Underwriting Credit Cards, Overwriting Congress, and Rewriting Family Law Margaret Ryznar,2016 The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve has recently promulgated an ability to pay rule under the CARD Act that prevents many stay at home mothers and homemakers from opening sole account credit cards This rule requires credit card issuers to consider only a person s independent income and not the household s income when underwriting credit cards However in addition to keeping credit cards away from young adults the intended purpose of the CARD Act this ability to pay rule problematically does the same for a larger group of people non income earning spouses which include stay at home mothers and homemakers Given the conflict between this rule and the law s typical treatment of spouses as one economic unit and given the significantly negative effects of the rule on many women due to the importance of access to the credit card market the rule requires immediate reconsideration The result should be an amended rule that recognizes the non income earning spouse s financial participation in the household Coursecompass Student Access Code Card Carlson,2001-08-01
