues in postcolonial and contemporary Africa. The book considers the multifaceted challenges facing higher education in the continent and uses the concept of transformation as a common thread weaving through a range of issues, including epistemology, identity, relevance, research, collaboration, and decoloniality. Arguing for a holistic approach towards progressive and innovative education systems, the book calls for a fundamental transformation that expands access, enhances quality, and competitiveness, addresses past injustices, and improves the capacity to act together for a more sustainable and just future. Overall, the book makes a powerful case for the power of transformation in higher education to shape the social, economic, and cultural fabric of society. This book's critical evaluation of knowledge production in Africa will be an important read for researchers and policymakers involved in Africa's higher education sector.

Routledge Handbook of Arts and Global Development Vicki-Ann Ware, Kirsten Sadeghi-Yekta, Tim Prentki, Wasim al Kurdi, Patrick Kabanda, 2024-08-29. This book brings together a leading team of international experts in arts and global development to showcase effective practice and to explore how this vibrant interdisciplinary field has developed and what the latest research can teach us. Although arts play a central role in human development and in the health and wellbeing of individuals and communities, few have attempted to comprehensively explore arts practice as global development. This Handbook first provides a theoretical framework for exploring arts and global development before surveying a comprehensive range of art forms and development practices to explore the potential of the arts to strategically and beneficially contribute to more just and equitable conditions for communities across the globe. Stretching across the arts from theatre, dance, and music to poetry, film, and visual arts, the book covers topics as diverse as health education, peacebuilding livelihoods sustainability activism and arts as research method in programming The Handbook also identifies gaps in the literature pointing towards the most pressing and promising avenues for further research over the next few years This book will be an essential resource for any researcher student or practitioner wishing to understand the role of the arts in global development and in the global south more generally
