

Step 3: Reflect

Rubric 1.7      Analyze & describe the impact of planning, teaching, and assessment of student learning

Candidate clearly reflects on how their understanding of the assets and needs of their students impacted the ways in which the lesson (instruction and informal assessment) supported student learning. Candidate analyzes how effective their instructional approach was or was not in supporting the whole class and the 3 focus students in meeting the content-specific learning goal(s) and ELA goal(s). Candidate cites evidence from Steps 1 and/or 2 to support their reflection and analysis.

3

Step 4: Apply

Rubric 1.8      Apply learning to strengthen and extend students' understanding, develop academic language and determine next steps

Candidate applies what they have learned in Cycle 1 to describe future instruction that will strengthen and extend students' higher-order thinking/deep learning about content and academic language development. Candidate describes next steps for instruction that are clearly planned to extend learning of content. Next steps are connected to what was learned about students in this lesson. Candidate cites evidence from Steps 1, 2, and/or 3 to support their decisions about next steps for content learning.
