Question 1:

In a democracy why is universal adult franchise important?

Answer 1:

In a democracy, universal adult franchise is important because of the following reasons:

- Democracy is the government of the people, by the people and for the people.
- Every adult irrespective of caste, creed, religion, region, sex, rich or poor people are allowed to vote. This is called universal adult franchise.

Answer 2:

Article 15 in democracy of the constitution prohibits discrimination on grounds of religion, race, caste, sex or place of birth. Two ways in which this Article addresses inequality:

- It suggests States not to discriminate against any citizen on grounds only of religion, race, caste, sex, place of birth or any of them.
- No citizen shall be subject to any disability, liability and restriction on grounds only of religion, race, caste, sex, and place of birth or any of them.

Question 3:

In what ways was Omprakash Valmiki's experience similar to that of the Ansaris?

Answer 3:

By picking on him and making him sweep the school, because of his caste, Omprakash Valmiki's schoolmates and teachers hurt his dignity badly and made him feel as if he was less equal to all other students in the school. Omprakash Valmiki was not allowed to sit with other students on the desks or mats but at the end of the worn-out mat. Being a child, Omprakash Valmiki could do very little in this situation.

The Ansaris dignity was also hurt when persons refused to lease their apartments to them. However, when the property dealer suggested that they change their name, it was their dignity or self-respect that made them refuse his suggestion. Omprakash Valmiki's experience was similar to that of the Ansari's because both were treated unequally based on caste and religion, their dignity was violated. They both deserved the same equality, respect, and dignity as anyone else.

Question 4:

What do you understand by the term "all persons are equal before the law"? Why do you think it is important in a democracy?

Answer 4:

The Indian Constitution recognizes every person equal before the law. By the term, "all persons are equal before the law," we understand equality. Universal Adult Franchise is a concept based on equality. Equality is important in a democracy because democracy is the government of the people, by the people and for the people. Equality is the essence of democracy. If people are discriminated based on caste, creed, religion, sex, prosperity, etc. the democracy will not survive. Every person irrespective of his caste, religion, economic status, educational status etc. has the same right to be treated with dignity as others.

Civic Education in the Twenty-First Century Donald M.

Gooch, Michael T. Rogers, 2015-09-18 Imagine an America where politicians governmental institutions schools new technologies and interest groups work together to promote informed engaged citizens Civic Education in the Twenty First Century brings together scholars from various disciplines to show how such a United States is possible today Inspired by Alexis de Tocqueville s analysis of American democracy in the early 1800s this edited volume represents a multidimensional evaluation of civic education in its new and varied forms While some lament a civics crisis in America today Civic Education in the Twenty First Century raises hope that we can have an informed and active citizenry We find the activities of a number of politicians government institutions schools and interest groups as promising developments in the struggle to educate and engage Americans in their democracy New technologies and new innovations in civic education have laid the foundation for a revitalized American civic ecology With Civic Education in the Twenty First Century we call for the United States to make these practices less isolated and more common throughout the country The volume is broken into three major sections First there are four chapters exploring the history and philosophical debates about civic education particularly with respect to its role in America s educational institutions Then the second section provides seven groundbreaking inquiries into how politicians and political institutions can promote civic education and engagement through their routine operations As some examples this section explores how politicians through campaigns and judiciaries through community programs enhance civic knowledge and encourage civic engagement This section also explores how new technologies like the Internet and social media are increasingly used by government institutions and other entities to encourage a more politically informed and engaged citizenry Finally the third section contains six chapters that explore programs and practices in higher education that are enhancing civic education engagement and our knowledge of them From the virtual civics campus of Fort Hayes State to citizens academies throughout the country this section shows the possibilities for schools today to once again be civics actors and promoters

Colby,2018-01-29 All social work practice is regulated by social policies Professionals however cannot arbitrarily select which policy to follow in any circumstance Knowing what comprises a given policy is essential but equally important is understanding how to amend a policy by applying unique skills that reflect the social work profession s shared values and beliefs Recognizing that a series of interdependent social policies govern every aspect of social work in both nonprofit and public organizations this practice specific textbook focuses on influencing social policies in an agency setting or through formal governmental processes Purposefully the Handbook also relies on information comes from the digital world using the web as a primary source builds on the social work profession s long held belief to begin where the client is Using the links to the various data and citation sources readers will learn to identify and discern the features of a valid web site As a whole The Handbook of Policy Practice is an essential resource for all BSW and MSW students The Civic Mission of Museums Anthony Pennay,2020-12-15 Museums have long sought to maintain relevance in the daily lives of their communities Over the past several decades museums have shifted as a field from a focus on collections to a focus on connecting with audiences More recently museums must confront political polarization and a decreasing sense of trust in nearly every public institution As a result few institutions are better positioned to serve the country than museums In fact polls show that museums rank among the most trusted institutions in the country regardless of political belief During tumultuous times this trust means that museums have a unique and important responsibility to fulfill their civic mission A century ago John Cotton Dana argued that the most important thing a museum can do is produce a public benefit The Civic Mission of Museums argues that museums play an essential role in the cultivation of engaged and informed citizens The book outlines a spectrum of civic learning that includes civic knowledge civic mindset civic skillset and civic action It offers concrete examples of impactful civic programming exhibits and public engagement from a diverse set of museums It ends with a practical toolkit gleaned from across the country for museum professionals to utilize

Civic Failure and Its Threat to Democracy Chapman Rackaway, 2016-12-14 The greatest threat to American democracy is the voting public Candidates for political office organized interests and political parties are often blamed for the ills of American democracy but this book places the focus on the core issue in American politics a disengaged demanding and often contradictory voting public Structural reforms such as the direct primary term limits and campaign finance regime reforms make the problems worse rather than better because these structural reforms fail to address core issues that disengage the voting public from republican politics
