Fieldwork Experiences in Criminology and Security Studies Antonio M. Díaz-Fernández, Cristina Del-Real, Lorena Molnar, 2023-12-19. This book compiles the fieldwork experiences of 55 researchers addressing the challenges, ethical considerations, and methodologies employed to study 30 diverse populations and phenomena within Criminology and Security Studies. This volume contributes to filling a gap in academic literature by highlighting the often unspoken realities and intricacies of fieldwork. The book is systematically structured into five thematic sections: The Powerful, The Invisible, The Vulnerable, The Violent, and The Cyber. These categories encompass various aspects and dimensions of fieldwork, including managing emotional distress, negotiating access through gatekeepers, ensuring the protection of informants, and exercising discretion in navigating sensitive issues. As a scholarly resource, this book is invaluable for academics, practitioners, and students involved in criminology, security studies, anthropology, sociology, and political science. By offering in-depth reflections and insights, this volume enhances the reader's understanding of the nuances of fieldwork and informs the development of robust and ethical research practices. Chapters 2, 9, and 11 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com.

Community/Public Health Nursing - E-Book Mary A. Nies, Melanie McEwen, 2013-12-27. Covering the nurse's role in promoting community health, Community Public Health Nursing 5th Edition is known for its upstream preventive focus and social justice approach. Photo novellas with clinical stories and a concise, readable style show how you as a nurse can take an active role in social action and health policy, especially in caring for diverse population groups. Expert authors Mary A. Nies and Melanie McEwen discuss today's issues and trends and describe the key issues and responsibilities of contemporary community public health nursing. An upstream focus addresses factors that are the precursors to poor health in the community. A social justice approach promotes health for everyone. Photo novellas use photographs to tell stories showing real-life clinical scenarios and applications of important community health nursing roles. Case Study Application of the Nursing Process feature presents specific community components of the nursing process separately from individual and family. Clinical examples offer snippets of real-life client situations. Research Highlights boxes show the application of current research to chapter content. Ethical Insights boxes highlight ethical issues and concerns. Healthy People 2020 boxes summarize objectives and their importance in community health. Objectives, key terms, and chapter outlines introduce important concepts and terminology at the beginning of every chapter Learning Activities at the end of each chapter ask you to apply concepts to the world outside the classroom New Health Promotion and Risk Reduction chapter details the promotion of health and presents strategies that can identify risk factors for illness Faith Community Nursing chapter reflects current terminology from the ANA's Scope and Standards of Practice and includes more coverage of the spiritual health of clients Health A Community View chapter expands its discussion of the continual challenges and strategies associated with the delivery of health care Communicable Disease chapter includes new information about public health surveillance outbreaks and bioterrorism Cultural Diversity and Community Health Nursing chapter features new content on complementary and alternative therapies

Sure Start children's centres Great Britain: National Audit Office, 2006-12-19 The Government launched the Sure Start programme in 1998 to help give the best start in life for every child particularly from disadvantaged backgrounds by bringing together early education childcare health and family support services From April 2006 local authorities have been responsible for managing the programme for their area and decide whether to do so directly or to contract out management to a private or voluntary provider whilst the DfES issues guidance to local authorities and monitors performance The first 800 centres were located in the most deprived areas but the Government has pledged to create a children's centre for every community by 2010 around 3 500 in all committing 3.2 billion of funds until 2008 Children's centres also have income from various other sources including grants and fees for childcare charged to parents This NAO report focuses on the capacity of the centres set up by September 2005 and the performance of responsible local authorities in delivering value for money through sound financial management in reaching the most disadvantaged families and in monitoring their performance effectively It finds that good progress is being made although the full effectiveness of the centres will be measurable only in the long term The centres are valued by most of the families who use them although the early signs are that more still needs to be done to reach and support some of the most excluded groups The costs of centres and activities vary widely and local authorities and centres that the NAO visited need to understand their costs better and assess whether they were using their funds cost effectively Pediatric Medical

Art Therapy Michelle Itczak, 2021-04-21 Art therapists have an essential part to play in supporting children and their families when a child is undergoing medical treatment The art therapists who contribute to this book offer their experience of working in medical environments and creating hospital art therapy programs for working with children and young people Readers will find interventions and techniques along with program development ideas and diverse approaches to work with patients Chapters also cover different diagnoses and areas of healthcare such as oncology chronic illness and burns The challenges and opportunities for art therapy in working with terminal illness and bereavement are also addressed Pediatric Medical Art Therapy delineates the essential considerations and lessons for the art therapist who joins the medical journeys of children and their families and emphasises the importance of this unique role Conducting Research in Juvenile and Criminal Justice Settings

Michael G. Vaughn, Carrie Pettus-Davis, Jeffrey J. Shook, 2012-09-01 There has been a surge of recent interest by social work researchers in conducting research in criminal and juvenile justice settings This is largely fueled by the tremendous increase in incarceration over the last several decades with millions more in probation or parole at any given time Rising expenditures strain state and local budgets and many individuals are spending much of their adolescence and young adulthood in correctional facilities Despite the profound impact that the criminal justice system has on client populations served by social workers and related professions there are few practical resources available to guide research in these settings This Pocket Guide fills a critical gap in the literature by providing state of the art techniques for researchers graduate students and agency administrators Research in criminal justice settings represents unique challenges that require rigorous designs and a suite of methods as well as the tools to navigate a complex system With this accessible and practical guide readers will encounter a wide range of study types and data sources along with strengths and weaknesses to consider with each as they conceptualize implement and analyze their research Crucially the authors also provide advice on how to gain and manage access to these settings as well as templates for preparing a successful Institutional Review Board application Step by step procedures elucidate the use of extant and administrative data and practical case examples sample forms and measures will help researchers implement their studies quickly and effectively
