Lysik, 1999 Essays discussing the meaning of Christ's presence The Christian Life Dennis Bushkofsky, Craig A. Satterlee, 2008-05-30 The Christian Life focuses on the formative role of baptism not only for the individual being baptized but the church This book examines the related rites of affirmation welcome to baptism and confession and moves to consider other rites in which the baptismal center is clearly seen The Rites of Christian Initiation Maxwell E. Johnson, 2016-03-24 Originally published in 1999 The Rites of Christian Initiation was hailed for its clarity and comprehensiveness Kallian McDonnell OSB called it the best overall treatment of Christian initiation available and Paul Bradshaw predicted it would be the standard textbook on the subject for very many years to come The current edition draws on new translations of early texts on baptism as well as recent scholarship on the early traditions in the East and West It is sure to replace itself as the new standard reference on the rites of Christian initiation Maxwell E Johnson's expanded and revised text provides a more complete view of the history and interpretation of the rites in the Eastern Church including two chapters that explore the pre Nicene Eastern and Western traditions in detail Revisiting the theology of baptism this edition also provides more nuanced positions on the Eastern and Western traditions Finally recent liturgical developments in American Protestant churches particularly Lutheran as well as the ongoing development of the RCIA and confirmation practices of Catholics made it necessary to revisit the place and meaning of these rites in the church today Maxwell E Johnson PhD is professor of liturgy at the University of Notre Dame and an ordained minister of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America He has published in Worship and is the editor of and contributor to Living Water Sealing Spirit Readings on Christian Initiation Liturgical Press 1995 and the revised and expanded edition of E C Whitaker Documents of the Baptismal Liturgy Liturgical Press and S P C K 2003 to which this study serves as a companion volume The Church in Act Maxwell E. Johnson, 2015 The Church in Act explores the dynamics of ecclesial and liturgical theology examining the body of Christ in action Maxwell E Johnson provides in this volume historical and doctrinal thinking on a diversity of liturgical subjects under the umbrella of Lutheran liturgical theology in ecumenical conversation From baptismal spirituality to Eucharistic concerns the volume offers a robust account of the liturgical sacramental and spiritual practices of the church for scholars students pastors and others who seek to minister in an ecumenical context with increased understanding and insight

The Reform of Baptism and Confirmation in American Lutheranism Jeffrey A. Truscott, 2003-10-28 This resource examines the historical and theological background of the rites used for baptism and confirmation in the Lutheran Book of Worship 1978 The introduction of the LBW as the standard book in Lutheran worship not only provided North American Lutherans with a new rite for baptism but also new understandings of the meaning of baptism Baptism was suddenly seen as being central to Christian identity rather than merely serving as an infant rite of passage performed occasionally in private It also allowed for full participation of the liturgical assembly and employed a greater use of ritual and gesture Simultaneously the greater stress on baptism was accompanied by an attempt to downplay the theological and liturgical importance of confirmation the centerpiece of Lutheran spiritual formation for those persons baptized in infancy Confirmation was revised as the Affirmation of Baptism allowing it only a secondary role as a part of the original rite of baptism Truscott argues that these changes have affected how North American Lutherans think about and practice Christian initiation He also critically evaluates the LBW rites and makes proposals for the future renewal of Christian initiation in North American Lutheranism
