The Independent Actor Sally Ann Gritton, 2024-07-25 The Independent Actor presents a 21st century training route achievable by self curated learning for actors of all skill levels This book rejects a purist approach to actor training challenges traditional acting styles and disregards the embedded elitist notions of Western training methods at the top of the hierarchy. Instead, it takes a contemporary self-focused approach to learning and applying acting skills. Through doing so, the book is the first to validate a self-curated approach to actor training. Designed as a companion to practical experience and useful as a reference sourcebook, it takes the position that each individual actor must find their own process. Skills for theatre, screen, and voice recorded media are all embraced through practical tasks with signposts to essential reading and specific resources. Designed equally for the untrained actor as a companion and an aide mmoire for the professionally trained actor, this book sheds light on the practical skills required and how to access, practise, and accomplish them. Reading Writing Right Jeremy Punt, Marius J Nel, 2018-10-18. In a collection of essays, former students, colleagues, and friends of Prof Elna Mouton honour her life, career, and scholarly contributions upon her retirement from Stellenbosch University. The various essays interact with Prof Mouton's concern for biblical hermeneutics, ethics, and the interactions and connections between the two, ultimately illustrating the width and variety of interest that her work stimulated and which it interacted with.

Producing Dance Robin Kish, Wilson Mendieta, Jennifer Backhaus, Marc Jordan Ameel, Samantha Waugh, Kerri Canedy, Todd Canedy, 2024. Producing Dance integrates the entire creative team in dance production, creating a toolbox for success for all involved. It offers guidance in creating collaborative performances in both traditional and nontraditional spaces and covers evaluation, reflection, and opportunities for growth. Glee Club Style Colleen Ryckert Cook, 2012-07-15. With the popularity of Glee, many students are asking themselves, "How can I start a glee club at my school?" With this come other pertinent questions: how do you decide what to wear? how do you find costumes and props that are within your budget and many others. This volume in the Glee Club series answers these questions and more. Readers will be well on their way to forming their own glee club with this fun and engaging guide to all things glee club. Language Arts in Asia Christina DeCoursey, 2012-01-17. This volume is the first of a series contributing to the academic study of Language Arts as an English language teaching paradigm. Language Arts has been widely used in native English speaking countries including Australia and New Zealand. Its recent adoption into the second language teaching curriculum in Hong Kong, as well as similar initiatives within secondary and tertiary education in mainland China, enhances its interest to scholars studying second language teaching and learning in Asian contexts. This book offers many papers and discussions of interest to teachers, language professionals, scholars, and administrators. Its chapters explore current topics in Language Arts research, including trends in the rapprochement of stylistics and linguistics, teaching approaches, and learning outcomes. At the same time, they offer diverse theoretical and methodological approaches of interest to the practitioner and policy maker, as well as the researcher. The value of this volume lies particularly in strengthening the theoretical and methodological foundations of Language Arts. The use of literature and the arts in humanist education has a long history within Europe, being traditionally appreciated for its ability to transform leaders, instill finer sensibilities, and question social ills. In its postcolonial incarnations, as the traditional subject areas were informed by critical and linguistic theories language arts subject areas were less often used as they were understood to offer opportunities to analyse their functions as apology for leaders coopting the young and pacifying dissent but less often used to teach second language skills Language Arts curricula arising since the 1980s have increasingly embraced authentic voices styles and genres Contemporary Language Arts curricula use literature to teach reading based and communication skills in conjunction with critical and creative thinking The movement of English language education beyond native English shores has placed Language Arts into a World Englishes frame and therefore its curricula have included the teaching ethics civics and intercultural sensitivity The explosion of media and digital communications of the 1990s led to the adoption of media literacy as a crucial Language Arts skill As digital innovations continue to impact the teaching of English Language Arts has adopted multiliteracies These developments are represented in the papers included in this volume
