Subaltern Workers in Contemporary France Olivier Masclet, Thomas Amossé, Lise Bernard, Marie Cartier, Marie-Hélène Lechien, Olivier Schwartz, Yasmine Siblot, 2022-12-30 This volume explores the lives and work of those who are kept out of poverty by their employment but who occupy tenuous social positions and subaltern jobs Presenting a score of household portraits urban suburban and rural the authors examine what it means to get by in France today considering the material and symbolic resources that these households can muster and the practices that give meaning to their lives With attention to their aspirations and disappointments and their desire to be like everyone else in a supposedly egalitarian society that nonetheless gives them little credit for their effort this book offers a sociological interpretation of their situations offering new insights into what it means to be working class in a 21st century post industrial society Combining statistical analyses with ethnographically based examinations of how changes in the structure of the employment market relate to plans for upward mobility Subaltern Workers in Contemporary France sheds light on the ways in which class identity along with all its associated practices tastes and aspirations has changed since the sociological classics on the working classes were published over half a century ago As such this book will appeal to sociologists with interests in the sociology of the family social class and the sociology of work

Rethinking Gender, Ethnicity and Religion in Iran Azadeh Kian, 2023-07-13 Winner of the Latifeh Yarshater book prize 2024 Covering the Pahlavi modern nation state as well as the Islamic regime this book examines the crucial shifts that affected Sunnite and subaltern women once Shi'ism became the state religion after the Iranian Revolution Focusing on women in the Baluchistan and Golestan provinces of Iran Azadeh Kian analyses and explores issues of cultural racialization ethno-centrism Shi'a-centrism and patriarchal and chauvinistic ideologies in Iranian society propagated by the state and sustained by its policies Based on quantitative and qualitative surveys taken throughout Iran comprised of over 7 000 married women and 100 interviews with a sample of Sunnite and subaltern Persian women Kian reveals how social hierarchy and power relations based on gender class ethnicity and religion operate She argues that women have been at the heart of the process of national and ethnic re construction as women as potential mothers are expected to reproduce national and ethnic boundaries Kian argues that by examining the family institution as a site of power analysing family dynamics as well as women s everyday lives the politics of ordinary Iranians and the relationship between state and society can be better understood Kian argues that the time is ripe to achieve a non hegemonic definition of Iranian national identity through acknowledgement of gender class ethnic and religious diversity and plurality of experiences of oppression and injustice
