he'd chosen someone else. Meanwhile the real culprit Jefferson Davis Falkins and his new girlfriend Carrie seem to believe they've found a whole new profession robbing Manco Kapak. Lieutenant Nick Slosser, the police detective in charge of the puzzling and increasingly violent case, has his own troubles including worries about how he's going to afford to send the oldest child of each of his two bigamous marriages to college without making their mothers suspicious. As this odd series of difficulties explodes into a triple killing, Carver finds himself in the middle of a brewing gang war over Kapak's little empire while Falkins and Carrie journey into territory more strange and violent than either had imagined. Perry is at his wicked best in Strip. The New York Times: A rambunctiously entertaining L.A. crime novel, escapist reading at its best. Publishers Weekly: starred review.
