Western Philosophy An Anthology Blackwell:

Western Philosophy John G. Cottingham, 2021-07-02 The new edition of this celebrated anthology surveys the Western philosophical tradition from its origins in ancient Greece to the work of today's leading philosophers. Western Philosophy An Anthology provides an authoritative guided tour through the great tradition of Western philosophical thought. The seminal writings of the great philosophers along with more recent readings of contemporary interest are explored in 144 substantial and carefully chosen extracts, each preceded by a lucid introduction guiding readers through the history of a diverse range of key arguments and explaining how important theories fit into the unfolding story of Western philosophical inquiry. Broad in scope, the anthology covers all the main branches of philosophy: theory of knowledge and metaphysics, logic and language, philosophy of mind, the self and freedom, religion and science, moral philosophy, political theory, aesthetics, and the meaning of life. All in self-contained parts which can be worked on by students and instructors independently. The third edition of the Anthology contains newly incorporated classic texts from thinkers such as Aquinas, Machiavelli, Descartes, William James, and Wittgenstein. Each of the 144 individual extracts is now followed by sample questions focusing on the key philosophical problems raised by the excerpt and accompanied by detailed further reading suggestions that include up-to-date links to online resources. Also new to this edition is an introductory essay written by John Cottingham which offers advice to students on how to read and write about a philosophical text. Part of the Blackwell Philosophy Anthologies series, Western Philosophy An Anthology Third Edition remains an indispensable collection of classic source materials and expert insights for both beginning and advanced university students in a wide range of philosophy courses. Cottingham, 2019-07-22 Western Philosophy John G. Cottingham, 2007-11-28 Western Philosophy An Anthology provides the most comprehensive and authoritative survey of the Western philosophical tradition from ancient Greece to the leading philosophers of today. Features substantial and carefully chosen excerpts from all the greats of philosophy arranged thematically and chronologically. Readings are introduced and linked together by a lucid philosophical commentary which guides the reader through the key arguments. Embraces all the major subfields of philosophy: theory of knowledge and metaphysics, philosophy of mind, religion and science, moral philosophy, theoretical and applied political theory, and aesthetics. Updated edition now includes additional contemporary readings in each section. Augmented by two completely new sections on logic and language and philosophy and the meaning of life. A History of Western Philosophy of Education in

Antiquity Avi I. Mintz, 2021-01-28 This volume traces the history of Western philosophy of education in Antiquity. Between the fifth century BCE and the fifth century CE, Plato, Isocrates, Aristotle, Cicero, Augustine, and others raised questions about the nature of teaching and learning, the relationship of education and politics, and the elements of a distinctively philosophical education. Their arguments on these topics launched a conversation that occupied philosophers over the millennia and continues today. About A History of Western Philosophy of Education An essential resource for researchers, scholars, and students of education this five volume set that traces the development of philosophy of education through Western culture and history Focusing on philosophers who have theorized education and its implementation the series constitutes a fresh dynamic and developing view of educational philosophy It expands our educational possibilities by reinvigorating philosophy's vibrant critical tradition connecting old and new perspectives and identifying the continuity of critique and reconstruction It also includes a timeline showing major historical events including educational initiatives and the publication of noteworthy philosophical works A New History of Western Philosophy Anthony Kenny,2010-08-26 Part One Ancient philosophy Part Two Medieval philosophy Part Three The rise of modern philosophy Part four Philosophy in the modern world

Buddhist Philosophy as Literature Rafal K. Stepień, 2020-11-01 Can literature reveal reality Is philosophical truth a literary artifice How does the way we think affect what we can know Buddhism has been grappling with these questions for centuries and this book attempts to answer them by exploring the relationship between literature and philosophy across the classical and contemporary Buddhist worlds of India Tibet China Japan Korea and North America Written by leading scholars the book examines literary texts composed over two millennia ranging in form from lyric verse narrative poetry panegyric hymn and koan to novel hagiography secret autobiography autofiction treatise and sutra all in sustained conversation with topics in metaphysics ethics aesthetics and the philosophies of mind language literature and religion Interdisciplinary and cross cultural this book deliberately works across and against the boundaries separating three mainstays of humanistic pursuit literature philosophy and religion by focusing on the multiple relationships at play between content and form in works drawn from a truly diverse range of philosophical schools literary genres religious cultures and historical eras Overall the book calls into question the very ways in which we do philosophy study literature and think about religious texts It shows that Buddhist thought provides sophisticated responses to some of the perennial problems regarding how we find create and apply meaning on the page in the mind and throughout our lives A scholarly inquiry into disciplinary practices in educational institutions Connie B. Zulu, Izak J. Oosthuizen, Charl C. Wolhuter, Corene de Wet, Rika Joubert, Ansie E. Kitching, Michael L. Marumo, Zahraa McDonald, Nicholus T. Mollo, Louis J. Oosthuizen, Ferdinand J. Potgieter, Bianke van Rooyen, Marius H. Smit, Amos T. Thebenyane, Andre van der Bijl, Johannes (Hannes) L. van der Walt, 2019-12-12 This book is a collection of chapters based on original research dealing with issues of discipline and disciplinary practices in educational institutions The aim of the book is to provide a scholarly and scientific perspective on the current state of discipline and disciplinary practices in schools and tertiary education settings The issue of discipline is investigated from diverse paradigmatic and methodological perspectives presenting empirical as well as also philosophical research The empirical perspective includes quantitative positivistic qualitative interpretive and mixed methods pragmatic designs and worldviews This book offers a ground breaking contribution to the field of learner and student discipline with insights into disciplinary practices and issues in educational institutions not hitherto researched such as Technical Vocational Education and Training

Overcoming Toxic Emotions Raymond Olusesan Aina, 2022-07-06 Overcoming Toxic Emotions is a compelling theme to enrich the restorative justice literature on the complex tasks of relational repair in a transitional society With its emphasis on the centrality of rebuilding trust and renewing the mode of being together this book is an innovative addition to the literature on justice in transitional societies It offers an original assessment of the Nigerian experience of restorative justice in peacebuilding This genuinely theological work opens new perspectives for a more adequate understanding of the Christian contribution to peacebuilding and the secular debate on restorative justice Yet the author expresses himself as an African theologian paying attention to the specific context of the problems about transitional justice and integrating spontaneously the wisdom of his dual cultures Yoruba and Christianity With its attentiveness to victim perspectives the book engages the traditional notion of divine omnipotence and vulnerability The book rejects the notion of the fetish omnipotent God It opts instead for an image of God as vulnerable yet powerful in love compelling inspiring and rallying us Richard Rorty Alan Malachowski, 2014-12-18 Richard Rorty is notorious for contending that the traditional foundation building and truth seeking ambitions of systematic philosophy should be set aside in favour of a more pragmatic conversational hermeneutically guided project This challenge has not only struck at the heart of philosophy but has ricocheted across other disciplines both contesting their received self images and opening up new avenues of inquiry in the process Alan Malachowski provides an authoritative overview of Rorty's considerable body of work and a general assessment of his impact both within philosophy and in the humanities more broadly He begins by explaining the genesis of Rorty's central ideas tracking their development from suggestions in his early papers through their crystallization in his groundbreaking book Philosophy and the Mirror of Nature Malachowski evaluates some of the common criticisms of Rorty's position and his ensuing pragmatism The book examines the subsequent evolution of his ideas focusing particularly on the main themes of his second major work Contingency Irony and Solidarity The political and cultural impact of Rorty's writings on such diverse fields as feminism cultural and literary theory and international relations are also considered and the author explores why Rorty's work has generally found its warmest reception in these areas rather than among mainstream philosophers

Knowing Bodies, Moving Minds Liora Bresler, 2013-11-11 This book aims to define new theoretical practical and methodological directions in educational research centered on the role of the body in teaching and learning Based on our phenomenological experience of the world it draws on perspectives from arts education and aesthetics as well as curriculum theory cultural anthropology and ethnomusicology These are arenas with a rich untapped cache of experience and inquiry that can be applied to the notions of schooling teaching and learning The book provides examples of state of the art empirical research on the body in a variety of educational settings Diverse art forms curricular settings educational levels and cultural traditions are selected to demonstrate the complexity and richness of embodied knowledge as they are manifested through institutional structures disciplines and specific practices
