

Lectors

Lectors serve our faithful community by proclaiming the readings from the Scripture during our liturgies. A thoughtful and prayerful presentation of by our lectors helps open the hearts and minds of our community to God's Word. We also hope our lectors are able to awaken the faithful by demonstrating their own faith as they proclaim and live the faith themselves.

Notes and Queries, 1909      A Guide to Formation Advising for Seminary Faculty Edward J.

McCormack, 2020-08-20 The future of the Church depends in part on forming future priests and ministers who are ready to accompany, lead and love the People of God. Formation advising is one important part of that work. A Guide to Formation Advising for Seminarians Seminary Faculty offers a practical guide to formation advising as a ministry of accompaniment, participation and evaluation. Deacon Edward McCormack offers a comprehensive introduction to the ministry of formation advising for seminarians studying for priestly ministry. These volumes are for men and women who are new to the ministry of formation advising. The recent Vatican guidelines for seminary formation call for professional accompaniment of seminarians throughout their formation. This book explains in concrete detail how to do this through the entire formation process. Beginning with an overview of the formation process, A Guide to Formation Advising for Seminarians Seminary Faculty explains the role of the formation advisor and the skills required for that ministry. It describes the various ways the formation advisor accompanies a person through the formation process. McCormack also provides concrete suggestions for how to promote in seminarians active participation in the process. Formators will also find explanation of the evaluation process with a style sheet and examples of written evaluations. The handbook contains an annotated bibliography on all the major topics a formation advisor comes across.

Can You Be a Catholic and a Feminist? Julie Hanlon Rubio, 2024 Is it possible to reconcile Catholic and feminist identities? Julie Hanlon Rubio argues that it is, but only if we rethink how women and men who experience the pull of feminism and Catholicism can credibly claim both identities.

The "Hand of God" at Work in Adult Catholic Priestly Formation Robert L. Anello, MSA, 2015-03-06 Fr. Eusebio M. Marnard O.F.M. was gifted with a visionary perspective regarding God's call to adults for ministry in the Catholic Church, specifically priestly vocations. In the mid 1940s Marnard proposed an innovative idea for training men called to serve God through the priesthood: college seminaries for belated vocations. As he defined it, a man with a belated vocation had not heard God's call in his early years or, having heard it, did not or could not act upon it at that time. The events leading to the formation and development of Holy Apostles College Seminary proved challenging and at times painful for those people who joined Marnard in this enterprise. Still, it appeared from the start that the Hand of God was truly at work in the concept, acquisition and development of Holy Apostles. This study documents the founding and initial development of Holy Apostles and highlights several significant events from the first forty years of its service to the Catholic Church.
