It's About Time Brook A. Thelander, 2023-06-20 This book explores common challenges and joys in the life of faith by means of a guided tour through the seasons of the church year. Issues such as complacency, despair, unanswered prayer, evil, suffering, discerning God's will, adversity, achieving inner peace, and more are explored from the pastoral perspective of a shepherd's heart. Those new to the church year will discover its blessings and benefits, while those more familiar with its rhythms will gain a deeper appreciation of its formative power. Readers are invited on a journey of discovery where following Christ assumes a concrete shape in the midst of life's practical concerns, all within a thoroughly biblical framework.

Desert Spirituality for Men Brad Karelius, 2022-06-16 Inspired by Richard Rohr, Ronald Rolheiser, Belden Lane, and Thomas Merton, Desert Spirituality for Men reveals the transformative and healing power of the desert for men who actively seek God. Blending a memoir of his son's fight for life, reflections on his own desert retreats, and response to the Lord's persistent desire for relationship, Brad Karelius offers guidance to men in their holy longing for God. An Episcopal priest for fifty years, Professor of Philosophy for forty-five years, husband, and father, Karelius also tells about the power of his friendship with six remarkable men and describes some of their well-founded prayer practices which will sustain and nurture any man in his quest. This book will encourage men of all callings and stages in life to plan their own retreats to the desert where God lives and gives life.

Pope Francis and the Liturgy Irwin, Kevin W., 2020 A study of Pope Francis's example and teaching on relating the liturgy to living the mission of the liturgy in the world through holiness and mission.

A Living Sacrifice: Liturgy and Eschatology in Joseph Ratzinger Roland Millare, 2022-06-13 A Living Sacrifice focuses on the inherent relationship between eschatology and the liturgy in light of Ratzinger's insistence upon the primacy of logos over ethos. When logos is subordinated to ethos, the human person becomes subjected to a materialist ontology that leads to an ethos that is concerned above all by utility and progress, which affects one's approach to understanding the liturgy and eschatology. How a person celebrates the liturgy becomes subject to the individual whim of one person or a group of people. Eschatology is reduced to addressing the temporal needs of a society guided by a narrow conception of hope or political theology. If the human person wants to understand his authentic sacramental logos, then he must first turn to Christ, the incarnate Logos, who reveals to him that he is created for a loving relationship with God and others. The primacy of logos is the central hermeneutical key to understanding the unique vision of Ratzinger's Christocentric liturgical theology and eschatology This is coupled with a study of Ratzinger's spiritual Christology with a focus on how it influences his theology of liturgy and eschatology through the notions of participation and communion in Christ's sacrificial love Finally A Living Sacrifice examines Ratzinger's theology of hope charity and beauty as well as his understanding of active participation in relationship to the eschatological and cosmic characteristics of the sacred liturgy @ Worship

Teresa Berger, 2017-07-14 A host of both very old and entirely new liturgical practices have arisen in digital mediation from the live streaming of worship services and pray as you go apps to digital prayer chapels virtual choirs and online pilgrimages Cyberspace now even hosts communities of faith that exist entirely online These digitally mediated liturgical practices raise challenging questions Are worshippers in an online chapel really a community at prayer Do avatars that receive digital bread and wine receive communion Worship proposes a nuanced response to these sometimes contentious issues rooted in familiarity with and sustained attention to actual online practices Four major thematic lines of inquiry form the structure of the book After an introductory chapter the following chapters look at digital presence virtual bodies and online participation ecclesial communities in cyberspace digital materiality visuality and soundscapes and finally the issues of sacramental mediation online A concluding chapter brings together the insights from the previous chapters and maps a way forward for reflections on digitally mediated liturgical practices Worship is the first monograph dedicated to exploring online liturgical practices that have emerged since the introduction of Web 2.0 Bringing together the scholarly tools and insights of liturgical studies constructive theology and digital media theories it is vital reading for scholars of Theology and Religion with as well as Sociology and Digital Culture more generally Liturgy, Theurgy, and Active Participation Kjetil

Kringlebotten, 2023-09-08 Providing a metaphysical grounding for liturgical participation this book argues that active participation in the liturgy must be understood principally as our participation in God's act particularly in the act of Christ and only secondarily as our ritual involvement Utilizing Neoplatonist philosophy Kjetil Kringlebotten proposes that this should be understood in terms of theurgy which is the human participation in divine action which finds its consummation in the incarnation of Christ Without the incarnation all acts will remain extrinsic and imposed but acts can become real and intrinsic precisely because the incarnation makes possible true union with the divine a metaphysical union in distinction without confusion because this union is not extrinsic Through union with Christ as the one common focus of the divine human relation we can have true union with God and may offer true worship In order to make sense of active participation then we need to understand theology in theurgic terms where theurgy is understood not as a mechanical coercion of God but as a participation in His act in creation and through Christ as the true theurgist the master theurgist Whose work transforms our act and the liturgy Academy and Literature Charles Edward Cutts Birch Appleton, Charles Edward Doble, James Sutherland Cotton, Charles Lewis Hind, William Teignmouth Shore, Alfred Bruce Douglas, Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett, Thomas William Hodgson Crosland, 1884 Fully Conscious, Fully Active Bryan Cones and Stephen Burns, 2020-01-27 This
