Transpacific Engagements Florina H. Capistrano-Baker,Meha Priyadarshini,2020-01-01 Between the sixteenth and nineteenth centuries competing European empires notably Spain Portugal Great Britain the Netherlands Germany France Belgium and others vied for commercial and political control of transoceanic networks particularly the transpacific routes between Asia and the Americas The essays in Transpacific Engagements Trade Translation and Visual Culture of Entangled Empires 1565 1898 address the resulting cultural and artistic exchanges with an emphasis on both the Spanish and American enterprises in the Asia Pacific region The essays are grouped into three parts entitled Entangled Empires Empires and Translations and Empires and Trade A common thread in the diverse perspectives presented here is the importance of transpacific engagements to the global connections of the sixteenth century and beyond While the focus is on the specific connection between the Asia Pacific region and the Americas through the Philippines we see how other parts of the world notably South and Southeast Asia and Europe were also participants impacted by these transpacific linkages The goal is to convey the complexity of entangled networks of commercial political and religious interests that complicate the Spanish enterprise in the Pacific Commercial ventures into Canton and Manila by the early American republic for example overlapped with and later replaced the Spanish galleons East South and Southeast Asian polities and dynasties remained powerful players in what were often multilateral rather than bilateral exchanges Contributors to this volume are based in Asia the Americas and Europe
