The Civic Education Project ... Educational Research Corporation, Educational Research Corporation. Civic Education Project, 1948      Perceptions of Implementation of Civic Education Curriculum in a Suburban School District

Sheena Rachel Jacob, 2020 The purpose of this qualitative research study was to explore and develop an understanding of teachers and coordinator perceptions of a civic education and to analyze how the program was implemented in a suburban school district This qualitative case study explored the experiences of one school district s civic education program and was informed by interviews observations and documents The researcher interviewed a K 12 social studies coordinator and two teachers The researcher also observed four civic education classes within the school district Finally the researcher analyzed documents that comprised the syllabus for the 12th grade Civic courses student work from 12th grade Civics courses and activities and lessons from 5th grade classes The specific research questions were 1 What are the perceptions of the implementation of a civic education program for the K 12 social studies curriculum in a suburban school district and 2 How is the civic education program in K 12 social studies implemented The study conclusions identified the following themes civic engagement which incorporates student activities within allotted instruction time and outside of school time that promotes students active participation and collaboration with local and school officials on issues concerning students and community civic identity and commitment which involves implementing a program where all stakeholders building and central administrators teachers community members are all committed and supportive civic knowledge which involves the ability to understand what civics means and to implement the curriculum within the time allotted for the subject social studies to be taught and civic contexts structures which involves having students demonstrate the ability and commitment to collaboratively work across and within community contexts and structures to achieve a civic goal From the study s conclusions it is evident that the allocation of appropriate and sufficient resources in addition to district and community support is essential to ensure that civic education is successfully implemented in K 12 schools Future research can add to these findings by exploring how districts can implement a K 12 civic education curriculum for all students including analyzing short and long term effects of implementing such a program at the local state and national levels      Civitas Charles N. Quigley, Charles F. Bahmueller, 1991 CIVITAS is a curriculum framework that sets forth a set of national goals to be achieved in a civic education curriculum primarily for K 12 public and private schools It is a framework that proposes to specify the knowledge and skills needed by citizens to perform their roles in U S democracy There are two major sections in the framework It begins with a rationale that explains the basic philosophy purpose and nature of the framework The other major section is a statement of goals and objectives that civic education should foster This section is divided into three parts 1 Civic Virtue 2 Civic Participation and 3 Civic Knowledge and Intellectual Skills Parts 2 and 3 contain model scope and sequence statements that suggest what aspects of the subjects in the framework can be taught at varying school grades and how they may be taught The part on Civic Knowledge and Intellectual Skills comprises by far the largest portion of the framework It organizes summaries of numerous topics into three main groupings the nature of politics and government public government in the United States and the role of the citizen The intended audience for the curriculum is educators at state and local levels concerned with the development of civic education curricula in the schools Classroom teachers also may find the framework a useful resource and reference book A six page executive summary is appended DB A Guide to Readings in Civic Education Olive Thompson,1922 Making Informed Choices ,2002
