Emerson, 2009 This volume contains twenty four such tales collected from around Wales by P H Emerson whilst living in Anglesea during the winter 1891 2 In most cases he amended them as little as possible preferring to record the stories as told staying true to the original so that the written story would enchant readers as though it were being presented in the vernacular Why do we call such a collection Fairy Tales Well when last did you hear a child say One more folk tale please or Another nursery tale please grandma Fairy tales are stories in which occurs something fairy something extraordinary fairies giants dwarfs speaking animals or the remarkable stupidity of some of the characters Stories of fairy interaction with humans where the kind and thoughtful are blessed and the thoughtless and spiteful are punished So take some time out and travel back to a period before television and radio a time when families would gather around a crackling and spitting hearth and granddad or grandma or uncle or auntie would delight and captivate the gathering with stories passed on to them from their parents and grandparents from time immemorial A proportion of the profit from the sale of this book will be donated towards the education of the underprivileged in Wales A book in the Myths Legends and Folk Tales from Around the World series
