Emerging Issues in Internal

Displacement in Africa Romola Adeola, 2021-02-12 This book focuses on emerging issues related to internal displacement in Africa. The six principal issues discussed are climate change, technology, xenophobia, harmful practices, generalized violence, and development projects. Increasingly, the need to understand the root causes of the dimensions of internal displacement and the dimensions in which this displacement manifests have become a pertinent rhetoric in the discussion on internal displacement. Therefore, this monograph examines emerging issues for which there is very little in the internal displacement discussion, with the aim of providing knowledge within African regional contexts to advance law and policy formation. The novelty of this book lies in the fact that it moves beyond the conventional discussion on internal displacement into grey areas on the subject in Africa, leveraging the African Union Convention for the Protection and Assistance of Internally Displaced Persons, the Kampala Convention. This book will be a significant reference point for researchers, professors, practitioners, judges, policy makers, international organizations, regional bodies, lawyers, and scholars in the fields of migration, forced migration, and regional institutions.

Research Design

John W. Creswell, J. David Creswell, 2017-12-12 This best-selling text pioneered the comparison of qualitative, quantitative, and mixed methods research design. For all three approaches, John W. Creswell and new co-author J. David Creswell include a preliminary consideration of philosophical assumptions, key elements of the research process, a review of the literature, an assessment of the use of theory in research applications, and reflections about the importance of writing and ethics in scholarly inquiry. The Fifth Edition includes more coverage of epistemological and ontological positioning in relation to the research question and chosen methodology, case study, PAR, visual, and online methods in qualitative research, qualitative and quantitative data analysis software, and in quantitative methods, more on power analysis to determine sample size, and more coverage of experimental and survey designs, and updated with the latest thinking and research in mixed methods.

Doing Research in Social Work and Social Care

Catherine Flynn, Fiona McDermott, 2016-10-19 From understanding the concepts of research and gathering data to writing it all up and sharing knowledge, this book will guide your students to become researchers by giving them a confident start with clarity on core concepts and getting it right ethically. Step by step guidance at each point in the research process, showing them diversity in approaches, the impact of context, and how to overcome problems, case studies of how real researchers embrace the challenges, surprises, and successes of research, an emphasis on the person in context so their research is reflective of the realities of social work and social care practice, a guide to writing it up and achieving impact and positive change with research.
