St Crispin S Legacy Shoemaking In Perth Ontario 1834 2004:

St. Crispin's Legacy John Arthur McKenty,2014-10-30 St. Crispin's Legacy John Arthur McKenty,2014-09-29 During the early years of the 20th century small towns across Canada competed to have large factories locate within their boundaries Perth Ontario was no exception In 1910 it gave the Winn family 20 000 to bring their shoe factory to town A year later when it was discovered that the operation was financially embarrassed and looking to have the taxpayers bail it out all hell broke loose It forced some of Perth s leading citizens to step forward and save an industry that for decades to come would be an integral part of the town The genius of John McKenty is to help us see how our own local citizens make our lives not just interesting but more meaningful The Probian October 2012 The Knights of St. Crispin, 1867-1874; Don D. Lescohier,2023-07-18 Don D Lescohier provides a history of the Knights of St Crispin America s first national trade union for shoemakers Starting with an overview of the shoemaking industry in America and its labor conditions in the mid 19th century Lescohier traces the origins and evolution of the Knights their internal debates and conflicts and their eventual decline in the face of changing economic and social conditions The book also includes an appendix of primary sources and a detailed index This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant
