The Roles and Functions of Atrocity-Related United Nations Commissions of Inquiry in the International Legal Order Catherine Harwood,2020-01-13 In The Roles and Functions of Atrocity Related United Nations Commissions of Inquiry in the International Legal Order Catherine Harwood explores the turn to international law in atrocity related United Nations commissions of inquiry and their navigation of considerations of principle the legal and pragmatism the political to discern their identity in the international legal order The book traces the inquiry process from establishment and interpretation of the mandate to legal analysis production of findings and recommendations The research finds that the turn to international law fundamentally shapes the roles and functions of UN atrocity inquiries Inquiries continuously navigate between realms of law and politics with the equilibrium shifting in different moments and contexts Best Practices for Human Rights and Humanitarian NGO Fact-Finding Jordan Berman, Gerald M. Steinberg, Anne Herzberg, 2012-03-02 This work outlines available resources and proposed standards for international NGO fact finding missions Chapter One presents an introduction to the issue of NGO fact finding Chapter Two discusses the problems caused by the lack of any generally accepted guidelines for NGO fact finding in contrast with contexts where NGOs have achieved consensus Chapter Three surveys proposed guidelines for human rights and humanitarian NGOs In addition this section examines United Nations fact finding standards as well as examples of internal fact finding standards for major NGOs Chapter Four analyzes the fact finding standards used in five specific cases the International Crisis Group Kosovo 1999 the Independent International Fact Finding Mission on the Conflict in Georgia Georgia 2008 United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights Mapping Exercise on the Democratic Republic of Congo 1993 2003 Conflict Analysis Resource Center University London study on Amnesty International and Human Rights Watch Colombia 1988 2004 and Human Rights Watch Lebanon 2006 The final chapter offers conclusions and recommendations New Technologies for Human Rights Law and Practice Molly K. Land, Jay D. Aronson, 2018-04-19 New technological innovations offer significant opportunities to promote and protect human rights At the same time they also pose undeniable risks In some areas they may even be changing what we mean by human rights The fact that new technologies are often privately controlled raises further questions about accountability and transparency and the role of human rights in regulating these actors This volume edited by Molly K Land and Jay D Aronson provides an essential roadmap for understanding the relationship between technology and human rights law and practice It offers cutting edge analysis and practical strategies in contexts as diverse as autonomous lethal weapons climate change technology the Internet and social media and water meters This title is also available as Open Access Research Handbook on Human Rights and Humanitarian Law Kolb, Robert, Gaggioli, Gloria, Kilibarda, Pavle, 2022-05-03 Transport Economics is a revised and refined fourth edition of a well established textbook which applies economic analysis to transport issues Each chapter has been carefully reworked and includes new material dealing with the regulation of transport markets To assist in pedagogy twenty or so free standing Exhibits now provide a variety of case studies and narratives to supplement the text More up to date examples and illustrations also make the understanding of economic principles easier and assist in the assimilation of economic concepts The Politics of Human Rights Protection Jan Knippers Black, 2010-01-16 This important work argues that human rights abuse is not necessarily about distant places and peoples and it is neither incomprehensible nor inevitable Despite the appearance of consensus about the importance of human rights protection abuse with its common core in inequality is expanding at all levels from the petty to the profound Designed to inform and inspire this book also provides the analytical and strategic tools needed for the next generation of activists Jan Knippers Black offers a fundamental reexamination of the basic terms and concepts legal and institutional foundations controversies cleavages threats and strategies associated with human rights Black s perspective is holistic stressing the relevance of human rights issues to all human needs and endeavors and requiring multidisciplinary analysis Chapters analyzing connections among political economic ecological and cultural impacts on social and individual well being are accompanied by case studies highlighting lessons learned from success or failure This empowering book seeks to promote an each for all commitment breaking through barriers of ignorance and apathy denial and despair so that advocates and activists can work to prevent future atrocities International Human Rights Law David S.

Weissbrodt,Connie de la Vega,2007 International Human Rights Law is a comprehensive introductory treatise intended for all concerned about this critical area of international law including students lawyers other advocates teachers and academics

The United Nations and Human Rights Philip Alston,Frédéric Mégret,2013-12 This book analyses the UN s contribution to international human rights and the desire to ensure that governments are held accountable for their treatment of citizens and others This book offers a comprehensive and expert analysis and critique of UN instruments and organs and of the new UN Human Rights Council The Internally Displaced Person in International Law Romola Adeola,2020-10-30 While the plight of persons displaced within the borders of states has emerged as a global concern not much attention has been given to this specific category of persons in international legal scholarship Unlike refugees internally displaced persons remain within the states in which they are displaced Current statistics indicate that there are more people displaced within state borders than persons displaced outside states Romola Adeola examines the protection of the internally displaced person under international law considering existing legal regimes at various levels of governance and institutional mechanisms for internally displaced persons Detention by Non-State Armed Groups under International Law Ezequiel

Heffes,2022-02-17 During armed conflict non State armed groups deprive individuals of their liberty While this is not a new phenomenon its pervasiveness is reflected by recent examples in Colombia Libya Syria Ukraine Mali and the Democratic Republic of the Congo Yet examining these activities goes beyond its mere acknowledgment It involves questions concerning their legality and the non State armed groups motivations when depriving individuals of their liberty Drawing on his personal experiences while working for various humanitarian organizations Ezequiel Heffes aims at elucidating how international law can be used as a protective tool in relation to individuals placed in detention by non State armed groups Based on case studies of selected groups and a normative and doctrinal analysis he proposes minimum humanitarian principles applicable to those situations By addressing a contemporary issue that touches upon a number of legal regimes this study makes a valuable contribution to the law applicable in armed conflict Freedom of Religion or Belief Heiner Bielefeldt,Nazila

Ghanea,Michael Wiener,2016-01-21 Violations of religious freedom and violence committed in the name of religion grab our attention on a daily basis Freedom of religion or belief is a key human right the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights numerous conventions declarations and soft law standards include specific provisions on freedom of religion or belief The 1981 Declaration on the Elimination of All Forms of Intolerance and of Discrimination Based on Religion or Belief has been interpreted since 1986 by the mandate of the UN Special Rapporteur on freedom of religion or belief Special Rapporteurs for example those on racism freedom of expression minority issues and cultural rights and Treaty Bodies for example the Human Rights Committee the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination and the Committee on the Rights of the Child have also elaborated on freedom of religion or belief in the context of their respective mandates Freedom of Religion or Belief An International Law Commentary is the first commentary to look comprehensively at the international provisions for the protection of freedom of religion or belief considering how they are interpreted by various United Nations Special Procedures and Treaty Bodies Structured around the thematic categories of the United Nations Special Rapporteur s framework for communications the commentary analyses for example the limitations on the wearing of religious symbols and vulnerable situations including those of women detainees refugees children minorities and migrants through a combination of scholarly expertise and practical experience
