Golf Performance Training Gary Bannister, MEd, 2016-04-20 If you've been golfing for any stretch of time you've probably been exposed to the myth that movement based functional training and sport specific exercise can make you a better golfer. Gary Bannister reveals a proven muscle based alternative that gets better results proper strength training. A longtime golfer Bannister has played with some of the world's greatest champions. He established and coached the men's and women's varsity golf teams at Averett College and opened South America's first Nautilus gym which led him to prepare Venezuela's male and female golf teams for the World Team Amateur Championship in 1986. Bannister advises golfers to build the muscles involved in golf in the most efficient and effective way you can without trying to be specific. That means without trying to duplicate the actions of the golf
