Languages and Identities in a Transitional Japan Ikuko Nakane,Emi Otsuji,William S. Armour,2015-08-20 This book explores the transition from the era of internationalization into the era of globalization of Japan by focusing on language and identity as its central themes By taking an interdisciplinary approach covering education cultural studies linguistics and policy making the chapters in this book raise certain questions of what constitutes contemporary Japanese culture Japanese identity and multilingualism and what they mean to local people including those who do not reside in Japan but are engaged with Japan in some way within the global community Topics include the role of technology in the spread of Japanese language and culture hybrid language use in an urban context the Japanese language as a lingua franca in China and the identity construction of heritage Japanese language speakers in Australia The authors do not limit themselves to examining only the Japanese language or the Japanese national cultural identity but also explore multilingual practices and multiple fluid identities in a transitional Japan Overall the book responds to the basic need for better accounts of language and identity of Japan particularly in the context of increased migration and mobility Historical Discourse Caroline Coffin,2009-01-01

Historical Discourse analyses the importance of the language of time cause and evaluation in both texts which students at secondary school are required to read and their own writing for assessment In contrast to studies which have denied that history has a specialised language Caroline Coffin demonstrates through a detailed study of historical texts that writing about the past requires different genres lexical and grammatical structures In this analysis language emerges as a powerful tool for making meaning in historical writing Presupposing no prior knowledge of systemic functional linguistics this insightful book will be of interest to researchers in applied linguistics and discourse analysis as well as history educators

Young Audiences, Theatre and the Cultural Conversation John O'Toole,Ricci-Jane Adams,Michael Anderson,Bruce Burton,Robyn Ewing,2013-12-17 This volume offers rare insights into the connection between young audiences and the performing arts Based on studies of adolescent and post adolescent audiences ages 14 to 25 the book examines to what extent they are part of our society s cultural conversation It studies how these young people read and understand theatrical performance It looks at what the educational components in their theatre literacy are and what they make of the whole social event of theatre It studies their views on the relationship between what they themselves decide and what others decide for them The book uses qualitative and quantitative data collected in a six year study carried out in the three largest Australian States thirteen major performing arts companies including the Sydney Opera House three state theatre companies and three funding organisations The book s perspectives are derived from world wide literature and company practices and its significance and ramifications are international The book is written to be engaging and accessible to theatre professionals and lay readers interested in theatre as well as scholars and researchers This extraordinary book thoroughly explains why young people ages 14 25 do and do not attend theatre into adulthood by delineating how three inter linked factors literacy confidence and etiquette influence their decisions Given that theatre happens inside spectators minds the authors balance the theatre equation by focusing upon young spectators and thereby dispel numerous beliefs held by theatre artists and educators Each clearly written chapter engages readers with astute insights and compelling examples of pertinent responses from young people teachers and theatre professionals To stem the tide of decreasing theatre attendance this highly useful book offers pragmatic strategies for artistic educational and marketing directors as well as national theatre organizations and arts councils around the world I have no doubt that its brilliantly conceived research conducted across multiple contexts in Australia will make a significant and original contribution to the profession of theatre on an international scale Jeanne Klein University of Kansas USA Young Audiences Theatre and the Cultural Conversation is a compelling and comprehensive study on attitudes and habits of youth theatre audiences by leading international scholars in the field This benchmark study offers unique insights by and for theatre makers and administrators theatre educators and researchers schools parents teachers students audience members of all ages A key strength within the book centers on the emphasis of the participant voices particularly the voices of the youth Youth voices along with those of teachers and theatre artists position the extensive field research front and center George Belliveau The University of British Columbia Canada School Discourse Frances Christie, Beverly Derewianka, 2010-09-17 Excel Senior High School Information and Research Skills for Assessment Success Ian Biddle, 2000 Contains articles by different authors including Ian Biddle Chris Greef Maree Herrett Debra Kelliher Rodney Lane Marshall Leaver Robert Mulas Sophie Mynott Cameron Paterson and Ross Todd Applies the Information Skills Process to the preparation of assessment tasks for the Biology Business Studies English Geography Modern History and Society and Culture HSC 2001 Syllabi Enhancing Teaching and Learning through Assessment Steve Frankland, 2007-10-17 Assessment is the daily life of a teacher designing plans setting questions giving feedback and grading are all activities that teachers undertake on a regular basis Yet the close examination of such activities can be hindered by constraints caused by the context in which different teaching and learning activities occur and an unawareness of the effect that assessment has on the students themselves This book provides a practical guide on the effective use of assessment It includes the use of assessment tools and pedagogical design that help students deepen their learning Major issues on assessment and some excellent examples are presented as a useful resource to university teachers in enhancing teaching and students learning It will also be found useful by teachers when implementing various assessment methods School administrators and teaching development professionals will find the book useful when making decisions related to learning and teaching issues in their institutions The Fiftieth Gate Mark Raphael Baker, Rachel Palgan, 2004 Food Education and Food Technology in School Curricula Marion Rutland, Angela Turner, 2020-04-08 This book draws together the perceptions and experiences from a range of international professionals with specific reference to food education It presents a variety of teaching learning and curriculum design approaches relating to food across primary
