Lewis and Clark, together with a team, set off on the 4th May, 1804 to explore the Louisiana Territory. They fought against the current in a barge and two horses, they used long poles and ropes to push the barge and move them away from the banks. It took the group around one and a half years to reach the Pacific Ocean, arriving in November 1805. On their return journey only took six months, with the group home again in March 1806.

The California Gold Rush in 1848, ending in 1855. In time, many people from all around the world came to California in an effort to find gold and 'strike it rich'.

Miners would move to place chasing gold, but camps to live in. These would then end up like after the miners left town.

Miners needed tools - a mining pan, shovel, food, shelter and every day living supplies.

Some miners worked together, able to search larger amounts of gravel for gold using a tool known as a rocker or cradle.

Westward Expansion was initiated by the Louisiana Purchase in 1803 when the U.S. President, Thomas Jefferson, purchased a large amount of land from the French government. Known as the Louisiana Territory, the land was located west of the Mississippi River all the way to the Rocky Mountains.

Most Americans believed that this expansion to the west was their destiny, and this became known as the Manifest Destiny.

From the Introduction What kind of knowledge and skills can your child be expected to learn in second grade at school How can you help your child at home These are questions that we try to answer in this book It presents the sort of knowledge and skills in literature reading and writing history and geography visual arts music mathematics and science that should be at the core of a challenging second grade education Because children and localities differ greatly across this big diverse country so do second grade classrooms But all communities including classrooms require some common ground for communication and learning In this book we present the specific shared knowledge that hundreds of parents and teachers across the nation have agreed upon for American second graders This core is not a comprehensive prescription for everything that every second grader needs to know Such a complete prescription would be rigid and undesirable But the book does offer a solid common ground that will enable young students to become active successful learners in their classroom community and later in the larger communities we live in town state nation and world BONUS This edition includes an excerpt from What Your Third Grader Needs to Know New York City's Best Public, Pre-K, and Elementary Schools Clara Hemphill, Lydie Raschka, Pamela Wheaton, Laura Zingmond, 2016-12-13 Completely revised with new profiles of more than 150 elementary schools and pre kindergarten programs For nearly 2 decades parents have looked to Clara Hemphill to help them find a good public school for their child This Fourth Edition features all new reviews of more than 150 of the city's best public elementary schools based on visits and in depth interviews by the InsideSchools staff This essential guide uncovers the inside scoop on schools the condition of the building special programs teacher quality and more includes a checklist of things to look for on a school tour and incorporates new listings of charter schools and stand alone pre kindergarten programs It also provides the hard facts on Total school enrollment Test scores for reading and math Ethnic makeup Who gets in Admissions requirements Teaching methods and styles Special education services How to apply The Making of Americans E. D. Hirsch, 2020-08-11 From the bestselling author of Cultural Literacy a passionate and cogent argument for reforming the way we teach our children Why after decades of commissions reforms and efforts at innovation do our schools continue to disappoint us In this comprehensive book educational theorist E D Hirsch Jr masterfully analyzes how American ideas about education have veered off course what we must do to right them and most importantly why He argues that the core problem with American education is that educational theorists especially in the early grades have for the past sixty years rejected academic content in favor of child centered and how to learning theories that are at odds with how children really learn The result is failing schools and widening inequality as only children from content rich usually better off homes can take advantage of the schools educational methods Hirsch unabashedly confronts the education establishment arguing that a content based curriculum is essential to addressing social and economic inequality A nationwide specific grade by grade curriculum established in the early school grades can help fulfill one of America's oldest and most compelling dreams to give all children regardless of language religion or origins the opportunity to participate as equals and become competent citizens Hirsch not only reminds us of these inspiring ideals he offers an ambitious and specific plan for achieving them Hirsch's case is clear and compelling His book ought to be read by anyone interested in the education and training of the next generation of Americans Glenn C Altschuler The Boston Globe Hirsch once again challenges the prevailing child centered philosophy championing a return to a subject centered approach to learning Publishers Weekly Creating Literacy-Rich Schools for Adolescents Gay Ivey, Douglas Fisher, 2006-03-15 We know that literacy is the key to learning in school yet millions of middle and high school students lack the literacy skills they need to succeed What can educators do In Creating Literacy Rich Schools for Adolescents authors Gay Ivey and Douglas Fisher make a compelling case that all teachers across the content areas have a role to play in students development of literacy which they define as reading writing speaking listening and viewing Rather than focusing solely on reading instruction and the cliché that says all teachers are teachers of reading they urge teachers to incorporate rich literacy based learning experiences into their classrooms with the goal of helping students to learn and think across the curriculum With research based findings engaging examples and extensive lists of resources Ivey and Fisher encourage readers to Reexamine the materials experiences and expectations of the English language arts classroom Use strategies to improve literacy in all the content areas and seek alternatives to the traditional textbook Make independent reading an important part of students ongoing literacy development Design and use interventions that really work for struggling students and Consider the schoolwide elements professional development peer coaching leadership and assessment that should be in place to support teachers and students Essential questions provide the focus for each chapter and Quality Indicators for Secondary Literacy help readers gauge where they are on the continuum of providing a meaningful literacy experience for students Creating Literacy Rich Schools for Adolescents will inspire educators to take up this challenge in their own school with new confidence that the work is worthwhile and achievable Note This product listing is for the Adobe Acrobat PDF version of the book
