Gwendolyn Wheeler, 2017-11-27 So You Think You've Been Called to Be a Pastor Pastoring 101 is a workbook primarily written for new pastors and ministers who think they have been called to be a pastor Yet seasoned pastors can benefit from this book as well Someone said that 50 percent of new pastors give up after their first year In my humblest opinion many who feel they are called to be a pastor have never been properly mentored They are not prepared for the various seasons that will take place within their ministry Someone needs to tell them about pastoral fluctuations the bitters and the sweets the unpredictability of membership and finances betrayals apathy childishness and the perpetual delays that come with growing a church By writing this workbook I have officially accepted the assignment to be that someone In this age of mega churches with multi million dollar programs it is easy for pastors of small churches to feel like failures we don't measure up This workbook provides practical information to help pastors successfully navigate through various pastoral seasons This workbook is divided into fourteen sections A few sections are What to Expect as a New Pastor The Danger of Being a Carbon Copy of Someone Else's Ministry What Do You Do When the Pews Are Not Full and Members Say and Do the Strangest Things At the end of each that night she remembers hearing a dispatcher say one word through a police officer's radio: fatality. In a raw and tragic story of redemption, hope, and forgiveness, April chronicles her life journey beginning in a Christian home where she battled low self-esteem and a strong desire to be loved and accepted. As she reveals how social drinking led her to feel beautiful, likable, and funny, April candidly describes how she slowly transformed into a full-blown and seemingly hopeless alcoholic. While sharing insights into her spiritual awakening behind the walls of a Texas prison, she discloses how she learned to affirmatively answer the deeply introspective question Jesus placed on her heart: Do You Want to Get Well? is the moving true story of a recovering alcoholic's journey of healing and freedom in Christ.

Representative Continental Dramas Montrose Jonas Moses, 1924. So You Want to Dig a Well in Africa? Jeff Palmer, 2020-10-14. Typical missions projects involve dozens of people in identical T-shirts getting on an airplane to go somewhere and help a needy community. But do those projects actually help people in the long run? Does this work create long-term systemic change in individuals and the community? And does the work lead to intentionally sharing Christ? In other words, is our mission work based on good missions strategy that brings about sustainable change and kingdom impact for communities, or is our approach focused only on creating a positive experience for everyone involved? So You Want to Dig a Well in Africa highlights ten common myths people and organizations believe about missions. Exploring the ways in which American churches take on missions, author Jeff Palmer highlights pitfalls of equating mission trips with ministry projects, offers valuable techniques to avoid unintentional but harmful practices that stem from a poor community development model, presents tools for designing, implementing, and evaluating strong mercy-oriented mission strategies, and discusses key elements for evaluating mission programs: participation, sustainability, and transformation. Offering a resource for those seeking to work for the good of people but also for the glory of God, this guide highlights faulty models used for mercy-oriented missions and gives a framework for creating sustainable change in people and communities.
