Soldiers Heart Book Report:

Soldier's Heart Elizabeth D. Samet, 2004-08-01 Elizabeth D Samet and her students learned to romanticize the army from the stories of their fathers and from the movies For Samet it was the old World War II movies she used to watch on TV while her students grew up on Braveheart and Saving Private Ryan Unlike their teacher however these students cadets at the United States Military Academy at West Point have decided to turn make believe into real life West Point is a world away from Yale where Samet attended graduate school and where nothing sufficiently prepared her for teaching literature to young men and women who were training to fight a war Intimate and poignant Soldier s Heart chronicles the various tensions inherent in that life as well as the ways in which war has transformed Samet s relationship to literature Fighting in Iraq Samet s former students share what books and movies mean to them the poetry of Wallace Stevens the fiction of Virginia Woolf and J M Coetzee the epics of Homer or the films of James Cagney Their letters in turn prompt Samet to wonder exactly what she owes to cadets in the classroom Samet arrived at West Point before September 11 2001 and has seen the academy change dramatically In Soldier s Heart she reads this transformation through her own experiences and those of her students Forcefully examining what it means to be a civilian teaching literature at a military academy Samet also considers the role of women in the army the dangerous tides of religious and political zeal roiling the country the uses of the call to patriotism and the cult of sacrifice she believes is currently paralyzing national debate Ultimately Samet offers an honest and original reflection on the relationship between art and life Sarcasm Not Accepted Collin Wagner, 2016-05-18 This is a collection of writing by Collin Wagner at St Paul s School Sean's Writing Pieces Sean Metzger, 2016-05-17 This is a collection of writing by Sean Metzger at St Paul s School Literacy and Learning in the Content Areas Sharon Kane, 2025-04-23 The fifth edition of Literacy and Learning in the Content Areas Enhancing Knowledge in the Disciplines provides readers with the knowledge motivation tools and confidence for integrating literacy in their disciplinary classrooms Offering a literature based approach to teaching disciplinary literacy the new edition shares important ways in which teachers of courses in the disciplines can enhance student learning of subject matter and skills while also fostering their growth in the many facets of literacy Throughout each chapter Kane provides engaging and creative strategies and activities to make literacy come alive in discipline specific courses and to encourage students to explore and learn in the classroom Embedded in each chapter are examples resources and strategies to help readers actively engage with and implement literacy practices These features include Teaching in Action examples by subject area Activating Prior Knowledge activities to stimulate critical thinking to prepare readers to learn complex theoretical and conceptual material about teaching learning and literacy and end of chapter Application Activities to apply field experiences to classroom use New to the Fifth Edition Every chapter of this new edition is updated to reflect the current approaches standards and benchmarks for discipline specific literacy A new introduction with reading activities for professors to exemplify a common reading experience with their students supported by online reading materials New book talks to highlight books that show disciplinary thinking in action including literature related to art physical education economics computer science engineering food science music robotics environmental science family and consumer science and technology Expanded practical instructional strategies with new examples focused on STEAM science technology engineering art math fields and topics relating to diversity and language ESL ENL and modern language learning Updated examples and activities to emphasize students active involvement in their own learning
