Stein,Bruce M. Rowe,1992 Since the first edition of Physical Anthropology over a quarter century ago Stein and Rowe have been helping to teach physical anthropology to tens of thousands of students In this new edition these award winning teachers and authors continue to share their love of discovery with students in this balanced objective introduction to physical anthropology that does not assume that students have any previous knowledge of the subject Carefully streamlined making it more accessible and affordable this seventh edition provides students with a pedagogical program designed to facilitate comprehension Every concept is carefully explained and illustrated guiding students step by step through difficult material Despite changes in organization and length this text maintains its emphasis on three important themes First that anthropology is a holistic discipline second that human beings are an integral part of nature and third because humans depend on learned behavior our maintenance of a balance with nature can be strengthened by an understanding of our evolutionary past As always Stein and Rowe use the most current data to unravel the mystery of the evolution of humankind and to examine the dynamic relationship between humans and their environment The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1982

History of Physical Anthropology Frank Spencer,1997 The comparative study of humans as biological organisms their evolution and their physiological and anatomical functions and ecology of primates surveys the entire field and summarizes and organizes the basic knowledge fundamental principles and development A Study Guide for E.E. The Retreat of Scientific Racism Elazar Barkan,1992 This fascinating study in the sociology of knowledge documents the refutation of scientific foundations for racism in Britain and the United States between the two World Wars when racial differences were no longer attributed to cultural factors Professor Barkan considers the social significance of this transformation particularly its effect on race relations in the modern world Discussing the work of the leading biologists and anthropologists who wrote between the wars he argues that the impetus for the shift in ideologies came from the inclusion of outsiders women Jews and leftists who infused greater egalitarianism into scientific discourse But even though the emerging view of race was constrained by a scientific language he shows that modern theorists were as much influenced by social and political events as were their predecessors

The Anthropology of Religion, Magic, and Witchcraft Rebecca L. Stein,Philip L. Stein,Benjamin R. Kracht,Marjorie M. Snipes,2024-07-16 This concise and accessible textbook introduces students to the anthropological study of religion It examines religious expression from a cross cultural perspective and exposes students to the complexities of religion in small scale and complex societies The chapters incorporate key theoretical concepts and a wide range of ethnographic material The fifth edition of The Anthropology of Religion Magic and Witchcraft offers a revised introduction covering the foundations of the anthropology of religion anthropological methods and a push toward decolonizing the anthropology of religion expanded coverage of symbols healing wizardry and the intersections of religion with other social institutions new case study material with examples drawn from around the globe especially from Indigenous communities marginalia in each chapter introducing provocative small case examples related to the chapter many of these can be used as prompts for further research small in class case studies or examples for hands on learning a new chapter on religion and healing especially useful for Anthropology programs without representation of four fields as it provides a wider and more interdisciplinary application of the discipline a consistent review of foundations from chapter to chapter linking material and enabling students to connect what they are learning throughout the course and further resources via a comprehensive companion website including interactive activities critical case studies updated study questions bibliographical suggestions including video and color images This is an essential guide for students encountering the anthropology of religion for the first time and also for those with an ongoing interest in this fascinating field National Library of Medicine Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1966 Economic Emancipation Albert Okechukwu Ikpenwa,2011 This work focuses on economic activities especially in the era of globalization taking into consideration their relationship with some of the traditional values of the Church It focuses particularly on the dignity of the human person and how such relationship can promote or alienate the human person from God self fellow humans society and nature Rev Father Dr Albert Okechukwu Ikpenwa holds B Phil and BD from Pontifical Urban University Rome Masters and Doctorate degrees from Alphonsian Academy Alfonsianum Higher Institute of Moral Theology of the Pontifical Lateran University Rome Guide American Anthropological Association,2008 Indian Archaeology After Independence Himanshu Prabha Ray,Ajay Yadav,2025-08-01 The book presents the challenges faced by the Archaeological Survey of India ASI in the first two and a half decades after Indian independence It looks at the shifts in Government policies how ASI found its feet in a global environment and the new realities of economic development such as big dam constructions that invariably resulted in the submergence of archaeological sites Based on unpublished archival data this book highlights the contributions of the longest serving Director General Amalananda Ghosh and members of his staff It thus provides a corrective to the histories of archaeology that describe the policies of the post 1947 ASI as a continuation of colonial archaeologists such as Mortimer Wheeler who was appointed Director General at the cusp of Indian independence in 1944 by the British The book will be indispensable to researchers and scholars of history heritage studies and archaeology and South Asian studies It will also be of appeal to those interested in the history of archaeology and the development of the discipline in India AAA Guide 1989-90 Asociación Antropológica Americana,Frederick Custer,1989 *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
