Zornado, 2012-12-10 Print CourseSmart Chapters 1-7: The Practice of Generalist Social Work Marla Berg-Weger, Julie Birkenmaier, 2017-05-25 The fourth edition of The Practice of Generalist Social Work continues to teach students to apply micro, macro, and mezzo social work skills. This new edition strengthens the connection between the three levels of practice and is fully updated to the 2015 EPAS. This edition also contains more illustrations of theory and more context for deciding which type of intervention is a good fit. Most chapters now open with a case study and continually refer back to the case to provide additional connections between theory and real-life practice. Each chapter also incorporates a link to a Grand Challenge of Social Work from the American Academy of Social Work and Social Welfare, which shows the connection between social work and the most significant societal challenges of today. The Quick Guides within the text offer students guidance for their field experience and practice after graduation. The text also comes with a rich companion website that includes support materials and six unique cases that encourage students to learn by doing. Go to www.routledgesw.com to explore the cases and additional resources. The Life Model of Social Work Practice Alex Gitterman, Carolyn

Knight, Caryl B. Germain, 2021-02-02 Originally published in 1980, The Life Model of Social Work Practice was the first textbook to introduce the ecological perspective into social work practice. This fourth edition brings the text up to date by expanding and deepening this perspective. Integrating contemporary theory and research findings with numerous case illustrations drawn from a wide range of practice contexts, this textbook provides students with an invaluable introduction to the real world of social work practice and includes knowledge, methods, and skills for advanced practice. The authors detail the theoretical foundation of the ecological perspective and the life model's emphasis on evidence and ethics guided practice culturally competent and diversity sensitive practice and the multiple sources of accountability that social workers face The text features an extensive discussion of the principles of trauma informed practice and their implications for social work practice Its discussion of cultural competence and sensitivity to diversity incorporates contemporary concepts such as cultural humility and privilege intersectionality and critical race theory and presents their application to practice The authors integrate current research throughout the text and provide numerous research applications to underscore and model the importance of evidence guided practice The fourth edition reflects the National Association of Social Workers Code of Ethics and the Council on Social Work Education's most recent set of competency standards which accredit social work schools and programs It is accompanied by a teachers guide that provides chapter summaries recommended teaching methods and skills questions for discussion and suggested assignments and identifies where in the text the nine EPAS competencies and their associated practice behaviors are addressed
