Canada: The State of the Federation, 2012 Loleen Berdahl, André Juneau, Carolyn Hughes Tuohy, 2015-07-03 Regional resource disparities and the tensions they generate are a perennial Canadian topic. This edition of Canada: The State of the Federation presents essays on regions, resources and the resiliency of the Canadian federal system. Contributors consider questions such as: to what extent do Canada's natural resource industries benefit the Canadian economy? Do Canada's federal institutions hinder or promote the ability of the economy to respond to global economic shifts? Do current intergovernmental structures allow for constructive dialogue about national policy issues? In responding to these and related questions, many of the authors touch on energy issues. Others consider the importance of functional institutions in a federal or multilevel context as an essential requirement for the effective resolution of issues. Together, the volume raises questions about the relationship of state and society, the importance of identity, trust and moral legitimacy for the operation of our federal institutions, and the extent to which federal institutions are reinforced or placed under stress by societal structures. The theme of this volume was triggered by Richard Simeon, the outstanding scholar of federalism who passed away in October 2013, and it is dedicated in his honour.

The Meeting Professional, 2002 Research Handbook on the Law and Politics of Migration Catherine Dauvergne, 2021-04-30 As the law and politics of migration become increasingly intertwined, this thought-provoking Research Handbook addresses the challenge of analysing their growing relationship. Discussing the evolving theoretical approaches to migration, it explores the growing attention given to the legal frameworks for migration and the expansion of regulation as migration moves to the centre of the political global agenda. The Research Handbook demonstrates that the overlap between law and politics puts the rule of law at risk in matters of migration

Refugees Are (Not) Welcome Here Azar Masoumi,2023-12-01 State controlled refugee protection in Canada has gone through paradoxical developments in recent decades While refugee rights have expanded access to these rights has tightened Previously unrecognized groups such as women experiencing gender based violence and LGBT populations are now considered legitimate refugees Yet the implementation of stringent administrative measures has made it harder for refugees to secure protection Refugees Are Not Welcome Here draws on archival and media sources interviews and organizational data to examine how refugee claims are administered within a complex and contradictory regime that maintains significant legal and bureaucratic silos Azar Masoumi explains why state controlled refugee protection persists despite its many failures not only in Canada but globally This rigorous study deftly argues that the paradoxical interplay between refugee law and claim processing bureaucracies is symptomatic of a larger illogic reliance on the exclusivist mechanisms of the nation state to ensure the universal application of rights Ultimately this book illuminates just how this paradox has turned refugee protection into an unfulfilled promise Canadian Magazine of Politics, Science, Art & Literature ,1925 The Canadian Magazine of Politics, Science, Art and Literature ,1925 Sessional Papers of the Dominion of Canada Canada.
