Queer Style Adam Geczy, Vicki Karaminas, 2024-05-16 First published in 2013 Queer Style was ahead of its time It was the first book to address the cultural political and material histories of clothes as signs and markers of gender and sexual identity and remains key reading for scholars and students across fashion studies and the humanities more broadly Now 10 years later the authors have revisited their classic work and updated it to examine the function of subcultural dress within queer communities and the mannerisms and messages that are used as signifiers of identity " Fashion, Interior Design and the Contours of Modern Identity " Alla Myzelev, 2017-07-05 Challenging the notion that fashion and furniture were or are separate enterprises and distinct material aesthetic traditions this collection focuses on three material and conceptual links central to understanding the relationship between interior design and fashion the body fabric and space The volume considers the changing visual material and spatial character methodological challenges posed by and formal political and historiographical significance of a wide range of British European and North American case studies since the eighteenth century The volume s eleven case studies allow the reader to understand connecting notions behind the formation of interiors and fashionable clothing The essays combine a wide range of significant and challenging new examples alongside powerful revisionary analyses of the various periods artists designers and their best and significant objects Fashion Interior Design and the Contours of Modern Identity is concerned not only with fabric but also with the body and the implications of embodiment in the practices of both design domains which are equally invested in the comfort aesthetic pleasure extension and support of the body in different and yet seemingly identical ways Catalog of Copyright Entries. New Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1945 Includes Part 1 Books Group 1 Nos 1 12 1944 Periagoge - Theory of Singularity and Philosophy as an Exercise of Transformation Guido Cusinato, 2023-11-07 This book returns to the question at the center of our existence a question that the narcissistic culture in which we are immersed systematically tends to remove Why The underlying thesis is that the answer must not be sought in success or social recognition but in a fragment of truth hidden somewhere inside each of us which reveals itself only if we detach ourselves from our ego and its certainties It is not therefore a matter of finding yet another philosophical theory of the meaning of existence but rather of shedding light on the conditions under which such meaning can emerge The author shows us that the ultimate source of our existential orientation lies in the affective sphere and that the current crisis of orientation is derived from the atrophy of the process of affective maturation on a large scale and from a lack of knowledge and experience about which techniques are best to reactivate it We are like glowworms that had once unlearned how to illuminate and have since begun to hover around the magic lantern of the ascetic ideal already criticized by Nietzsche and then around neon advertising signs We are glowworms that have forgotten that we have within our own affective structure a precious source of orientation The basic thesis is that this source of orientation can be reactivated through the care of desire and practices of emotional sharing The Rhetoric of Topics and Forms Gianna Zocco, 2021-01-18 The fourth volume of the collected papers of the ICLA congress The Many Languages of Comparative Literature includes articles that study thematic and formal elements of literary texts Although the question of prioritizing either the level of content or that of form has often provoked controversies most contributions here treat them as internally connected While theoretical considerations inform many of the readings the main interest of most articles can be described as rhetorical in the widest sense given that the ancient discipline of rhetoric did not only include the study of rhetorical figures and tropes such as metaphor irony or satire but also that of topoi which were originally viewed as the places where certain arguments could be found but later came to represent the arguments or intellectual themes themselves Another feature shared by most of the articles is the tendency of undeclared thematology which not only reflects the persistence of the charge of positivism but also shows that most scholars prefer to locate themselves within more specific often interdisciplinary fields of literary study In this sense this volume does not only prove the ongoing relevance of traditional fields such as rhetoric and thematology but provides contributions to currently flourishing research areas among them literary multilingualism literature and emotions and ecocriticism

West from an internationally recognized extremism expert and media commentator What two things do most mass shooters terrorists or violent extremists have in common Most of us know the first they are almost always men or boys But the second They are almost always virulent misogynists homophobes or transphobes even if they are also motivated by racism antisemitism or xenophobia The antigovernment militiamen charged with plotting to kidnap and execute Michigan governor Gretchen Whitmer used language saturated with misogyny with one telling an FBI informant Just grab the bitch The men who killed scores at Virginia Tech the Pulse nightclub and a Maryland newsroom all had prior reports of stalking domestic violence or harassment of women And in dozens of other incidents from North America to Norway to New Zealand an increasing number of misogynist incel involuntary celibate and male supremacist attackers have explicitly targeted and killed women blaming feminism or sexual frustration with women as motivation for their attacks Yet despite all evidence the bright red thread of misogyny running through these attacks is barely acknowledged by the media or even experts and this failing leaves us powerless to stop the violence In Man Up Cynthia Miller Idriss a leading expert on extremism addresses this crucial oversight head on revealing how an epidemic of misogyny both online and off and a patriarchal backlash are driving an exponential rise in mass and far right violence She also offers essential strategies that all of us including parents teachers and counselors can use to fight the rising tide of violence beginning with recognizing the misogyny that pervades our everyday lives
