Soldiers' Lives through History - The Ancient World

Richard A. Gabriel,2006-11-30 Once warfare became established in ancient civilizations it s hard to find any other social institution that developed as quickly In less than a thousand years humans brought forth the sword sling dagger mace bronze and copper weapons and fortified towns The next thousand years saw the emergence of iron weapons the chariot the standing professional army military academies general staffs military training permanent arms industries written texts on tactics military procurement logistics systems conscription and military pay By 2 000 B C E war was an important institution in almost all major cultures of the world This book shows readers how soldiers were recruited outfitted how they fought and how they were cared for when injured or when they died It covers soldiers in major civilizations from about 4000 B C E to about 450 C E Topics are discussed cross culturally drawing examples from several of the cultures armies and time periods within each chapter in order to provide the reader with as comprehensive an understanding as possible and to avoid the usual Western centric perspective too common in analyses of ancient warfare

Roman Legionary AD 69-161 Ross Cowan,2013-04-20 Between AD 69 and 161 the composition of the Roman legions was transformed Italians were almost entirely replaced by provincial recruits men for whom Latin was at best a second language and yet the Roman ness of these Germans Pannonians Spaniards Africans and Syrians fostered in isolated fortresses on the frontiers was incredibly strong They were highly competitive jealous of their honour and driven by the need to maintain and enhance their reputations for virtue that is manly courage and excellence The warfare of the period from the huge legion versus legion confrontations in the Civil War of AD 69 through the campaigns of conquest in Germany Dacia and Britain to the defence of the frontiers of Africa and Cappadocia and the savage quelling of internal revolts gave ample opportunity for virtue enhancing activity The classic battle formation that had baffled Pyrrhus and conquered Hannibal was revived Heroic centurions continued to lead from the front and common legionaries vied with them in displays of valour The legions of the era may have been provincial but they were definitely Roman in organisation and ethos
