Traits Chinois Lignes Francophones:

Traits chinois / lignes francophones Rosalind Silvester, Guillaume Thouroude, 2012-06-01 T00:00:00-04:00 La fin du XXe siècle a vu l'émergence de la Chine comme puissance économique mais le monde francophone connaît l'influence culturelle de la Chine depuis bien plus longtemps. Depuis 1880 des auteurs chinois utilisent la langue française pour s'exprimer et pour laborer des œuvres variées souvent polymorphes et transdisciplinaires. Cet ouvrage veut faire le point sur la francophonie chinoise et son histoire. François Cheng l'Académie française Gao Xingjian prix Nobel de littérature Yan Ming Pei au Musée du Louvre Ying Chen célèbre en Amérique du Nord la communauté chinoise présente tous les signes d'une russité culturelle clatante au sein du monde francophone. En multipliant les approches ce livre rend compte de la richesse des créateurs franco-chinois. Il s'intéresse aussi des figures inconnues comme un peintre oublié des années 1930 et une blogueuse audacieuse. Enfin en s'aventurant sur des territoires inattendus l'Afrique par exemple où les Chinois communiquent souvent en français les auteurs explorent un champ de recherche qui montre déjà des potentialités esthétiques insoupçonnées. Ce livre est aussi une histoire d'amitiés entre quelques personnes intellectuels universitaires ou artistes qui se connaissent depuis des années partagent la même passion pour la Chine et qui vivent sur différents continents.

Proust, China and Intertextual

Engagement Shuangyi Li, 2017-08-25 The book traces the literary journey that Proust's work made to China and back by means of translation, intertextual engagement and the creation of a transcultural dialogue through migrant literature. It begins with a translation history of Proust's work in China and studies the different re-translations and editions of La Recherche highlighting their culturally conditioned thematic emphases and negligence such as time and memory over anti-Semitism and homosexuality. The book then moves on to explore three contemporary mainland Chinese writers' creative intertextual engagement with Proust against the backdrop of China's explosive development from modernity to post-modernity in the 1990s. Finally back to France the book examines the multifarious literary relations between Proust and the Franco-Chinese migrant writer François Cheng. It demonstrates how the cultural heritages of China and the West can be renegotiated and put into dialogue through the fictional and creative medium of literature as well as providing a means of understanding the economic, political and cultural exchanges in our current global context.

Paris and the Art of Transposition Angie Chau, 2023-12-11 A brief stay in France was for many Chinese workers and Chinese Communist Party leaders a vital stepping stone for their careers during the cultural and political push to modernize China after World War I. For the Chinese students who went abroad specifically to study Western art and literature these trips meant something else entirely. Set against the backdrop of interwar Paris, Paris and the Art of Transposition uncovers previously marginalized archives to reveal the artistic strategies employed by Chinese artists and writers in the early twentieth-century transnational imaginary and to explain why Paris played such a central role in the global reception of modern Chinese literature and art. While previous studies of Chinese modernism have focused on how Western modernist aesthetics were adapted or translated to the Chinese context Angie Chau does the opposite by turning to Paris in the Chinese imaginary and discussing the literary and visual artwork of five artists who moved between France and China the painter Chang Yu the poet Li Jinfa the art critic Fu Lei the painter Pan Yuliang and the writer Xu Xu Chau draws the idea of transposition from music theory where it refers to shifting music from one key or clef to another or to adapting a song originally composed for one instrument to be played by another Transposing transposition to the study of art and literature Chau uses the term to describe a fluid and strategic art practice that depends on the tension between foreign and familiar new and old celebrating both novelty and recognition a process that occurs when a text gets placed into a fresh context

Travel, Translation and Transmedia Aesthetics

Shuangyi Li, 2022-01-03 This book examines the works of four contemporary first generation Chinese migrant writer artists in France Fran ois CHENG GAO Xingjian DAI Sijie and SHAN Sa They were all born in China moved to France in their adulthood to pursue their literary and artistic ambitions and have enjoyed the highest French and Western institutional recognitions from the Grand Prix de la Francophonie to the Nobel Prize in Literature They have established themselves not only as writers but also as translators calligraphers painters playwrights and filmmakers mainly in their host country French has become their dominant but not only language of literary creation except for Gao yet linguistic idioms poetic imagery and classical thought from Chinese cultural heritage permeate their French texts and visual artworks reflecting a strong translingual and transmedial sensibility The book provides not only distinctive literary and artistic examples beyond existing studies of intercultural encounter French postcolonial and Chinese diasporic enquiries more importantly it formulates a theoretical model that captures the creative dynamics between the French francophone and Chinese sinophone spaces of articulation thereby contributing to contemporary debates about literary and artistic production interpretation and circulation in the global development of comparative world literature as well as intermediality studies

Remnants of

Refusal Erin Shevaugn Schlumpf, 2025-05-01 Analyzes how French and Chinese literary and filmic texts enact a series of feminist affective responses to the erasure of historical trauma Remnants of Refusal traces an affective discourse of feminist refusal across a series of French and Chinese works of film and literature Developing an inventive comparative approach Erin Shevaugn Schlumpf argues that this discourse takes shape in response to two national traumas and their aftermath the German Occupation and the Tiananmen Square Massacre respectively In both contexts events associated with the trauma were effectively erased from the official historical record and replaced by an unwritten code of public secrecy And in both contexts three affects melancholy ambivalence and exhaustion provide means of expressing mourning without breaking the taboo of direct representation In films and literary texts by Wang Anyi Chen Ran Jia Zhangke Nathalie Sarraute Marguerite Duras Jean Luc Godard and others mourning is most frequently borne by and through the bodies of women generating a broader feminist counternarrative to historical forgetting and burgeoning neoliberalism
