Integrative Approaches to Psychology and Christianity, Fourth Edition David N. Entwistle, 2021-11-03 Since the first edition of Integrative Approaches to Psychology and Christianity was published in 2004 this has become the standard textbook on the topic Now in its fully revised fourth edition Dr Entwistle's book elucidates historical philosophical and practical issues in the integration of psychology and Christianity As in previous editions the current text provides an introduction to many of the worldview issues and philosophical foundations that frame the relationship of psychology and theology includes scholarly reflection on the integration literature and surveys six models of possible relationships between psychology and Christianity ranging from those that are completely opposed to either religion or psychology to intermediate models that assert that some limited interaction between them is possible to viewpoints which suggest that a Christian worldview approach can be used to provide a context for exploring areas of overlapping interest between psychology and Christianity The current edition considers recent advances in both Catholic and Protestant thinking on integration including contemporary questions about what evangelicalism is and is not that shape evangelical reactions to the integration debate New content ranges from information about the contrasting views of Tertullian and Augustine to insights from contemporary psychology about factors that adversely affect the quality and reliability of human thinking to how conflict over COVID 19 has entered contemporary religious debate The book is designed to help readers become aware of the presuppositional backdrops that each of us brings to these issues Questions at the end of each chapter are included to help readers evaluate both the material and their own burgeoning approach to integration This book is ideal as a textbook for students of psychology and other behavioral and social sciences social work sociology theology counseling pastoral counseling at both the graduate and undergraduate level It is also written for the broader readership of psychologists counselors pastors and others who are interested in integration

The Impact of Watching Violent Television Programs on Secondary School Children in Tanzania Watson Lupogo Masiba, 2016-06-14 Violent television programs are highly preferred by children They stimulate their emotions and increase curiosity about violence related issues This means that watching violent television programs has an impact upon their way of perceiving the world around them and acting in response to it This study investigated the impacts of watching violent television programs on secondary school children in Tanzania The specific objectives were to examine children s accessibility to the TV ascertain the types of violent TV programs and the time children spend watching them determine the ways in which watching violent TV programs affects their academic performance find out the impact of watching violent TV programs on their discipline and examine the role of parents in addressing the impacts of watching violent TV programs upon their children Results indicate that most secondary school children watch violent TV programs at home in the sitting rooms They spend an average of three hours per day on weekdays and seven and half hours on weekends watching movies music drama and informational programs that were identified as the most violent ones Obviously spending lots of time watching violent TV programs decreases children s academic performance and discipline This book is important because it discusses the parents role in discouraging and limiting children from watching violent TV programs and choosing appropriate TV programs for them

New Social Life Natalie Kerr,Jaime Kurtz,2024-12-10 A fascinating introduction to the science of connection that will ultimately improve your social life and lead to better relationships In a world where everything seems to transform in a blink anyone can suddenly find themselves scrambling for human connection Someone who has always found it easy to connect can suddenly feel disoriented if they start a new job move to a new region or welcome a new member into the family Others may have always found it difficult to connect feel they ve outgrown their circles or may feel dissatisfied for a range of other reasons In Our New Social Life social connection and happiness experts Natalie Kerr and Jaime Kurtz explain the science behind these struggles and steer us toward timeless skills to overcome these challenges Unlike much of the guidance found online this book is based on decades of research which the authors make accessible and useful to the reader and offers tools for introverts and extraverts alike Whether the barriers to connection are a function of modern life such as being distracted by our devices feeling overworked and living far away from loved ones or are more timeless such as simply not knowing how to connect misunderstanding the thoughts and feelings of others undervaluing moments of solitude and avoiding the sort of vulnerability that creates deep bonds this book offers hope encouragement and relatability to help readers have a richer and more vibrant social life Self Discovery Journal Tiffany Adams,2020-01-27 Over 69 percent of people feel trapped in their same old redundant routine Are you one of them Do you wake up to your alarm in the mornings get ready for work as usual and feel like something in your life is missing Something with significance Are you tired of doing the things you typically do expecting a new outcome each time only to be disappointed when you make absolutely no personal progress or growth whatsoever Do you want to create a new life for yourself one filled with genuine happiness and a love for both yourself and what you do Dissatisfaction is all too common nowadays People are depressed miserable and hate their daily routine feeling as if their life's purpose doesn't exist For the most part a major contributing factor is that you stay in your comfort zone and don't try to grow as an individual Another part is that your mind is too fixated on The best thing you can do for yourself in times of doubt sadness and unfulfillment is to focus your thoughts inward and try In Self Discovery Journal you will discover 365 thought provoking questions to help you better understand yourself and open the door of opportunity for change in both mindset and lifestyle How to become happy and satisfied in the life you're living as well as how to make your dream life turn into reality The never ending life cycle many people get sucked into and how to dig yourself out of this torturous rabbit hole The key to maintaining a successful life even if your goals constantly develop into something entirely new The 1 stumbling block that hinders personal growth and how to push past its detrimental effects on your future A step by step manual designed to steer you in the right direction towards finding your life's purpose and achieving a fulfilled life How figuring out your personality type can help you decide what kind of life would suit you best and how to do it The well known saying You can't teach an old dog new tricks simply doesn't apply here It doesn't matter whether you're in your mid twenties or your late fifties it's never too late for anyone to make the change they wish to see within their own self discovery Not only can you take this journey at your own pace and in the comfort and privacy of your own home but there also aren't any seminars programs or life coaches involved so you can rest assured knowing there will be no extra costs draining your funds Even if you've given self discovery a try before finding yourself ending the program with the same mindset as when you began it is something worth fighting for and trying again and again until it finally clicks After all it isn't about the destination but the journey itself that it took to get there The clock is ticking Every second you spend on something that isn't working towards finding your true self is another second wasted in misery
