The Economics of Schooling in a Divided Society V. Borooah, C. Knox, 2015-05-26 Countries that have suffered ethnic or religious conflict and become segregated societies reflect these divisions in education provision for their children Northern Ireland is a case study in point where a parallel system of schools offers education in Catholic maintained schools and Protestant de facto controlled schools While school segregation is the most obvious manifestation of Northern Ireland s fractured society there are more important issues of educational inequality with respect to schools and pupils This book analyses three issues in some detail segregation educational performance and inequality in educational outcomes between schools and between pupils from deprived and affluent family backgrounds Thus far public policies to tackle these issues have been met with limited success The authors consider an alternative approach which they term shared education the aim of which is to improve school performance and in so doing to dismantle some of the barriers between maintained and controlled schools

Improving Effective Coverage in Health Damien de Walque,Eeshani Kandpal,Adam Wagstaff,Jed Friedman,Moritz Piatti-Fünfkirchen,Anja Sautmann,Gil Shapira,Ellen Van de Poel,2022-05-18 In many low and middle income countries health coverage has improved dramatically in the past two decades but health outcomes have not As such effective coverage a measure of service delivery that meets a minimum standard of quality remains unacceptably low Improving Effective Coverage in Health examines one specific policy approach to improving effective coverage financial incentives in the form of performance based financing PBF a package reform that typically includes performance pay to frontline health workers as well as facility autonomy transparency and community engagement This Policy Research Report draws on a rich set of rigorous studies and new analysis When compared with business as usual in low income settings with centralized health systems PBF can result in substantial gains in effective coverage However the relative benefits of PBF the performance pay component in particular are less clear when it is compared with two alternative approaches direct facility financing which provides operating budgets to frontline health services with facility autonomy on allocation but not performance pay and demand side financial support for health services that is conditional cash transfers and vouchers Although PBF often results in improvements on the margins closing the substantial gaps in effective health coverage is not yet within reach for many countries Nonetheless important lessons and experiences from the rollout of PBF over the past decade can guide health financing into the future In particular to be successful health financing reform may need to pivot from performance pay while retaining the elements of direct facility financing autonomy transparency and community engagement
