Sofi Oksanen Puhdistus:

Sofi Oksanen romaanitaide Markku Lehtimäki, 2022-08-12 Sofi Oksanen is the most visible and widely discussed Finnish author of the 21st century yet her novels have gained less attention than her public performances This study shifts the focus from the author's persona to her literary art proposing to read Oksanen's fiction from the methodological viewpoint of the rhetorical theory of narrative Accordingly Oksanen's six novels published to date Stalinin lehmä Baby Jane Puhdistus Kun kyyhkyset katosivat Norma and Koirapuisto are considered as examples of authorial rhetoric and ethics as narrative and textual constructions and as affective readerly experiences Instead of only following the rhetorical theory's emphasis on character plot and progression however the study develops a new kind of narrative rhetoric which also pays attention to language and politics In the study Sofi Oksanen emerges as a feminist narrative artist who employs fiction as a serious rhetorical resource in order to say something worthwhile about the past history as well as the contemporary world narratives can be oppressive empowering or both It also argues that the relationship between narrative unconscious and narrative imagination shapes our sense of the possible In her book Meretoja develops a hermeneutic narrative ethics that differentiates between six dimensions of the ethical potential of storytelling the power of narratives to cultivate our sense of the possible to contribute to individual and cultural self understanding to enable understanding other lives non subsumptively in their singularity to transform the narrative in between that bind people together to develop our perspective awareness and capacity for perspective taking and to function as a form of ethical inquiry This book addresses our implication in violent histories and argues that it is as dialogic storytellers fundamentally vulnerable and dependent on one another that we become who we are both as individuals and communities The Ethics of Storytelling seamlessly incorporates narrative ethics literary narrative studies narrative psychology narrative philosophy and cultural memory studies It contributes to contemporary interdisciplinary narrative studies by developing narrative hermeneutics as a philosophically rigorous historically sensitive and analytically subtle approach to the ethical stakes of the debate on the narrative dimension of human existence Out of the USSR Eva Hausbacher, Viola Parente-Čapková, Arja Rosenholm, Marja Anneli Sorvari, 2025-08-04 This book examines how women authors recall their own and their families past lives after having emigrated from the Soviet Union in the 1990s and how they reflect on their new country of residence be it Germany Austria Israel USA or Finland among others The chapters connect migration memory and gender studies to analyse literary presentations created by these travelling women The aim of the book is to pay attention both to women s contribution to cultural transfer and to the mobility of memories for the first time it brings women s narratives as a form and tool to work through both individual and collective traumas to the forefront remedying a long standing omission in Russian and post Soviet migration history At the same time the volume looks at travelling memories and cultural traumas from a gendered perspective what happens when the recollections of women s traumatic experiences of Soviet history travel through time and space As this volume argues narratives by women who left the Soviet Union often call into question official accounts of Soviet history and rewrite them in a way that makes room for gendered lived experience Liikkuvat tekstit, liikkuvat naiset Viola Parente-Čapková, Arja Rosenholm, Kati Launis, 2025-07-01 Keit ven j ksi kirjoittaneita naiskirjailijoita tunnet Keit heist on suomennettu ja miten heid n teoksensa on otettu vastaan Suomessa Ent mit Sofi Oksasen kipe ja monisyist neuvostohistoriaa k sittelevist teoksista ajatellaan Ven j ll Liikkuvat tekstit liikkuvat naiset tarkastelee Suomen ja Ven j n kirjallisia suhteita keskittyen erityisesti ven j ksi kirjoittavien naisten vastaanottoon Suomessa aina 1800 luvun puoliv list nykyp iv n kirjablogeihin K nn kset lehtiartikkelit tekstienv liset yhteydet ja kirjastoluettelot tuovat valoon toimijoita jotka ovat j neet ven l isten miesklassikoiden syv n varjoon niin Ven j ll kuin Suomessa Samalla avautuu uusia n k kulmia ven j nkielisen kirjallisuuden vastaanoton historiaan ja nykyhetkeen Teos tarjoaa vankkaa asiantuntijatietoa yleistajuisena tietopakettina Suomen ja Ven j n yllirajaisesta kirjallisuudesta kulttuurihistoriasta sek naisten roolista kiinnostuneille Rethinking

Miina Kikkijärvi, Andy McCoy, ja Dave Lindholmista Vieraita näyttämöllä Hanna Korsberg, Anneli Saro, Mikko-Olavi Seppälä, 2024-09-10 This book is a collaborative project by a joint Finnish Estonian research team that explores Finnish and Estonian theatre and dance from the 19th to the 21st century and the rich interactions between the scenes of both countries. The aesthetic interactions have commonly been mixed with political and ideological objectives. The book contributes to the recent debate on transnationality by examining the activities of theatre makers and institutions such as visits, tours, and drama translations. Although Estonia and Finland are geographically and linguistically close, their societies, theatre systems, and cultural influences have diverged. This situation has produced links, clashes, and cooperation characterized by a mixture of familiarity and strangeness. The transnational links have in many ways also raised questions of national identity. Finland and Estonia are still countries with active theatre scenes whose cooperation continues to find new forms. After Memory Matthias Schwartz, Nina Weller, Heike Winkel, 2021-06-08 Even seventy-five years after the end of World War II, the commemorative cultures surrounding the War and the Holocaust in Central Eastern and South Eastern Europe are anything but fixed. The fierce debates on how to deal with the past among the newly constituted nation states in these regions have already received much attention by scholars in cultural and memory studies. The present volume posits that literature as a medium can help us understand the shifting attitudes towards World War II and the Holocaust in post-Communist Europe in recent years. These shifts point to new commemorative cultures shaping up after memory. Contemporary literary representations of World War II and the Holocaust in Eastern Europe do not merely extend or replace older practices of remembrance and testimony but reflect on these now defunct or superseded narratives. New narratives of remembrance are conditioned by a fundamentally new social and political context, one that emerged from the devaluation of socialist commemorative rituals and as a response to the loss of private and family memory narratives. The volume offers insights into the diverse literatures of Eastern Europe and their ways of depicting the area's contested heritage. Finland in Pictures Francesca Davis DiPiazza, 2010-08-01 Historically fought over by Sweden and Russia, Finland today is a thriving country whose forests are its most important natural resource. One of the world's northernmost nations, Finland experiences almost constant sunlight in the summer. Nordic Cooperation Johan Strang, 2015-07-16 The recent crises in global economy and in European integration have caused a considerable revival of interest in the Nordic Welfare Model. However, less attention has been given to the ways in which the nations that form Scandinavia or Norden are connected through various forms of inter and transnational cooperation. With contributions from a team of experts in the field, this volume analyses Nordic cooperation in a European perspective and argues that this special form of transnational cooperation has been crucial in the development of the Nordic Welfare Model. In addition, it also contends that the Nordic model of transnational cooperation is a relevant case study when pondering the present problems of European integration. This text will be of key interest to students, researchers, and policy makers studying the Nordic Model and transnational cooperation, and more generally to those
