The purpose of teaching Civics is to give the pupil a knowledge of the origin and functions of government agencies and to develop an attitude of respect and co operation toward these agencies The outcome should be a citizen who recognizes the duties and privileges of citizenship and who will govern his activities in accordance with established law This text has been prepared for the purpose of presenting the most worth while and important of the available civic material and applying it to the great principles of government which must be understood if our teaching of Civics is to produce the desired results here the principles of government and the concrete problems of the community are related in a logical and natural way that aids in the understanding of both Foreword page v We the People--, 1988 Civics textbook with an emphasis on the U S Constitution and Bill of Rights The New Civics a Textbook for Secondary Schools (Classic Reprint) Roscoe Lewis Ashley, 2017-11-18

Excerpt from The New Civics a Textbook for Secondary Schools Tms book deals with American citizens in their collective relations to one another It treats also a few important individual relations which are of such importance socially that they are really public in character It is easy to see why a high school textbook in civics should place emphasis first upon the citizen and citizenship secondly upon the public as an organized group of citizens and thirdly on the activities of the governments which the citizens have created and through which the public cares for many of its collective interests Practically all of this material has been tried out in classes by the author and others and has been revised to meet high school needs as perfectly as possible This book is really an introduction to the study of the new civics The civics which is studied to day is naturally difier ent from that of a generation ago and from that of a decade ago The form and functions of many American governments have changed in the last quarter century the spirit of Ameri can government has changed even more The greatest change has been not in the government itself but in the purpose and aim of high school courses in civics Once we were content to examine constitutions Next we added an elaborate study of the organization of our governments Still later we emphasized the activities of government as more important than constitutions and governmental ma chinery Now we stress citizenship because the youthful citizen should know how society is organized and what he should do for society as well as what it does for him as a citizen and a member of that society In the author s opinion the new civics is and should be the heart of the new high school course in the social sciences About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the
