The Chicago Daily News Almanac and Year Book for ... ,1920 History, Fiction Or Science? A. T.

Fomenko,2005 The author posits that all generally accepted chronology before the 16th century is in error by hundreds or thousands of years Rethinking the City Maria Filomena Molder,Nélio Conceição,Nuno Fonseca,2024-12-12

Interdisciplinary in approach this book employs the key concepts of fragmentation and reconfiguration to consider the ways in which human experience and artistic practice can engage with and respond to the disintegration that characterises modern cities Asking how we might unsettle and decrypt the homogeneous images of cities created by processes linked to capitalism and globalisation it invites us to consider the possibility of reimagining and rethinking the urban spaces we inhabit An exploration of the complex relationship between aesthetics the arts and the city Rethinking the City Reconfiguration and Fragmentation will appeal to scholars across various disciplines including philosophy urban sociology and geography anthropology political theory and visual and media studies Intertextuality in Practice Jessica Mason,2019-09-23 The books we ve read the films we ve seen the stories we ve heard and just as importantly the ones we haven t form an integral part of our identity Recognising a reference to a text can result in feelings of pleasure expertise and even smugness being lost as to a reference s possible significance can lead to alienation from a text or conversation Intertextuality in Practice offers readers a cognitively grounded framework for hands on analysis of intertextuality both in written texts and spoken discourse The book offers a historical overview of existing research highlighting that most of this work focuses on what intertextuality is conceptually rather than how it can be identified described and analysed Drawing on research from literary criticism neuroscience linguistics and sociology this book proposes a cognitive stylistic approach presenting the narrative interrelation framework as a way of operationalising the concept of intertextuality to enable close practical analysis with characteristics of sophistication temptation and corruption Kapur argues that this change in definition is not a media effect but rather a structural feature of a deeply consumer driven society Providing a new and timely perspective on the current widespread alarm over the loss of childhood Coining for Capital concludes that our present moment is in fact one of hope and despair As children are fortunately shedding false definitions of proscribed innocence both in film and in life they must now also learn to navigate a deeply inequitable antagonistic and consumer driven society of which they are both a part and a target The Reader ,1864 The English Catalogue of Books [annual] ,1922 Vols for 1898 1968 include a directory of publishers Accounting Principles Jerry J. Federal Power Commission,1960 Theory at Yale Marc Redfield,2015-11-02 This book examines the affinity between theory and deconstruction that developed in the American academy in the 1970s by way of the Yale Critics Harold Bloom Paul de Man Geoffrey Hartman and J Hillis Miller sometimes joined by the French philosopher Jacques Derrida With this semi fictional collective theory became a media event first in the academy and then in the wider print media in and through its phantasmatic link with deconstruction and with Yale The important role played by aesthetic humanism in American pedagogical discourse provides a context for understanding theory as an aesthetic scandal and an examination of the ways in which de Man s work challenges aesthetic pieties helps us understand why by the 1980s he above all had come to personify theory Combining a broad account of the Yale Critics phenomenon with a series of careful reexaminations of the event of theory Redfield traces the threat posed by language s unreliability and inhumanity in chapters on lyric on Hartman s representation of the Wordsworthian imagination on Bloom s early theory of influence in the 1970s together with his later media reinvention as the genius of the Western Canon and on John Guillory s influential attempt to interpret de Manian theory as a symptom of literature s increasing marginality A final chapter examines Mark Tansey s paintings Derrida Queries de Man and Constructing the Grand Canyon paintings that offer subtle complex reflections on the peculiar event of theory as deconstruction in America
