Seeing Eye Girl Beverly J. Armento, 2025-07-30 As the Seeing Eye Girl for her blind artistic and mentally ill mother Beverly Armento was intimately connected with and responsible for her even though her mother physically and emotionally abused her She was Strong Beverly at school excellent in academics and mentored by caring teachers but at home she was Weak Beverly cowed by her mother's rage and delusions Beverly's mother regained her sight with two corneal transplants in 1950 and went on to enjoy a moment of fame as an artist but these positive turns did nothing to stop her disintegration into her delusional world of communists radiation and lurking Italians To survive Beverly had to be resilient and hopeful that better days could be ahead But first she had to confront essential ethical issues about her caregiving role in her family In this emotional memoir Beverly shares the coping strategies she invented to get herself through the trials of her young life and the ways in which school and church served as refuges over the course of her journey Breaking the psychological chains that bound her to her mother would prove to be the most difficult challenge of her life and ultimately the most liberating one

Exemplary Elementary Social Studies Sherry L. Field, Jeff Passe, Andrea S. Libresco, Janet Alleman, 2014-04-01 In many elementary classrooms social studies has taken a back seat to English Language Arts and Mathematics in the wake of No Child Left Behind and Race to the Top This volume is not another hand wringing lament On the contrary the elementary educators who have contributed to this volume have a positive set of stories to tell about how social studies can play a central role in the elementary classroom how teachers can integrate social studies knowledge and skills throughout the school day and how this learning can carry over into children's homes and communities The seven case studies in this book one at each elementary grade level highlight exemplary teachers in whose classrooms social studies is alive and well in this age of accountability At the end of each case study each teacher provides advice for elementary teachers of social studies Our hope is that elementary teachers and prospective teachers elementary principals social studies supervisors staff developers and professors of elementary social studies methods who study the stories that we tell can be empowered to return social studies to its rightful place in the curriculum Controversial Issues in Social Studies Education in Turkey Elvan Gunel, 2018-08-01 Controversial Issues in Social Studies Education in Turkey The Contemporary Debates consists of different research each analyze a controversial topic that is significant to understand the social and political dynamics of Turkish
