Welcome Address For A Womans Conference:

The World's Congress of Representative Women May Wright Sewall, 1894 The Rise of Women's Transnational Activism Marie Sandell, 2015-01-26 What characterised women's international co-operation in the interwar period? How did female activists from different countries and continents relate to one another? Marie Sandell here explores the changing experiences of women involved in the major international women's organisations including the International Council of Women, International Alliance of Women, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom and the International Federation of University Women, as well as the changing compositions and aims of the organisations themselves. Moving beyond an Anglo-American focus, Sandell analyses what the term international sisterhood meant in this broader context, which for the first time included women from the beyond the Western world. Focusing on shifting identities, this book investigates how notions of sisterhood were played out and contested during the interwar period and will be invaluable reading for scholars of women's history and twentieth-century world history.

Report on the Women's Auxiliary Conference, 1916 The Indian Social Reformer, 1928 Maritime Women: Global Leadership Momoko Kitada, Erin Williams, Lisa Loloma Froholdt, 2015-02-05 This exciting new WMU book series volume features the first attempt to include detailed experiences of women in the maritime sector at a global level. It highlights the achievement of women in the maritime sector in particular women's leadership and service to the sustainable development of the maritime industry. The volume contains contemporary studies on maritime women and follows an interdisciplinary approach. It offers an overview of women's integration into the maritime sector since the late 1980s as well as benchmarking its impact on various levels such as policy, employment, education, leadership and sustainability. Even 20 years after the Beijing Declaration, gender-related challenges at work still remain in the maritime sector, for example lack of gender policy, difficulty in work-life balance, access to education and leadership opportunities. The book addresses a series of recommendations that may further help the integration of women into the maritime sector.

Women's Contribution to Science and Technology through ICWES Conferences Monique Frize, Claire Deschênes, Ruby Heap, 2023-12-09 This book discusses the legacy of the conference series The International Conferences of Women Engineers and Scientists (ICWES) which spans the second half of the Twentieth Century and the beginning of the twenty-first. The book first discusses how at a time when there were few women engineers and scientists a group of women organized a conference in June 1964 in New York which attracted 486 women. They presented their scientific achievements and discussed how to attract more women in STEM. This effort was carried out by volunteers continuing the ICWES conferences over a period of 59 years. The authors discuss the organizers, the hosting societies, the scientific content, the changes in issues over time and how the continuity has endured. The authors also discuss the importance of global involvement shown through past conferences in locations such as USA UK Italy Poland France India Ivory Coast Hungary Japan Canada and Korea The authors also outline how the efforts were aided by the development of a not for profit Canadian corporation the International Conference of Women in Sciences and engineering INWES which ensures the continuation of the conference series Claire Desches and Monique Frize ensured that the conference database was digitalized and is now available at the Canadian Archive of Women in STEM University of Ottawa Library with the hope that researchers will continue to explore this rich database As an important part of the Women in Science and Engineering book series the work hopes to inspire women and men girls and boys to study and work in STEM fields This book is important historically because it documents a unique adventure created by women in STEM through vision and leadership Their efforts established modes of networking and sharing their contributions in science technology and on gender issues the campaigns fought to right them She locates these struggles in the wider social context in which they took place This important book restores balance to the narrative of modern Irish history changing the focus from key male political figures to society at large by unveiling the often forgotten story of the country s women over a tumultuous century of change In doing so Rosemary Cullen Owens enriches our understanding of Irish history from 1870 to 1970 A Social History of Women in Ireland Table of Contents Introduction Part 1 Irishwomen in the Nineteenth Century A progressively widening set of objectives The Early Women s Movement Developments in Female Education Faith and Philanthropy Women and Religion Part 2 A New Century Action and Reaction Radical Suffrage Campaign Feminism and Nationalism Pacifism Militarism and Republicanism Part 3 Marriage Motherhood and Work The Social and Economic Role of Women in Post Famine Ireland Trade Unions and Irish Women Women and Work Part 4 Women in the New Irish State The Quest for Equal Citizenship 1922 1938 The Politicisation of Women Mid Twentieth Century Epilogue A Woman s World N.E.L.A.
