Hospitalities Merle A. Williams, 2020-12-23 This collection of imaginative essays traces notions of hospitality across a sequence of theoretical permutations not only as an urgent challenge for our conflicted present but also as foundational for ethics and resonant within the play of language The plural form of the title highlights the inter implication of hospitality with its exclusive others holding suspicious rejection in tension with the receptiveness that transforms socio cultural relations Geographically the collection traverses the globe from Australia and Africa to Britain Europe and the United States weaving exchanges from south to north as well as south to south and thoughtfully remapping our world Temporally the chapters range from the primordial hospitality offered by the earth through the Middle Ages to contemporary detention centres and the crisis of homelessness Thematically hospitality embraces sites of dwelling and the land humans and animals in their complex embodiment spectres and the dead dolls and art objects This text openly welcomes the reader to participate in shaping fresh critical discourses of the hospitable whether in literary and linguistic studies art and architecture philosophy or politics

Reflections of South African Student Leaders: 1994 to 2017 Ntokozo Bhengu, Denyse Webbstock, 2020-05-13 Reflections of South African Student Leaders 1994 2017 brings together the reflections of twelve former SRC leaders from across the landscape of South African universities Reviews of the previous volume 1981 2014 suggested that it contributed significantly to a better understanding of the stringent demands of visionary and transformative leadership required by university leaders in the fastchanging and increasingly complex public higher education sector This volume is based on comprehensive interviews with former student leaders each of whom provided a personal account in their own words of their experience in the position of student leadership The interviewees are from different backgrounds and of diverse political persuasions The book is important for current and future leaders of higher education institutions as it provides insights into the thinking aspirations desires fears and modus operandi of student leaders Such insight can contribute to developing and implementing appropriate strategies for achieving meaningful and constructive engagement with current and future student leaders

Decolonising Curricula and Pedagogy in Higher Education Shannon Morreira, Kathy Luckett, Siseko H. Kumalo, Manjeet Ramgotra, 2021-05-31 This book brings together voices from the Global South and Global North to think through what it means in practice to decolonise contemporary higher education Occasionally a theoretical concept arises in academic debate that cuts across individual disciplines Such concepts which may well have already been in use and debated for some time become suddenly newly and increasingly important at a particular historical juncture Right now debates around decolonisation are on the rise globally as we become increasingly aware that many of the old power imbalances brought into play by colonialism have not gone away in the present The authors in this volume bring theories of decoloniality into conversation with the structural cultural institutional relational and personal logics of curriculum pedagogy and teaching practice What is enabled in practice when academics set out to decolonize their teaching spaces What commonalities and differences are there where academics set out to do so in universities across disparate political and geographical spaces This book explores what is at stake when decolonial work is taken from the level of theory into actual practice The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Third World Thematics

Publishing from the South Sarah Nuttall, Isabel Hofmeyr, 2024-11 In 2022 Wits University Press marked its centenary making it the oldest most established university press in sub Saharan Africa While in part modelled on scholarly publishers from the global North it has had to contend with the constraints of working under global South conditions marginalisation within the university budgetary limitations small local markets unequal access to international sales channels and the privileging of English language publishing over indigenous languages This volume explores what the Press has achieved and what its modes of reinvention might look like In widening and deepening our understanding of the Press as an example of a global South scholarly publisher this volume asks how publishing can contribute to a broader understanding of Southern knowledge production Featuring contributions from scholars publishers and authors this multi voiced volume showcases the history of the Press s publishing activities over 100 years from documenting its evolution through book covers and giving credence to some of the leading black intellectuals and writers of the early 20th century and the success of those works in spite of their authors racial marginalisation to the role of women both in publishing and in the spaces afforded to women s writing on the Press s list The collection concludes with essays by contemporary authors who detail not only their experiences of working with Southern publishers but also the politics and influences governing their decisions to choose the Press over a Northern publisher Publishing from the South shows the strategies deployed by the Press to professionalise Southern knowledge making and in the process demonstrating how university presses in the global South support the scholarly missions of their universities for both local and global audiences Proceedings of the 20th European Conference on Management, Leadership and Governance Mafalda Patuleia, 2024

Perspectives on Lifelong Learning and Global Citizenship Sarah Stanlick, Whitney Szmodis, 2022-09-06 This book lays the groundwork for the future of global citizenship and it discusses where we are now where to go from here and how all of this fits into a lifelong learning context It incorporates case studies meta narratives and empirical studies to support cosmopolitanism through a lifelong learning lens and is a must read for educators activists non governmental organizations civil society and community organizations The framing for this book is with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 4 in mind ensuring inclusive and equitable quality education and promoting lifelong learning opportunities for all with the intent that all learners will acquire the knowledge skills and attitudes necessary to promote sustainable lifestyles human rights gender equality promotion of a culture of peace and non violence global citizenship and appreciation of cultural diversity and of culture s contribution to sustainable development UN Sustainable Development Goal target 4.7 It is through this lens that this book showcases the work of researchers practitioners civil society and thought leaders in global citizenship for lifelong learning While this tension between nationalism and cosmopolitanism exists the wheels of globalization still turn and shape our local national and global connections Through this exploration this book lifts up examples of global citizenship education done well across the age spectrum and in a variety of contexts The binding factor is the core values ethics and moral structure of a world in collaboration toward its larger human and ecological thriving It unpacks complex topics such as ethical and cultural relativism accountability and responsibility in a global world decolonial education and unmaking ideas of development and ethical models for community based global learning and engagement What voices are missing in the discussion of global learning and global citizenship education

Sol Plaatjie University Application 2016 Introduction

In today's digital age, the availability of Sol Plaatjie University Application 2016 books and manuals for download has revolutionized the way we access information. Gone are the days of physically flipping through pages and carrying heavy textbooks or manuals. With just a few clicks, we can now access a wealth of knowledge from the comfort of our own homes or on the go. This article will explore the advantages of Sol Plaatjie University Application 2016 books and manuals for download, along with some popular platforms that offer these resources. One of the significant advantages of Sol Plaatjie University Application 2016 books and manuals for download is the cost-saving aspect. Traditional books and manuals can be costly, especially if you need to purchase several of them for educational or professional purposes. By accessing Sol Plaatjie University Application 2016 versions, you eliminate the need to spend money on physical copies. This not only saves you money but also reduces the environmental impact associated with book production and transportation. Furthermore, Sol Plaatjie University Application 2016 books and manuals for download are incredibly convenient. With just a computer or smartphone and an internet connection, you can access a vast library of resources on any subject imaginable. Whether you're a student looking for textbooks, a professional seeking industry-specific manuals, or someone interested in self-improvement, these digital resources provide an efficient and accessible means of acquiring knowledge. Moreover, PDF books and manuals offer a range of benefits compared to other digital formats. PDF files are designed to retain their formatting regardless of the device used to open them. This ensures that the content appears exactly as intended by the author, with no loss of formatting or missing graphics. Additionally, PDF files can be easily annotated, bookmarked, and searched for specific terms, making them highly practical for studying or referencing. When it comes to accessing Sol Plaatjie University Application 2016 books and manuals, several platforms offer an extensive collection of resources. One such platform is Project Gutenberg, a nonprofit organization that provides over 60,000 free eBooks. These books are primarily in the public domain, meaning they can be freely distributed and downloaded. Project Gutenberg offers a wide range of classic literature, making it an excellent resource for literature enthusiasts. Another popular platform for Sol Plaatjie University Application 2016 books and manuals is Open Library. Open Library is an initiative of the Internet Archive, a non-profit organization dedicated to digitizing cultural artifacts and making them accessible to the public. Open Library hosts millions of books, including both public domain works and contemporary titles. It also allows users to borrow digital copies of certain books for a limited period, similar to a library lending system. Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents. In conclusion, Sol Plaatjie University

Application 2016 books and manuals for download have transformed the way we access information. They provide a cost-effective and convenient means of acquiring knowledge, offering the ability to access a vast library of resources at our fingertips.
