Pgce In Nwu Vaal:

Quality education Muchativugwa L. Hove, Martha Matashu, 2021-11-30 This book investigates the intersections between education social justice gendered violence and human rights in South African schools and universities The rich and multifarious tapestry of scholarship and literature emanating from South African classrooms provides a fascinating lens through which we can understand the complex consequences of the economies of education social justice imperatives gendered violence in the lives of women and children and marginalised communities The scholarship in the book challenges readers to imagine alternative futures predicated on the transformational capacity of a democratic South Africa Contributors to this volume examine the many ways in which social justice and gendered violence mirror express project and articulate the larger phenomenon of human rights violations in Africa and how in turn the discourse of human rights informs the ways in which we articulate interrogate conceptualise enact and interpret quality education The book also wrestles with the linguistic contradictions and ambiguities in the articulation of quality education in public and private spaces This book is essential reading for scholars seeking a solid grounding in exploring quality education the instances of epistemic disobedience the political implications of place and power and human rights in theory and practice

Self-Directed Learning (Prof.) Elsa Mentz, Charlene du Toit-Brits, Jean Henry Blignaut, Elize Vos, 2024-12-20 This scholarly book provides an in depth analysis of self directed learning SDL within contexts of curriculum praxis and scholarship The book presents original research from multiple authors which provides diverse perspectives and methodologies for enhancing understanding of SDL It primarily focuses on incorporating SDL into curriculum development and emphasises the significance of scholarly research in designing effective curricula The book explores the integration of technology in learning and adapts instructional strategies to meet the evolving demands of higher education and school environments Inspired by constructivism socio constructivism and context based learning theories the text presents practical strategies for educators Key topics include the implications of artificial intelligence strategies for reducing procrastination fostering SDL in homeschooling enhancing SDL attributes preparing teachers for self direction facilitating curriculum transformation and incorporating indigenous knowledge The book also covers teaching climate change education and integrating educational robotics Self Directed Learning Curriculum implementation praxis and scholarship in context is invaluable for scholars and researchers in education providing empirical findings and practical insights to inspire further research It aims to equip learners with 21st century skills preparing them for the challenges of the Fourth Industrial Revolution

Recalibrating teacher training in African higher education institutions Sifiso Sibanda, Gideon (Deon) P. van Tonder, Washington T. Dudu, 2023-03-01 This book critically examines the role of governments in promoting parity during and in post pandemic education This comes from the realisation that the pandemic has deepened the crisis by depleting the meagre resources that African countries might have devoted to normative educational practices where those on the margins would have been pushed further behind while the privileged would have been further initiated into the cultural and capital flows of private schools and historically research intensive institutions of higher learning This has far reaching implications for the education of underprivileged citizens and education particularly modes and modalities of delivery has to be reimagined to subvert the challenges wrought by the pandemic This book significantly bridges the gap between the pre and post COVID 19 pandemic pedagogical practices and the erstwhile modalities that have been resilient over time The book focuses on ways to stave off pedagogical challenges that face countries as the global pandemic makes its mark Towards a holistic approach to support learners at risk of interrupted development Macalane J. Malindi, Johnnie Hay, Thabo Makhalemele, 2024-02-23 The COVID 19 pandemic and the restrictions that came with it led to unprecedented disruptions in learner development and put them at risk of poor developmental outcomes It is thus important that the extent of the disruption on their development and the support needs of learners be investigated Researching the impact of the disruption should focus on holistic development In this book the authors use multiple research approaches and methods of gathering data in their respective fields to examine the impact of the disruption and determine the support needs of learners Data gathered through the different methods are processed and findings are presented The findings have implications for both practice and future research in the fields of inclusive education learner support educational psychology movement education Life Orientation and curriculum development
