Elizabeth Baird's Classic Canadian Cooking Elizabeth Baird,1995 Includes a variety of menus for the year through the seasons including holiday menus plus recipes My Collection of Recipes from Across America and Germany E. John Boles,2022-11-14 This is not a professionally written cookbook but is a representation of homegrown family cooking Minus a few corporate inspired recipes and one professional carrot cake recipe my little book of kitchen recipes is a collection of hand me down family recipes from one generation to the next The design of this book has been left plain because in the author s opinion too many illustrations cause distractions in the kitchen It is his hope that by providing the space to enter a recipe or alter an existing one more people will take up cooking again and continue to pass these and other recipes on to future generation Cooking in Europe, 1650-1850 Ivan P. Day,2008-11-30 From the Baroque Era to the Victorian Era 1650 1850 unprecedented changes took place in the food ways and dining habits of European society This daily life aspect of history comes alive for students and food enthusiasts as they read and try out these recipes most translated into English for the first time There are nearly 200 recipes organized overall by the mini periods of the Baroque and Rococo Era the Reign of Louis XV to the French Revolution and the reign of Napoleon to the Victorian Era Author Ivan Day a renowned food historian who specializes in meticulous recreation of these amazing dishes for museum exhibitions makes them accessible with clear explanations of techniques and unusual ingredients Recipes include examples from France Italy England Austria Germany Holland Portugal Spain and Scotland from the simple Salad of Pomegranate from La Varenne Careme s 1651 cookbook to the elaborate Boar s Head in Galantine of Careme s 1833 cookbook This unique cookbook is a culinary treasure trove to complement all European History library collections As Day shows in his narrative and recipes the principal theme in the story of food during the two centuries is the rapid spread of French fine cooking throughout Europe and its gradual percolation down the social scale However despite the domination of French cuisine at higher levels most nations managed to cling proudly to their own indigenous traditions A lively introduction explains the dramatic shift in culinary taste led by the exuberant creativity of French cooks Cookbooks started to emerge from the Paris printing presses after a hundred years of silence Numerous innovations completely transformed French cuisine and swept away all remnants of lingering medieval taste There were new efficient cooking techniques for the kitchens of powerful and wealthy For all there were new ingredients from New World and new cooking mediums such as the mechanical spit and roasting ranges that made cooking cleaner and less back breaking The recipes each with a short explanation are organized by type of dish Categories include salads and cold dishes soups meat poultry fish and seafood vegetables and fungi eggs and dairy sauces savory pastries starches pastas and legumes breads and cakes sweet pastries and puddings fruit nuts and flower preserves sweets and confections jellies and ices and drinks Occasional sidebars offer period menus of for example elaborate feasts A glossary and an appendix listing suppliers of equipment and ingredients are added features
