NON-CITIZENS IN LATVIA: IS IT A REAL PROBLEM?

Abstract

Following the restoration of independence in 1991, Latvia has introduced restrictive citizenship strategy involving citizenship only to those who had it before the Soviet occupation, and to their descendants. As a result, about one-third of the population in Latvia—the former citizens of the Soviet Union who had immigrated to Latvia during the Soviet period—received the status of 'non-citizen'. In the 1990s, political discourse on the citizenship policy dominated in Latvia. Exclusive Citizenship Act was criticized by international institutions, including the UN, EU, OSCE and CoE. As a result of international pressure Latvia has introduced appropriate amendments to facilitate access to citizenship for non-citizens. Non-citizens and stateless in Latvia represent 11.8% and 0.01% of the population, respectively, which is more than 252 thousand residents of Latvia. It means that non-citizenship phenomenon has not been resolved completely. A few Latvian regulations restrict non-citizens and stateless to participate in elections, occupy public positions and offices, and travel. This article addresses the problem of non-citizenship as a second matter of concerns in Latvian domestic policy. While limitations for non-citizens implicate their political, economic and social status, Latvian authority is far from granting citizenship to non-citizens in 'zero option' procedure.

Key words: citizenship; non-citizens; statelessness; naturalization; Latvia

Sociological Analysis of Integration of Non-Citizens in Latvia Inese Šūpule, Bebri a Iveta, Evija Klave, 2014-11-12 On 1st January 2014 13% or 282 876 people out of all Latvian population were former U S S R citizens who do not have the citizenship of the Republic of Latvia or that of any other country Most often this group has been denominated as Latvian non citizens The study gives an in depth understanding of the barriers and motivation of Latvian non citizens to naturalize or not and attitudes of non citizens towards living and integrating in Latvian society The following dimensions of citizenship has been analysed status of citizenship citizenship as sense of belonging and practice of citizenship The study involved the principles of participatory research approach One of the main findings was on importance and positive feedback of discussions and dialogue among ethnic Latvians Russians citizens and non citizens in Latvia Latvia Country Study Guide Volume 1 Strategic Information and Developments IBP USA, 2013-08 Latvia Country Study Guide Strategic Information and Developments Volume 1 Strategic Information and Developments EU Citizenship, Nationality and Migrant Status Kristīne Krūma, 2013-10-24 In EU Citizenship Nationality and Migrant Status An Ongoing Challenge Kristīne Krūma offers an account of the regulation of nationality at international EU and national Latvian levels Growing global migration and multiple individual loyalties lead to a fusion of national identities traditionally preserved by the EU Member States Dismantling national borders and granting directly effective rights to EU citizens broadens our understanding about belonging only to the limited territory of a single State The primary focus is the status of the EU citizenship which has become a meaningful status capable of satisfying claims by citizens The Latvian example shows that migrant status cannot be ignored because of the crucial role of migrants in the future construct of the EU Understanding Statelessness Tendayi Bloom, Katherine Tonkiss, Phillip Cole, 2017-08-04 Understanding Statelessness offers a comprehensive in depth examination of statelessness The volume presents the theoretical legal and political concept of statelessness through the work of leading critical thinkers in this area They offer a critique of the existing framework through detailed and theoretically based scrutiny of challenging contexts of statelessness in the real world and suggest ways forward The volume is divided into three parts The first Defining Statelessness features chapters exploring conceptual issues in the definition of statelessness The second Living Statelessness uses case studies of statelessness contexts from States across global regions to explore the diversity of contemporary lived realities of statelessness and to interrogate standard theoretical presentations Theorising Statelessness the final part approaches the theorisation of statelessness from a variety of theoretical perspectives building upon the earlier sections All the chapters come together to suggest a rethinking of how we approach statelessness They raise questions and seek answers with a view to contributing to the development of a theoretical approach which can support more just policy development Throughout the volume readers are encouraged to connect theoretical concepts real world accounts and challenging analyses The result is a rich and cohesive volume which acts as both a state of the art statement on statelessness research and a call to action for future work in the field It will be of great interest to graduates and scholars of political theory human rights law and international development as well as those looking for new approaches to thinking about statelessness      Social Cohesion and Social Change in Europe Gerard Boucher,Yunas Samad,2017-10-02 Social cohesion has had different meanings for people depending on their background their interests where they live in the world and at what time they lived In the social sciences social cohesion is a term used to explain the social and cultural consequences of structural changes related to industrialization and modernity In the European Union structural changes which relate to globalization European integration the restructuring of welfare states ageing societies and transitions from communism have often led to more insecurity and material inequalities between people Higher rates of immigration and issues related to the integration of migrants and their descendants have also led to anxieties about the preservation of national cultures and identities This book argues that perceived crises in social cohesion in Europe have more to do with the consequences of structural change rather than the failure of multiculturalism and immigration It looks at the relationship between social cohesion and social change in Europe focusing on the European Union as a whole and on urban areas such as Paris France and Bradford UK This book was originally published as a special issue of Patterns of Prejudice      The Long-Term Residence Status as a Subsidiary Form of EU Citizenship Diego Acosta Arcarazo,2011-05-23 This book analyses the potential of the Long term Residence Directive to become a subsidiary form of EU citizenship which escapes direct control by Member States by looking at its implementation and at its possible interpretation by the Court of Justice      The Russian-speaking Populations in the Post-Soviet Space Ammon Cheskin,Angela Kachuyevski,2021-05-13 In the wake of Russia's annexation of Crimea this volume examines the relationship Russia has with its so called compatriots abroad Based on research from Belarus Estonia Kazakhstan Latvia and Ukraine the authors examine complex relationships between these individuals their home states and the Russian Federation Russia stands out globally as a leading sponsor of kin state nationalism vociferously claiming to defend the interests of its so called diaspora especially the tens of millions of ethnic Russians and Russian speakers who reside in the countries that were once part of the Soviet Union However this volume shifts focus away from the assertive diaspora politics of the Russian state towards the actual groups of Russian speakers in the post Soviet space themselves In a series of empirically grounded studies the authors examine complex relationships between Russians their home states and the Russian Federation Using evidence from Belarus Estonia Kazakhstan Latvia and Ukraine the findings demonstrate multifaceted levels of belonging and estrangement with spaces associated with Russia and the new independent states in which Russian speakers live By focusing on language media politics identity and quotidian interactions this collection provides a wealth of material to help understand contemporary kin state policies and their impact on group identities and behaviour The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Europe Asia Studies      Documents Council of Europe: Parliamentary Assembly,2007-03-19      Taming Nationalism? Political Community Building in the

Post-Soviet Baltic States Dovile Budryte, 2017-05-15 Revisiting the process of political community building in Estonia Latvia and Lithuania this book analyzes the roles that international actors have played in these processes and assesses the unintended consequences of this involvement The study differs from other works on ethnic minorities and nationalism in the former Soviet Union by exploring the use of minority rights discourse and the salience of historical memory Case studies examine the transformation of nationalism in Estonia Latvia and Lithuania all former Soviet republics which have experienced Soviet nationalities policy first hand Primarily intended for an academic audience and practitioners interested in promoting tolerance in multi ethnic societies the book s historical narrative will also appeal to readers with a general interest in the former Soviet Union and post Communism

Cooperation or Conflict? Carmen Gebhard, 2016-05-13 Following the end of the Second World War the creation of regional organizations in Europe provided niche functions to help ensure regional stability through security and transition Yet as the Cold War ended and the Soviet Union dissolved each of these organizations evolved to have a post Cold War role in the region Since then the level of convergence of norms interests and objectives between these main regional organizations has increased considerably Is there a common agenda in Europe Does Europe still need so many organizational elements to tackle the major challenges This book examines the way the EU NATO OSCE and Council of Europe relate to and interact with each other identifying the areas of positive convergence and divergence as well as areas of negative cooperation and conflict By tracing the institutional development and regional integration in Europe the book questions to what degree do European organizations maintain separate identities and most importantly do these organizations still offer a unique and useful service to regional stability In developing this argument policy areas analysed include

Ethnic Domination in Deeply Divided Places Guido Panzano, 2022-02-15 This volume examines the concept of ethnic domination and its manifestations in Israel within the Green Line and Estonia Ethnic domination is a method of managing ethnic differences in multiethnic contexts through asymmetrical power relations in accordance with an ethnonationalist ideology whereby a group is subordinated to another holding the power albeit not intent to directly eliminate the subaltern The volume compares the predicament of Israeli Palestinian citizens and Estonian Russian speakers in different dimensions state citizenship government parliament parties Also the analysis explains the divergent trajectories of the cases the tightening of the condition of Israeli Palestinian citizens and the democratization of ethnic politics in Estonia conflicts or as targets of securitization policies Transported conflicts occurring within and between diasporas in their countries of residence however remain relatively underexplored tend to be misunderstood and often associated with criminal or terrorist activities The chapters in this volume draw our attention to various interconnected temporalities explaining patterns of conflict transportation such as the temps long of diasporic mobilisation the here and now of what is happening in both host and home countries and micro temporalities and diasporans life trajectories Finally the contributions demonstrate that patterns shapes and even occurrence of conflict transportation vary according to scale and space Highly politicized forms of confrontation are not necessarily representative of everyday interactions between diaspora groups which can entail discrete but tangible forms of cooperation and even solidarity This edited volume calls for nuancing our approach to the links between diasporas and conflicts to avoid falling into the essentialisation trap The chapters in this book were originally published in Ethnopolitics      Interculturalism and Discrimination in Romania François Ruegg, Rudolf Poledna, Călin Rus, 2006 This volume presents research on intercultural relations in South Eastern Europe including the way they are imagined and managed in different social and historical contexts After an introductory critique of the concepts of interculturalism and citizenship the situation in Romania is investigated The second part deals with a series of in depth comparative studies namely on the Roma minorities in Romania and Bulgaria But it also considers the case of the Pomaks in Bulgaria of Russians living in parallel societies in the Baltic States and the recent evolution of interculturalism in the region
